NOMADIC GLEN CLUBS FIND A HOME

THIS IS SOME of the action during an exhibition softball game which unofficially lifted the veil off the new Glen Williams ball park last week. The park is the result of endless hours of hard work and the generosity of community-minded villagers. While the Glen was without a home base for sports the team played most of their home games at Hornby. Here, the Glen hosts Domtar in the first game on the new ground on the Cliff Davidson farm.

Once Drew Packed Houses Disinterest Kills Raiders

The Georgetown Raider Hockey club is no more.

The axe dropped Sunday night when club officials met to discuss the team's precarious position. It took them just three quarters of an hour to reach their verdict.

An official told The Herald there were several factors that led to their throwing in the towel. High on the list was public indifference, and a close second was a sea of mounting expenses that would have engulfed the club had it started another season.

Crowd support at Intermediate hockey games dipped sharply in recent seasons and it was unlikely that another campaign would have brought about any miracles at the ticket office. That's about what was needed if the Raiders were to extend their life span one more notch.

The club fried WOAA for size last season after years with the OHA and the fans stayed away in even larger numbers.

The Herald's record of Raider teams goes back to 1934 when they were the Paper makers. It's an enviable history probably unmatched by any other Ontario Hockey Association club.

1934 - Group champions over Milton. 1935 - Group semi finalists, against Bolton. 1936 - Group semi-finalists, against Acton. 1937 - No Team. 1938 - Group finalists, against Bolton 1939 - Group finalists, against Bolton. 1940 - OHA Int B semi finalists, against Niagara. 1941 - Group finalists, against Elora. 1942 - Group champions over Elora. 1943 - No Team. 1944 - No Team. 1945 - OHA Int B semi finalists, against Pt. MIDGETS GET YESY IN FRIDAY EXHIBITION GAME

Whether or not Georgetown Midgets have enough momentum to grab a third straight Ontario championship will be one of the questions Coach Gerry Inglis will be seeking to answer when he throws his club against Brampton in a pre-season exhibition game here Friday night.

Inglis will be missing seven members of the club that made it to the Midget title last season in, Telford, Malcolm, Popeil, Hay, Sheppard, Briggs and Murdock.

The game is also a testing ground for the unknown quantities among the try-out since no cuts have been made at writing time.

Vacancies Are Limited In Crowded Tyke League

New faces in the Tyke Hockey setup this season will be few and far between. Willing rookies are waiting in great numbers to take to the ice on the lowest rung of local organized hockey, but the room just isn't there.

The situation came about because very few of last year's Tykes became eligible for Saturday Morning Hockey through age.

To keep it fair Tyke League officials are accepting applications of last winter's Tykes first and then signing as many first year youngsters as they can possibly handle, the oldest getting preference.

The small fry circuit starts officially tomorrow night (Friday), but because some of the regular ice time is booked the players will have skating practice only from 6.30 until 7.30 p.m.

Loop officials are asking that last year's players be at the arena at 6.30. Dress for the season will be last year's sweaters, helmets and skates. No need for hockey sticks.

The league will accept this week new boys who were born between May 31, 1956, and and June 1 1957.

See next week's Herald for a signing schedule for other groups.

FOR S SCHOOL TRACK MEET CREAM OF P.S. ATHLETES

The best athletes of Georgetown's five public schools will meet to compete next Tuesda at the annual Inter school Field Day in the park.

The field day is handled by a field day committee comprised of teachers from each of the participating schools.

Most of the schools are in the process of determining their delegations to the meet this week.

Chapel Street's field was Friday, Wrigglesworth's was Tuesday, Park's and Kennedy's Wednesday and Harrison's today.

HOCKEY WOMEN ADD TO NUMBERS

The All Star Ladies' Support Group grew by one when they welcomed a new member at their first meeting of the season, but they're still seeking more. They worked on euchre party plans and set their next meet for October 19 at the home of Mrs. Sam Walker.

WATCH SHOT GUNS

The Ontario Safety League reminides duck and grouse hunters that shot guns were involved in nearly half the hunting accidents in Ontario in 1963. Well over half of these happened because the gun was discharged accidentally.

DANCE OF THE GLADIATORS

BALANCING A FOOTBALL on your left shoulder pad all the way to the goal line is a neat trick if you can do it — but Georgetown Rebel end (No. 61) is about to have his concentration interrupted by a Guelph pass defender.
