TOWERING ARCHES CN'S HEADACHE

THE HUGE SWEEPING ARCHES which will bear the lofty roof of the new Holy Cross Church are in place this week — but not without creating their share of headaches for the railway. The laminated arches were built in Peterboro — but unscheduled alterations had to be made at the last minute. Corners of the arches were cut off when it was discovered they wouldn't pass through the railway bridges. The arches, nine of them in all were erected by the contractor on the holiday weekend. The largest towers some sixty feet above the church floor in the centre of the roofline. Atop it will be mounted a fifteen foot spire.

Stolen Cars, Break-Ins Make Busy Police Week

Blinding sun reflected off the white exterior of St. Andrew's United Church at the corner of Sinclair and Mount-Arview was blamed for a two-car collision there Thursday, Oct. 8. Affected by the glare was Harold Eldon Brandt, 65 Raylawn Crescent, who was southbound on Mount-Arview and making a left turn onto Sinclair. Police said the Brandt car struck the front end of a car driven by Frederick Brown of 23 Esplanade Rd. The Brown car was stopped at the stop sign. Sgt. Ben Rankine placed property damage at $300 to the 1962 Meteor driven by Brown, and $100 to the 1965 Olds driven by Brandt. The accident happened at 8 a.m. A car stolen Monday Oct. 5 is still unrecovered. The vehicle, a 1964 Mercury, owned by Bob Barber, 30 Market St. was taken sometime during the night. Two public schools were broken into last Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning, but only a small amount of money was taken. The incidents occurred at Howard Wrigglesworth and Park schools. The break-ins were identical in that in both cases the prowler broke glass in the doors and unlocked them from the inside. The operator of Koo-White automatic laundry on Young St. reported Thursday that one of the coin changer boxes had been broken open and an unknown amount of change taken. Postmaster Harold Marshall gave chase in his own car when a car thief took off in a post office employee's car Thursday, but was unable to catch him. The stolen car, owned by James Layton, Temple Rd., was parked on the post office lot. It was later recovered abandoned near the IGA supermarket.

Rabbi Tells Rotary

Do It Now, This Is The Only Day Available

"The trouble with life is — you're half way through it before you learn that it's a 'Do-it-yourself' project," Rabbi Harold Lerner of Guelph told Rotarians from Acton, Milton, and Georgetown at the annual Tri-Club meeting in the Riviera, Tuesday night. Termining his talk: "Psychiatrist go home," he humorously defined psychiatry as "the art of teaching people how to stand on their own feet, while lying on a couch." Continuing "definitions he labelled a neurotic one who builds castles in the air, a psychotic as one who lives in them, and a psychiatrist as the one who collects the rent. In more serious vein, he reminded the Rotarians that there should be two days free of fear, yesterday and tomorrow. "The mistakes and frustrations of yesterday cannot be undone, and the promises of tomorrow are beyond your control," commented the Rabbi. He felt it was easier for many people to lie on a couch and dig into the past, than sit in a chair facing today. The speaker claimed most of us know what we ought to do, but lack the determination to do it. He felt the lack of decisiveness to be the root of many a problem, and urged a policy of "do it now," since today is the only day available. He told an ancient tale of a king who was looking for happiness. His advisers went to look for a happy man from whom they could take the shirt off his back. After a 20 year search they found a happy man but he had no shirt. Using this tale as an example he pointed out that the main source of unhappiness is not knowing what we want, and killing ourselves to get it. Using an old quotation, he quoted "Who is rich? He who rejoices in his portion. In conclusion, he proposed a thought for the day in the modern manner, "Life is fragile — handle with prayer and Travel on the pray as you go plan." John Wolfe thanked the Rabbi for his humorous and thought-provoking address. Prior to the speech John Arnold, zone representative for District 707, told the group that Rabbi Lerner came from the Beatles hometown, Liverpool, and was a son, and grandson of a rabbi. After serving with the RAF and US army in England, he came to Guelph as the Rabbi of Beth Israel synagogue. Mr. Arnold pointed out that the Rabbi was a Rotarian who lived up to principles of the club. Seated at the head table were Ken Robertson, president of

Lions to Host Hallowe'en Skating Party, All Ages

The Lions Club has come up with a scheme to take the goblins and ghosts off the street Hallowe'en night and put them on ice. Don Goeling, Memorial Arena Manager and Lion member said yesterday that the club plans to host a Hallowe'en Skating Party in the arena on the 31st which will be open to all ages. Prizes will be given for best costumes and winners of races. There will be no charge. "We want everyone to be in costume," Goeling said, "but we haven't limited admission to people in costume so mothers will feel free to drop in with their masquerading children." There will be no age limit. Adults who care to dress up and join the throng will be just as welcome as the youngsters, Goeling said. The arena doors will open at 7 p.m. If the party is a success it will be held annually.
