Riviera Will Be Crafts Centre Sat.

A recent meeting of the committee arranging the local Arts & Crafts annual Exhibit and Sale are hoping for the biggest-ever attendance. The sale is in the Riviera this Saturday, October 17th.

The convener in charge of arranging for guest artists reported that "an outstanding array of talent had been obtained for demonstrations and included Mrs. Laura Peachell, to demonstrate Card Weaving and Braiding; Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Kursto, Miss Elizabeth Kursto, and Miss Yachi Okawa, who will have a display and demonstrate Origami; Mr. C. L. Rogovalson will demonstrate Spinning; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wyatt Pottery; and the Canadian National Institute for the Blind will have a demonstration of "Wicker Work." Other crafts represented will be Pottery, Jewellery, Spinning, Painting, Ceramics, Weaving, Metal-Craft, Leather Carving, Silk Screen Printing and Creative Leather-Craft.

All committee members felt that this would be by far the most complete exhibit ever sponsored.

The president of the group expressed the hope that local people will turn out in large numbers as they did last year.

The exhibition is open from 10:30 Saturday morning until 4:30 p.m.
