STEWARTTOWN
Children's Aid Work is Explained to Institute
Thursday evening, October 8th, the Esqueving Women's Institute met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson. There were 15 members present and 2 visitors.
The meeting opened in the usual manner and the Roll Call was answered to "For What Am I Thankful".
A reading entitled "Thanksgiving Time" was given by Mrs. George Atkinson. Mrs. John Dawson was welcomed as a new member.
Mrs. James Staddon, Esqueving, introduced Mr. James a Social Worker with the Children's Aid Society of Halton County, who showed films introducing all the staff of the Milton Society, and a demonstration of one phase of their work.
Mr. James explained he had memberships available in the Society for $1.00 each, and several of the ladies joined. The Institute also voted a $25.00 donation to the Society. Personalized Chocolate bars were given out and these can be purchased from any of the members.
The Institute agreed to sponsor the Annual Halloween Party with Mrs. George Atkinson, and Mrs. Robert McDonald as convener.
Mrs. Fred Armstrong and Mrs. Wm. Humphreys assisted the hostess and served a delicious lunch to all.
Mrs. Walter Lawson returned home Friday evening from a month's vacation trip, by train. She visited in Salt Lake City, and Los Angeles. While there she visited with her aunt and uncle Rev. William and Mrs. Spicer, from there she went on to San Francisco, Vancouver and Victoria. While in Vancouver she visited with her niece and her family Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones (Beth Lawson) and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanna, formerly of Brampton. She also enjoyed a telephone conversation with Mr. Bob Smethurst, a former resident and frequent visitor to our village. Mrs. Lawson enjoyed a few days in Banff on her return journey, and reports beautiful weather for the full month of her vacation.
Birthday greetings to Donald Densmore, 12 years old on Wednesday, October 21st.
Recent visitors with Mrs. Edwin Hicken and family were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chick of Cheltenham Glen, her sister Mrs. H. Little, Liskeard Cornwall, England, Mrs. Hicken's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marzell of Plainsfield New Jersey.

Singing Wins Cash, Cup, for Earl Burt
Mrs. Earl Burt entered a class of 13 amateurs in a singing and playing contest at Rock Hill Park on a recent Sunday evening and won a first prize in cash and a cup. His choice of songs Molly Darling and Old Lucking Chair.
The 3rd meeting of the Silver Hells homemaking club was Saturday morning, October 17 at Mrs. McKewen's and 15 members were present.
The discussion was: whole, hard and soft. The group divided as usual and made "whole ed."
Mrs. Ben Case and Stuart Scott recently took a vacation trip to Gaspé Peninsula. They reported the foliage brilliant but found many trees already bare in Vermont and New Hampshire. After arriving home, Mr. Case decided to go out west by himself. He followed the north shore of Lake Superior and on through Manitoba as far as Saskatchewan and back again visiting relatives in Espanola before coming home.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Smith on vacation also made the trip east to Gaspé Peninsula to Halifax, Prince Edward Island, New Hampshire, Vermont, New York State and on to Ottawa and North Bay and home.
Mrs. George Coyne of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson and family on Thanksgiving weekend.
