THEY 'KARTED' HOME THE WINNERS' REWARDS

Plans Fade for Maple Leaf Hornby Stadium

Cows will graze where the Toronto Baseball Maple Leafs might have played. Last week, plans for the construction of a $3,000,000, twenty thousand seat major league stadium at Hornby were cancelled. The Oakville parks board, which holds that fate of the property, cancelled the grand scheme when they approved plans for a $500 softball diamond on part of the land and decided to rent the balance as cattle pasture for an annual rental fee of $200. The action apparently means the end of all hopes for a major league baseball stadium in the Hornby area. Last April, possibility of the dreamed of stadium being constructed in this area to attract a major league team was seriously discussed.

Volleyball Teams Seek Titles in CWOSSA Games

Georgetown has senior and junior volleyball teams in a CWOSSA A tournament this week for the first time. The double entry was earned Saturday when both Georgetown teams swept both their games in the District 10 Tournament here involving two Guelph Schools and Georgetown. Victims of the Georgetown domination of the tournament were Guelph CVI and John F. Ross. The Junior girls wrapped up the tourney by downing John F. Ross 29 to 27 in the final, and the Seniors sailed their triumph away with a 33 25 decision over GCVI. Betty Quackenbush and Pat Barrager paced the senior girls stand at Maple Leaf Gardens, and Linda Baxter were Junior standouts. Georgetown hosts the tourney once over three years. The CWOSSA A Tournament to which the winning teams progressed involves the winners of similar District play offs from Districts 7 to 12 inclusive.

The Georgetown high school girls volleyball team has won the CWOSSA B tournaments for the past two years running. The President of the Ladies Section Mrs. Win Rigg, the Men's Section president, Chair man of the Board of Directors Howard Caton, and club golf professional Max Foster, all addressed the membership from the head table. A dance concluded the evening.

Trophy, Green Blazer to GGCC Champion M. Pullen

Presentation of a green blazer bearing the words Georgetown Golf and Country Club Champion and the coveted GGCC Trophy to Mike Pullen was the high point of that club's closing dinner and presentation night Saturday. Bill Lee, president of the Men's Section, made the presentation which commenced a long list of trophy awards following a roast beef dinner. A cocktail hour preceded the banquet. The President of the Ladies Section Mrs. Win Rigg, the Men's Section president, Chair man of the Board of Directors Howard Caton, and club golf professional Max Foster, all addressed the membership from the head table. A dance concluded the evening.

my, Ray Owen, and publicity chairman Bob McMenemy. Terry Baines, a member of the board of directors, chaired the election. The club's Mixed Closing Day was held Saturday, October 24 when a mixed two-ball concluded the season. Verna Schenk and Bert Glockling won the first gross prize, June Evans and John Dunlop won the 1st net prize, and other prizes went to Dorothy Young and Harold Eagles for 2nd low gross, and Mary Glockling and Eric Smith for 2nd low net. The club mixed two-ball championship award was presented to Inez Crichton and Ray Owen, and the runner up award to Ann Timmins and Bob Salter at a social time after the day's competition. A hundred and thirty-eight attended the buffet and 100 turned up for the closing dance sponsored by the Ladies' Section.

Dave Clark Five is Feature at Gardens

While Georgetown council is dealing with local affairs of state next Monday night, it is likely that a number of other Georgetowners, particularly youthful ones, may desert town for the bright city lights. The Dave Clark Five, perhaps the only English group to deserve some of the teenage stand at Maple Leaf Gardens that night. Toronto is one of 42 cities in their current concert tour. The show is promoted by Johnny Lombardi who filled the Gardens Sunday for an Italian review featuring Rita Pavone.

Closing Days, Elections End Golf at North Halton

Seventy-two men played at the banquet. The Club Captain is Don Curry, vice-captain Eric Ross, secretary-treasurer Gob Collier, handicap committee Bill Latimer and Jim Linton, social committee Frank Wallace, Ted Worrall, Leigh Bradbury, Bob McMene

Urry is Big Winner in Kart Race Wind-up

Bob Urry was the big winner at the North Halton Kart Club's season's corker Sunday afternoon, October 18. Urry won the feature 100 lap race and with his victory sewed up the Class 2 point championship as well. Other double winners of both the feature races and their season's points competition were Keith Hunter in Class 3, and Ed Elziger in Class 5. Dave Armstrong won the Class 4 race, but the points gleaned in this event were not enough to boost him into the lead in that division and the trophy went to Russ Urry. Harvey Dockstader was awarded the trophy for the most points in Class 1, Charles McCormack was runner up in Class 2, and Roy Brocklebank was runner-up in Class 3. Keith Hunter, the club president presented the awards. An excellent crowd witnessed the finale. Although the season is officially completed, the racers will continue to run Wednesday nights under the lights as long as weather permits.

Hornby Managers, Coaches Honoured by Ball Teams

On Saturday night, October 24, the boys of the Hornby Minor Softball Teams and their parents, were treated to a party at the Hornby Orange Hall to wind up the ball season. The evening started off with three films which were shown by John Wallace. One film was on New Zealand, one on skiing and one on cartoons, which is always the most important to the children. A very important part of the evening was when the manager and coaches were presented with awards for the work they had done during the ball season with the boys. The M.C. for this part of the evening was Alf Bridgen, who congratulated the boys, the managers, coaches and their parents for their time spent with these boys. The Pee Wee team was under the supervision of Edward Robertson as coach and John Wallace as manager. A pen and pencil set was presented to each of these two men, with Don McClure making the presentation to John, and Murray Brownridge presenting Edward. The squirt team which was run by Dave and Fran Leslie, also presented their manager and coach, Randy Howden, presented Fran with a wall plaque and Terry Tyner, presented Dave with a great surprise to the managers and coaches and they all expressed their thanks to the children. The evening ended with hot dogs and pop for the children and coffee and doughnuts for the parents.
