

Uniformed Male Attendants When Army Officer Marries

Male members of the wedding party, members of the 8th Canadian Hussars (Princess Louise's) wore their number one dress blues when Lieut. John Herbert Heymans, Petawawa, married Sylvia Ellis, 13 Hewson Cres., Georgetown, Saturday October 10.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heymans, Toronto, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ellis, 13 Hewson Cres.

The military wedding in St. George's Anglican Church was conducted by Father J. H. McMullin. Wedding music was played on the church organ by Mr. George Dekker.

Feathered chrysantheums on the altar and bows on the pew decorated the church for the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length A line gown of white tulle featuring a scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves, a bouffant elbow length veil and the identical applique on the waist band as on the wedding ring head piece.

She carried an ivory prayer book with white rosebuds.

Misses Penny Burley, the bridesmaid, and Diane Macaulay, bridesmaid, were gowned alike in floor-length gowns of taupe de soie in leaf green, featuring A line skirts, scooped necklines, elbow length sleeves and back panels in contrasting lime light green which fell from waist to floor. Their headpieces were circular in two tones of green and they carried miniature white carnations.

Joanne Heymans, the flower girl, wore a floor-length gown of taupe de soie in lime light with an empire waistline, scooped neckline, short sleeves, a leaf green velvet sash and headpiece. She carried a basket of white and yellow miniature carnations.

Lieut. David L. Graham was groomsmen and Lieut. Chris D. Binna, and Lieut. Wylie S. Black were ushers. All three are stationed at Camp Petawawa.

For the reception in the 1007 Hall afterwards, Mrs. Ellis received for her daughter in a street-length taupe de soie champagne dress with a scooped neckline and short sleeves.

The hostess was gently draped from the shoulders to the waist. She wore brown accessories and a corsage of tall man roses.

Mrs. Heymans assisted in a street-length crepe dress in dark green with clusters of roses. Her accessories were beige and she wore a white rose corsage.

For traveling to Windsor and Detroit the bride donned a gold-colored, Harrington and suit trimmed with suede. Her shoes and gloves were of brown leather and she carried a brown leather purse. Her hat was gold and she wore bronze pom-pom muffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Heymans will make their home in Petawawa Village.

Guests attended the ceremony from Ottawa, Petawawa, Toronto and Georgetown.

THE CORPS GET A FLAG

CAPT. ARCHIE ROBERTS, high school shop instructor and cadet corps O.C. displays the result of months of planning on the part of corps officers — a Georgetown High School Cadet Corps flag which just arrived. The flag, which will be officially presented this month, incorporates the Union Jack, the corps number, 676, and insignia on a white background of silk. It will be carried at the head of the local corps detachment in the Remembrance Day parade Sunday.

MUSICAL NOTES

ABOUT THE BARBERSHOPPERS

On October 17, Aileen and Gord Currie, Marion and Jim Pope attended the Eighth Annual Harvest of Harmony presented by the Kitchener-Waterloo Chapter. On the Program were the Twin City Harmonizers, K.W. Chordbusters, Thompson brothers, Night Hawks and the Four-In-Accord who appeared in our Charter show in April.

The date has been set for an Inter-Chapter visit with the Scarborough chapter. It will take place Tuesday night November 17 at the YMCA at the corner of Birchmount and Lawrence.

Recent guests at Chapter meetings have been John Harty, John East, Logan MacDonald, Bernie Shrubsole, Gordon Thompson, and John White. Rex Day is the newest member.

Tom McColgan as a "man of note" will receive a pocket card and tie-tac for bringing a new member into the society.

When we sang "Oh, What A Pal Was Mary" at the Musical sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary, recently it was the first time we had performed the number on stage. We had been practicing it for weeks.

Some shows coming up you might want to attend include the Wingham Chapter Show Sat. Nov. 14, the Toronto Chapter Fall Show Saturday Nov. 21, and the Simcoe Chapter Show Saturday Nov. 21.

The chorus and quartet will be at the Orangeville Legion Hall Wednesday Nov. 11, the Fall Convention takes place at North Bay, Friday and Sunday, Nov. 8 to 9.

The Georgetown chorus and quartet is invited to sing (or just go and enjoy an evening of harmony and fun) at the annual Canadian Night Nov. 20 at the Wolverine Hotel in downtown Detroit. This is an event geared to honouring Canadian Barbershop friends with an across-the-border evening of good international relations.

The ten fellows who really worked so hard to make the fair booth a success are Duncan Thompson, Dave Morgan, Jim Turnbull, Rex Day, Ralph Barton, Jack Martin, Jim Pope, Howie Hamilton, Bill Burrows and Ken Billington.

Production Down Quality is Good

Halton County farmers generally had a good year as far as crops were concerned according to Halton County Agricultural representative J. C. Stanley.

"The quality of the crops in the area was very good this year," he said, "but of course the quantity of the crops was kept down in most instances because of the heavy hail storm that hit the entire county this summer."

Mr. Stanley pointed out that pastures in the area were extremely good this year.

"However, the maturity of the corn crops was slowed down by the heavy rains in the month of August. But now the recent dry weather has allowed the farmers to get busy picking the grains in the fields."

Farmers in Peel County are also harvesting crops ranging from very good to excellent this year. Peel County Agricultural representative Herb Norry said the strongest crops were corn and apples while hay and grains were also well above average.

Computers are reported to be playing an increasing role in the news field. They might have a salutary effect on the mathematics of the kid reporter who describes a 50-year-old victim as "elderly." — Timmins Daily Press.
