ONE DOZEN BROWNIES TO GO

TAKING THEIR PLACE in Sunday's Remembrance Day parade with such trained marchers as the Lorne Scots Militia, high school cadets and Legion vets, Miss Brownie-pack showed they could parade with the best of them and not lose ground. The parade formed on Mill Street, moved down Mill to Main, and on to the Remembrance Park via George and Charles Streets.

Kinnette Bridge Tournament Attracts 36 Participants

A novel fund raising scheme has been inaugurated by the local Kinette Club — a marathon bridge tournament. Not only do the Kinettes raise funds but the participants have a lot of fun and make new friends. Twenty ladies and sixteen mixed couples have signed to play games over the next 5 months. While keeping the same partner, an opponent is only played once during this time, according to a prepared schedule. The games are played at home, with the host taking the opponents over any suitable night within a two week period. At the end of the tournament the high scorer wins ten dollars and the second high wins five dollars. But no one loses since a party will be held for all the players. How do the Kinettes make money out of this? There is a $2.50 entry fee, which works out at merely 50¢ a game. Participating in the ladies' group are: Miss Jean Mackenzie and Mrs. O. Carter, Miss M. Mackenzie and Miss Olive Logan, Mrs. Marion Harber and Mrs. M. Gilmer, Mrs. J. Gibbons and Miss E. Leslie, Mrs. A. Bradley and Mrs. Y. Hush, Mrs. Hazel Hyde, and Mrs. C. King Mrs. Laobel Mundy and Mrs. Mary Rose Peters, Mrs. Blake Leslie and Mrs. A. Pritchard, Mrs. E. Hyde and Mrs. L. Hunter, Mrs. Y. Nodwell and Mrs. G. Dann.

While in the mixed couples group are: Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. J. Costigan, Mr. and Mrs. B. Vary, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ian Cass, Mr. and Mrs. H. Seckington, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. B. Collett, Mr. and Mrs. B. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lackie, Mr. and Mrs. K. Georgetown Nurses Have Tour of School for Deaf

The Georgetown and District Registered Nurses Organization took a close look at facilities at the Ontario School for the Deaf at Milton when they toured the school Wednesday, October 21. The School Superintendent, Mr. D. E. Kennedy told the history of the school, discussed the teaching methods and pointed out some of the problems involved in the education of deaf children. The group was surprised at the size of the school and the extent of the equipment used. The interior design and decoration would delight any child. Following the tour of the school, Mr. Kennedy introduced the group to Mrs. Mary Manning, Supervisor of the

The Organization's members were particularly pleased to meet Mrs. Manning who is the new Director of Nursing at the local hospital. During the social hour following the tour Mrs. Manning and her staff served refreshments to the group. A large percentage of the G.R.N.O. attended the tour.

Bill Wheeler Receives Prize at Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wheeler attended the graduation exercises recently at John Ross Collegiate in Guelph where Bill has been a student. He received a Board of Education prize for outstanding students in technical course in auto mechanics. Congratulations, Bill. He is now gaining practical experience in a garage there.

Sympathy is extended to the Foster family in the death of Lloyd. They lived for a number of years here when Lloyd was employed at Milton and they lived in the Nantel house.

The United Church Women met last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hunter with twelve members present. Many items of business were dealt with and final plans were made for the apron and bake sale. Plans were made to have a cupboard built for choir rooms etc. in the Fellowship Room of the church.

Sympathy is extended to the Garvin family in the sudden death of Howard. He was one of the few remaining life-long residents of the district. He farmed for many years on the ninth line, then moved to the village but still worked in the stone quarry. His son Lorne and his wife, Betty now live on the farm.

Klaus Schneider of the ninth line attended the week-end for Sunday School teachers at Five Oaks Training Centre at Paris. Klaus is a teacher of juniors in the United Church School.

The United Church Women held a successful apron and bake sale on Saturday afternoon in the Fellowship Room. Space was limited for the affair as the large basement is now be-

Indiana "U" Degree For Local Women

Mrs. Eleanor Schnelderman of Georgetown, receiving the A.B. degree in psychology, is among 1,727 fall graduates announced by Indiana University at Bloomington.

Of the 1,727 degree recipients 46 were graduated with honours.

An additional 4,000 students were awarded degrees at the regular graduation ceremony conducted by the University last June.

Tells Businesswomen About Life in Pakistan Homeland

A good number of Business and Professional Women were in attendance at the regular dinner meeting on Monday, November 2nd at the North Hutton Golf and Country Club, when Miss Josephine Lal Din, Pakistan was the guest speaker. Miss Lal Din who is presently working at the Georgetown and District Hospital, while waiting to get into university, wore her traditional sari of white silk banded with gold. In her homeland she is a Christian high school teacher. Christians are a 15 per cent minority group in the high Moslem population. Moslem students coming to Canada or any other country for further education are subsidized by the government but not so with a Christian student. They must pay their own expenses and their families are not allowed to send them any help while they are here. Miss Lal Din, a remarkably ambitious and intelligent woman, has a great desire to return home, after post graduate studies, and open her own Christian High School. She willingly answered the many questions that the members asked her, on food, clothing, opportunities for women and their homelife. She also demonstrated other beautiful wearing apparel. Miss Jean Roddell thanked her on behalf of the club and presented her with a book on Canada. During the business portion of the meeting regular reports were read with Miss Jean Roddell reporting a very successful 'nearby new sale'. The United Nations chairman took orders for UNICEF cards and it was decided to place an ad in the Herald for the convenience of anyone wanting these cards. Mrs. Audrey Scott will replace Mrs. Jean Roddell on the ways and means committee. Mrs. Roddell having found she was unable to attend this month, Mrs. Wallace Thompson, Mrs. Elizabeth Duck and Miss
