Lloyd Foster, 47 was Cycle Store Operator

Operator of a cycle and sports store at Guelph & Water streets, Lloyd Foster, 46, died in Georgetown hospital, November 5.
Born on the 10th Line near Glen Williams, he was working in the brickyards at Cheltenham when he joined the army. He served overseas in World War 2 with the Ontario Tank Regiment and saw service in Sicily, Italy and North Africa.

After the war he moved to Glen Williams, was employed at Avra and later at Smith & Stone. For the past few years he worked with Bill Garbutt in his plumbing and heating business, while also operating a successful bicycle business, first in his home on Mountainview Rd. He established his store a year ago.

He was a member of Campbell's Cross Orange lodge, and members conducted a service Friday night at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Rev. Ian Fleming officiated on Saturday at the funeral service. Pallbearers were Harold Harris, Streetville, Raymond McColl, Toronto, Neil Webster and Carson Embling, Brampton, George Harris and Bill Garbutt. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Foster leaves his wife, Ruby Hancock, three children Dennis, Linda and Roy; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, 10 Sarah St., and a sister Mildred of Toronto.

BALLINAFAD Teen Town Members Shower Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Nelson (nee Trudy Spears) were honoured at a presentation in the hall on Friday evening. The party was arranged by their fellow members of teen-town and the gift to the newly married couple from the community and other friends from surrounding districts was a dinette suite. Music for the evening of dancing was supplied by Marions Orchestra.

Those who enjoyed a week of hunting up north last week were Messrs. Dick Shortall, Reg French, Art Saunders, Angus McEachern, Bill Thompson, Vic Swindlehurst, Doug Mason, Ed Smith, Tom Given, Bud and Elwood Snow. They brought home a moose.

The monthly meeting of the joint Sunday School teachers and officers of Churchill and Ballinafad was held here on Sunday night. The U.C.W. executive met on Monday night in the church and the Scout group committee met at the home of Mr. Willard Sanderson. All these groups are the channels through which Christian Education and Good Citizenship are developed in our community.

MEMORIALS

HASS - In memory of Gustav Hass who passed away November 5th, 1960. We often think of days gone by. When we were all together. A shadow o'er our lives has cast. Our loved one's gone forever. Ever remembered by Linda and Fraser.

HASS - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Gustav Hass, who passed away November 5th, 1960. "I have only a memory, dear husband, To keep my whole life through. But the sweetness will linger forever."

As I treasure the image of you. Sadly remembered by wife, Louise, daughter, Lily, son-in-law, Ed, and grandchildren Keith and Marie Newman.

CARDS OF THANKS

CHAPLIN - I would like to thank all my relatives and friends for remembering me with cards, gifts, flowers and visits while I was in Georgetown Hospital and since returning home. Special thanks to Dr. Hebenek and Dr. Whitaker and the nurses and staff who were so kind. - Mrs. Ellen Chaplin.

LONG - I would like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all my friends who assisted in any way in restoring me back to health, through a serious illness, including the nursing staff and Dr. Thompson. - John Long.

Army Church Parade to St. George's Sunday

This Sunday afternoon, the Lorne Scouts will have a regimental parade to St. George's Anglican Church for their annual church parade. The parade will leave Georgetown Armoury at 2 P.M., led by the pipe band. The regimental brass band will provide the music for the church service. The rector, Rev. John Mulkin, who is regimental chaplain, will conduct the service. Because of limited accommodation, it is expected the regiment will fill all available space in the church and the public is not being invited to attend the service.

Hi Neighbour Hostess Cited at Convention

Georgetown's Hi Neighbour hostess Mrs. Katherine Cochrane was singled out for special mention during the convention of the Welcomes Service on November 4 at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto. President L. Prestupa congratulated her for efficiently handling her branch. Mrs. Cochran calls on new town residents, extending a welcome to them from a group of businessmen which includes The Herald.

Hi Neighbour originated in Calgary, using the traditional welcome of the Calgary Stampede, and in ten years branches have been established all across Canada. Besides the official welcome, hostesses provide many other services for new residents. They are out in touch with churches and health services, told about service clubs and schools.

CARDS OF THANKS

POSTER - We would like to express our sincere thanks to all those very kind people who were so thoughtful in so many ways, also for the beautiful flowers. Special thanks to Dr. O'Dwyer and Dr. Martin and members of the Hospital staff who looked after our husband and father so well. - Mrs. Lloyd Foster and family.

JAMIESON - I appreciate greatly the time every one took from their busy days, to express their kindness to me in numerous ways, while I was a patient in hospital and since coming home. Thanks everyone. - Fran Jamieson.

MULDER - Our sincere thanks to everyone for flowers, cards, gifts, nursing care of the Georgetown Hospital staff and to Dr. Hebenek and Dr. Panabaker. Also thanks to those who sent cards, gifts, and flowers after our daughter's birth. - Arlene and Hank Mulder.

SOUTH - We would like to announce the birth of a baby brother, James Edward, born Friday, October 23rd, 1964, at Georgetown and District Hospital, weight 9 lbs., 4 1/2 oz. The proud parents are Marie and Kenneth South. Special thanks to Dr. Hebenek, Dr. Thompson and the nursing staff.

Howard Garvin, 66 was Hilltop Quarries Foreman

Foreman at Hilltop Quarries until his retirement this summer, Howard John Garvin, 66, died suddenly on November 5 at Georgetown Hospital.

Born in Milton, son of John and Mary Hill Garvin, he had lived in Glen Williams since childhood. He was a member of Glen Williams cemetery board and the town hall board. He was married in 1919 to Verna Sabill who survives, with one son Lorne of Glen Williams. He also leaves brothers and sisters Gordon of Detroit, Michigan; Mrs. Carl Karna (Mrs. of Inglewood, Harvey and Mrs. George Sargent (Eva) of Glen Williams; two grandchildren Mrs. L. Murdock and Mrs. J. Doherty and a great-granddaughter Kristine Doherty. Rev. Ronald Stubby conducted the funeral service on Saturday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Vern Kirby, Merv Kirby, Ernie Thompson, Paul Leisenberger, Stan Norton and Jack Norton. Interment was in Glen Williams Cemetery.

Local NDP Helped Waterloo Campaign

Five local men, Bert Hadjork, R. Rasmussen, Dennis McCartney, W. Rasmussen and Win Campaty, organizer for the New Democratic Party, can share in Monday's by-election victory in Waterloo South by the N.D.P. candidate Max Saltzman.

These men for the past few weeks have been in Waterloo, every Saturday, and in the case of Mr. Campaty much of the time, campaigning for the party representative. Working with these local men were Marj. Finney, past pres. of Halton County NDP, and now Ontario organizer, Fred Young, M.P.P., Stephen Lewis, M.P.P., and Erhart Regier, Federal organizer from British Columbia.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Clark of Wyoming were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McGillivray, 8 Guelph St.

Miss Jacqueline Tost, 72 Guelph Street, was presented with a beautiful set of Jet Liner luggage by the Canadian National Railway Union. Jacqueline has resigned her position with the C.N.R. to work for a legal firm.
