

336 Offer Blood to Set Red Cross Clinic Record

Three hundred and thirty-six people offered their blood at the blood clinic in Georgetown Wednesday, November 11. Seven rejects made a total of 329 actual donations, the largest number ever for a local clinic.

Clinic convenor was Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Jack Nicolson looked after the publicity. Telephone convenors were organized by Mrs. John McCarthy, who with Mrs. E. A. Secord also sent out the appointment cards. Special thanks went to the Georgetown United Gas Limited for providing this clinic and the Cancer Society for their help with the plumbing.

The nurses on duty were Mrs. W. J. Solomon and Mrs. E. N. Martin. Dr. J. F. Martin was on call.

Transportation to and from the clinic was looked after by Mrs. J. E. Kerby. Chief Don Scarborough of the Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance Service and three men volunteered again and up the necessary facilities.

Members of the local Red Cross branch on hand to take names, serve refreshments and generally look after donors were: Mrs. J. Morrison, Mrs. John Kliffner, Mrs. E. Barber, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Jack

Clarkson Wedding Vows for Edward White, Cheryl Osman

A former town resident, Edward Dennis White married a Clarkson girl, Cheryl Eileen Lorne Osman in a ceremony on September 19 in St. Bride's Anglican Church, Clarkson. Rev. Y. Books officiated and Mr. Roberts was organist.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Osman wore a French fallis gown with portrait collar and empire waistline with a deep V in the back. The lace bodice was re-embroidered with seed pearls and the bell shaped skirt fell into a chapel train. She wore a crown headpiece with clear stones and a silk lilac veil and carried yellow roses and white feathered carnations.

Bridal attendants Misses Donna Osman, Jackie Timleck and Carolyn Coak were shrimps organ with taffeta, matching circlet headpieces, and carried white carnations.

James Timleck was groomsmen and ushers were Barry Timleck and William Patterson, Brampton.

At a reception at House Yannenbol, the bride's mother received wearing a flared turquoise blue chiffon over taffeta, beige accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom made his home in town with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Timleck and Mrs. Timleck also received wearing a two-piece gold abeath and a corsage of yellow roses.

For travelling the bride wore a two-piece light blue brocade suit with navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. and Mrs. White are living in Cooksville. He is employed with W.R. Grace & Co. Dixie.

Increase Parking When Riviera Business Expands

The growing popularity of the Riviera, has forced owner, Emil Zuber, to fill in the pond he had dredged out, to provide more parking space.

The present parking lot proved inadequate, causing cars to be parked in the driveway. With the new parking lot twice as many cars may be accommodated.

Labour Council Wants Recognition for Tech

Labour Council delegates of the various local unions to the District Labour Council at last Thursday monthly meeting voted to dispatch a resolution presented to the Ontario Federation of Labour requesting that the Federation make presentation before the Government of Ontario to obtain partial or whole credits for vocational school graduates.

Said C. G. Heyms, President of the Labour Body: "We are not interested in private schools but in the proper vocational schools set up all over Ontario under the jurisdiction of the various boards of Education. We feel that all graduates should be recognized within the status obtained while in the vocational school."

The Labour Central Organization further appropriated $25.00 strike assistance to the striking workers of the Wol-

Y Industrial Campaign Shows Increased Giving

It will be the end of November before local YM-YWCA officials know the results of their October campaign.

A news release from the Y this week stated returns to date show totals from Industry on $1200., and from Commercial Businesses on $700. Both totals are up from last year.

Teachers, residents and special units are a committee. They expect it will continue to do so until the end of the month.

The campaign objective was $7,800.

Friday the 13th Black for Farmer

Friday the 13th traditionally an ill-omened day, was just that for Halton County farmer Don Chapman.

Driving to work Friday morning he struck a dog on the Seventh Line, and blew a tire after taking to the ditch unsuccessfully trying to avoid it. Chapman reports he then left his car to attend to the dog. It hit him as he attempted to handle it, tearing his suit pants. He returned home to change his suit, only to find he was locked out. He entered his farm house by a cellar window and on hitting the cellar floor put one leg in a crotch of home brew he was preparing for Christmas.

When Chapman got to work in Clarkson he was docked one hour's pay for being late. "It's been a damn poor start on a bad day," he reported.

New Turkey Farm at Limehouse Sideroad

More Thanksgiving and Christmas meals will originate locally when the ten acre farm of Mr. A. Liebovici starts operation soon.

The turkey houses located at the corner of Highway 7 and the Limehouse road are being constructed at the moment.
