

NO OPPOSITION FOR TOWNSHIP COUNCILLORS

Mrs. Wilfrid Bird New President at Ashgrove

The Christmas and Annual U.C.W. meeting was held on Tuesday afternoon in the Church on Dec. 1st with the Pres. Mrs. W. Bird presiding and opening with a hymn and prayer. Roll Call was answered with a Christmas message. The Devotional was given by Mrs. Harvey Nurse with Scripture by Mrs. John Belloddy all on the Christmas theme. It was moved that we donate five dollars to the Tyros for some expenses that were needed. Reports from all departments were given which showed a gratifying year just past. Mrs. Claude Pickett was in charge of the program and she called on Mrs. Wilbert Cleave who told the meaning of the lovely Christmas message.

A musical number by some of the Explorer girls, a duet by Mrs. John McInabb and Mrs. Ward Brownridge, and Mrs. James Carney told a very interesting story of how one family prepared for Christmas and Mrs. Charles Austin played some lovely Christmas selections on her son David's electric guitar.

Following this Mrs. J. M. Wickson presented a very special package to a very special member, Mrs. C. B. Dick, in appreciation of all her work and leadership in the two years and getting the U.C.W. started and also wished her a happy birthday for the fifteenth of December.

Mrs. Dick was very surprised but thanked the ladies and after opening her package which was a pretty leopard she invited them at some future time for a cup of tea in her home.

Mrs. John Muddell presented the nominating report and the 1965 officers are — President Mrs. W. Bird, 1st Vice-President Mrs. John McInabb, Sec. Mrs. Bob Coonlitham, Treasurer Mrs. Frank Wilson, Secretary Mrs. Frank Wilson, Literature and Periodicals Mrs. Claude Pickett, Finance and Stewardship Mrs. John Muddell, Pastorage Mrs. James Carney and Mrs. Vern Pickett, Community Friendship and flowers Mrs. T. J. Brownridge, Mrs. A. J. Muddell, Mrs. James McInabb and Mrs. Ward Brownridge, Christmas Education Mrs. Leslie Giffen and Mrs. Ford Wickson, Social functions Mrs. Frank Muddell, Mrs. Clayton Wilson and Mrs. Charles Austin, Supply and Special assistance Mrs. Harvey Nurse, Mrs. Cecil Wilson and Mrs. John Belloddy, Program Mrs. J. M. Wickson, Pianist Mrs. James Carney, auditors Mrs. H. J. Graham and Mrs. John Bird.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. Arthur Riddell is in the hospital with pneumonia and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Money in Birthday Cards At Centennial Manor Party

For the third consecutive year, the Centennial Manor November birthday party, held this year Wednesday, November 25th, was conducted by members of the Hornby Women's Institute. The stage of the auditorium, with its large baskets of chrysanthemums and the head table was decorated with bouquets of smaller mums, roses and carnations. Later in the afternoon a birthday cake ablaze with candles graced the centre of the table.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. S. May, the vice-president, Mrs. C. Patterson, extended greetings to the residents and in particular to those having birthdays in the month of November. Mrs. Russell King and Mrs. H. O'Connor were the program conveners and Mrs. King acted as M.C.

The program opened with the playing of Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet and an encore by Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin on mouth-organs. They returned to the stage later on to play other lively tunes.

Two young girls, Christine and Lee Anne Sales, wearing red and white cowgirl costumes, sang two songs with Michael Coates playing the accompaniment on his electric steel guitar. Michael, who was dressed in an all-white suit played Yellow Bird and Faded Love as guitar solos. Mrs. J. Sales sang Hocking Alone in an Old Rocking Chair. Mrs. C. Pickett gave a very humorous reading, Christmas Dinner at the Purple Bean.

Christine, Lee Anne, Harold and David Sales, with Mrs. E. Price as piano accompanist, sang two Christmas carols and then led in a sing-song of carols. These boys and girls were dressed in black choir gowns and white surplices for these numbers.

The lunch committee of the Institute had planned a lunch, for which the members had provided sandwiches, birthday cake and other cakes. When the five birthday guests had been seated at the head table, they were decorated with paper hats and the people who had taken part in the program sang the Happy Birthday song for them. Each guest of honour received a birthday card and a $1.00 bill.

The guests of honour who were able to attend the party and sit at the head table were Mrs. K. Royal, Miss H. Marcy, and Messrs. A. Webber, M. McCann and O. Chalot.

Pays Tribute to Slain U.S. President in Poem

Nov. 22, 1964
R.R. 1 Limehouse, Ont.

Dear Editor,
This being the anniversary of the death of the late President Kennedy perhaps these few verses might find space in your columns. As I much appreciate your service at all times in the past, thank you for your cooperation.

Twas just a year last Sunday
Since John F. passed away,
By the hands of Lee Harvey Oswald
The suspect they caught that day.

His name will live for centuries now
With homage paid unique,
When Lester dedicated to his name
The Yukon mountain peak.

His grave was a symbol of human respect
As thousands there did flock,
Like the boys that fell in Flanders Fields,
It gave the world a shock.

But with all the human gestures sought
It still remains a fact,
His body lies beneath the sod
And none can bring him back.

From year to year his name recalls
Man's wickedness and vice,
While those bodies lie in all-
ence now
Awaiting the judgment seat of Christ.

Where each one will receive his true reward
Let it be well or ill,
We are commanded by the good Lord himself
Fifth, thou shalt not kill.

George Graham
