

Come to CHURCH on CHRISTMAS

STAGE CHILDREN'S PLAY

"YOU CAN FLY," SAYS PAN (AND HE DOES)

PETER PAN (YOLANDA GOUDEKETTING) makes like a kite for one of the lost boys in Never Never Land. The Georgetown Little Theatre presented the children's play in the High School auditorium Friday evening, and Saturday morning and evening.

IT'S AN OLD CUSTOM

Festive wreaths and garlands made of evergreens, cones and beryls are, nowadays, closely linked to the celebration of Christmas. The custom of making such garlands for gala occasions actually dates back to the ancient Egyptians, a thousand or more years before the birth of Christ.

Cubs Entertain At Original Puppet Show

The 5th Georgetown B Cub Pack held a parents' night Wednesday, Dec. 2nd with each of six presenting a skit using puppets they had made themselves. The skits were also written by the Cubs. After the puppet shows, Akela Ross Colter showed slides of the Cub Jamboree and of the Cub Camp. Refreshments were served at the end of the evening by Mrs. Colter and the Ladies' Auxiliary and Mrs. Joan Brick.

On November 25 two new Chums Mike Scinski and David Nemeth were invested, and on Dec. 9 Gerald Anson and Randy Kitts were invested. This is a proud moment for the new Chums as it means they have learned the Promise, the Salute, the Grand Howl, and their meanings. Then they are admitted to be Tenderpaws and wear the uniform of the Wolf Cubs.

Realize $362 Average At Consignment Sale

The 12th consignment sale held under the auspices of Rockwood International Ltd. of Georgetown was held at the Georgetown Sales-Arena. Marsdale Farms of Niagara Falls paid the highest price of $1,175 for a three year old milking female. The second highest price of $1,000 was paid by J. Allan Bain of Stratford to Darcy V. Shantz of New Hamburg for a milking female. Other good prices included: $925 paid by Rocky Realty and Investments Ltd. of Queensville to Darcy V. Shantz for a milking female; $850 paid by Marsdale Farms for a milking female; $550 paid by Rock Realty and Investments Ltd. to Harry P. Burt of Hillsburgh for a milking female. The overall average for 30 head was $302 with 20 milking females averaging $501 each; and 11 bred heifers $280 each.

St. Paul's Baptist Presents Concerts, Special Services

St. Paul's Baptist Church has a full schedule this Christmas season. On Saturday morning Dec. 12th the Nursery Mothers Group led by Mrs. D. Grigg, held their Christmas Party, attended by 22 children and their mothers. They enjoyed singing, games, refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus. The children presented White Gifts for a needy family. On Saturday night the members and friends of the Church had their Christmas party. There was carol singing, devotions, games and a cold turkey buffet provided by the ladies. On Sunday evening the C.G.I.Y. Group held their Candlelight Vesper Service. Those taking part were: Beverley Barrett, Della Page, Monica Nicholson, Paula Andrews, Janice Bailey, Pat McAllister, Mrs. D. Barton, and Mrs. L. Mallabon. Mrs. W. J. Baxter was the pianist and Mrs. K. Andrews the soloist. This was followed by a Christmas Pageant presented by the Young People of the Church.

Those taking part were Prophet: Peter King, Angels: Laura Hairstow, Linda Power, Susan Troit, Heather Williams, Linda Barrett, Della Page, Mary: Beverley Barrett, Joseph: Allen Knudson. Shepherds: Jim English, David Mallabon, Jim Findlayson, Kings: Roger Knudson, David Kidney, Stephen Knudson, Page boys: Nicky Brown, David Grigg, Bruce Knudson. The music, costumes and scenery were by Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Baxter. The evening's programme was thoroughly enjoyed by the large congregation present.

On Saturday Dec. 19th the Sunday School will be holding its Christmas Party with singing, games, supper and a visit from Santa Claus, bringing gifts for the children. This Sunday the Sunday School scholars will take part in the Christmas Service, presenting Christmas Carols and Recitations. White Gifts will be presented.

BELLS, BELLS, BELLS

Through the ages, bells have served man purposes — announcing the approach of vehicles, for instance, or signalling the beginning of curfew. Early associated with churches, by medieval times the pealing of the bells had come to signify the rejoicing of the Xmas season. An early custom was the tolling of church bells on Christmas Eve, during the hour before midnight. The tolling announced the death of Satan, and at midnight joyous peals told of the birth of Christ. In England, where bell-ringing is an honoured, family-taught art, the tuneful bells ring out at seven-thirty on Christmas morning.

Dutch Carols Add Festive Note to Beaumont Party

Some sixty-five employees and guests were welcomed by partners Sam Penrice and Gord Graham to the Beaumont Knitting Mill employees' party in the Oddfellow's Hall on Wesleyan St. Saturday night. The evening commenced with a turkey dinner served by members of Verdus Rebekah Lodge. They were thanked by Mr. Graham. Mrs. Tom Hill, acting on behalf of her fellow employees presented Mrs. Penrice with a bouquet of flowers.

Cecil Davidson was master of ceremonies for the post-dinner program. Everyone took part in carol singing, and a novel feature was the singing of Dutch carols by many Dutch employees and their husbands and wives in their native language. Corey Bydevaas accompanied the Dutch carollers. A film show included movies taken by Mr. and Mrs. Penrice during a trip to the Lake Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph during a recent holiday in Austria and Switzerland, and Mr. Davidson's movie on Canadian scenery. A visit from Santa with a good supply of gifts concluded the program, and dancing was enjoyed for the balance of the evening.
