The United Church Women held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Una Wheeler. The meeting opened with singing - "O Little Town of Bethlehem" followed by prayer by Mrs. Fred Engleby. Reports of the Secretary and visiting committee were given. It was decided to subscribe to the Christian Home Magazine to pass around to members. The devotional reading was given by Mrs. W. McGowan entitled - "The danger of emptiness" followed by prayer. Sally Hunsdale favoured with a French carol - "Ye Shepherds from the mountains" Mrs. Engleby gave the Christmas prayer. The report of the nominating committee - Mrs. J. H. Hunter and Mrs. C. Barth was as follows - Past President - Mrs. J. Engleby, President - Mrs. A. Hunsdale, Secretary - Mrs. J. Wagstaff, Treasurer - Mrs. Paul West, staff, visiting, Mrs. Una Wheeler, Christian Education Convener, Mrs. J. H. Hunter, Kitchen - Mrs. W. McGowan, Pianist - Mrs. A. Spence. Favourite Christmas carols were sung with Mrs. A. Spence at piano. On behalf of the ladies, Mrs. Una Wheeler presented the retiring president, Mrs. J. Engleby, with a lovely cup and saucer in appreciation of her work in the past two years as leader of the group. Susan Wheeler played a piano selection. Lunch was provided by the hostess assisted by Mrs. A. Hunsdale.

House Tannenbof of Huttonville was chosen for the Christmas party of Silverwood Women's Institute on Thursday, Dec. 10. This was a special party with invited guests including members of Limehouse Women's Institute. The long table was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The place cards were numbered and a lady's name on each. Whimsical ladies of all nations (made by a member) were at each plate. At one o'clock 32 ladies sat down to a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. After the last cup of coffee a draw was made. Mrs. Duffield was the lucky number with no. 13. The highlight of the afternoon

Next Sunday, Dec. 20th at 10 a.m. the children have charge of the service with Rev. Roy Irwin showing Christmas film in the evening. At 7:15 there will be the annual Candlelight Service to which all villagers are invited. The music is provided by the junior and intermediate choirs with Mrs. J. Hunter as leader and Mrs. H. Inglis as organist.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Blackmore and family motored to Baltimore, Maryland last Saturday and are visiting relatives there this week.
