The daughter of David Lawson and Henrietta Jane Lamm, she was born near Stewarttown on the farm known as "Killey farm," later living at Stewarttown on the farm now owned by J. J. Atkinson and Sons. She moved to town with her family in 1910, and had since lived at 21 Church St.

Mrs. Lawson was active in the Local Council of Women and had held the position of secretary for many years. She was a faithful member of Knox Presbyterian Church where she sang in the choir and was a member of the Women's Association.

Last member of her family, she was predeceased by brothers and sisters Margaret, Mrs. K. Steele (Jensen), Walter, Mary, David and Harry.

Rev. Norman Young and Rev. Alan Calder of Peterborough conducted the funeral service.

Hornby Merry Muffins Plan Achievement Day

The many friends of Mr. Thomas Sheehy, who is to be hospitalized in the Milton District Hospital and who is expected to have a speedy recovery.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Doris Spork, who is hospitalized in the Milton District Hospital.

Get well wishes are extended to Mr. Howard Hadley, who is hospitalized in the Milton District Hospital.

Birthday greetings are wished for the following who are celebrating their birthdays, Stuart McMillan on Dec. 17, Mrs. Bill Bailey and Garnet Howden, Dec. 18, Rose Bridgen, Dec. 19, and Mrs. Doris Allers on Dec. 21.

Anniversary greetings are wished for Mr. and Mrs. Tom May Howden who will celebrate their wedding anniversary on Dec. 18.

The seventh and final meeting of the Hornby Merry Muffins was held on Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Jim McKay. A quiz was held by Mrs. McKay and Carolyn Pevetree, on the previous six meetings in order to refresh their memory for the Achievement Day on Jan. 16. Following the discussion period the girls went to the kitchen where Carolyn Pevetree, Darlene Leslie and Pat McCandless made Butter Squares. Tea was served by the hostess with the squares followed by a beautifully decorated birthday cake made by Mrs. McKay in honor of Carol Leslie's birthday and everyone sang the birthday song, and wished Carol a happy birthday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Doncaster, will be sorry to hear they have been quite ill while visiting at the home of their daughter in Newark, N.J.

The ladies of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church held a euchre on Saturday night, Dec. 5, at the North Trafalgar Community Centre with eight tables in play. The prizes were won by the following winners, Mrs. Charlie McCarron, Mrs. Colin Bealy, Mrs. Gordon Miller (playing as a man) and Cliff May. Two lucky draws were held with the winners

Christmas Theme Prevails at Esquesing Institute Meeting

On December 8, in the church Full-Clearers were William Y. Lawson, Peel Village, Paul Lawson, Newmarket, Harry and Peter Lawson, Acton, Bob and Donald Lawson. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Second best to having a trip home for Christmas is to have overseas relatives here, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchison and family, 16 Prince Charles Dr. are in this category. Last week Mrs. Hutchison's sister, Mrs. Alex Donaldson, her husband and children Kenneth, Colin and Robert arrived from Glasgow, Scotland. They will be visiting here for a time and expect to be making their new home in Canada.

On December 10, the Esquesing Women's Institute met for their Christmas Meeting in the old Council Chambers of the Stewarttown Hall. The meeting opened in the usual way with the Institute Ode and Collette Mrs. Williams was the pianist. Roll call was answered by 17 members and 10 visitors with a 50c gift Bible reading was taken by Mrs. C. A. Grant. The minutes of the last month's meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report was given and the correspondence was read and dealt with. A donation was made to the Hospital for Sick Children. The list of sick and shut in of the community was checked and others thought of to be relayed to Mrs. Walter Lawson for the Flower and Fruit Committee. Money was received from the Chocolate bars sold and collection was taken.

The meeting was then turned over to the Entertainment Committee for the excellent program they had prepared. There were many carol selections by the chorus composed of Mrs. Robert Thoms, Mrs. Murray Thoms, Miss Ruth Strutt, Miss Joy Graham and Mrs. George Atkinson. Mrs. Murray Thoms sang O Holy Night accompanied by Mrs. Reg Williams on the piano. The rest of the members joined in a singing of Christmas carols and Mrs. Murray Thoms closed with the singing of O Little Town of Bethlehem.

Games were then played and prize winners were: Mrs. Harvey Clare and Mrs. Joyce McNeill musical chairs. Miss Marylou McCann with No. 12 and Mrs. J. J. Atkinson, Mrs. Ken Wilson and Mrs. Ruth Strutt, in white Christmas. Mrs. Beckett read current events and Mrs. Walter Lawson was again returned as the Hall Board representative. Mrs. Grant moved a hearty vote of thanks to all who had made it such a pleasant evening, and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. S. Hall, Mrs. Herb Reid and Mrs. Bruce Beckett.

Mrs. J. C. Murray has returned home after two weeks vacation in Peterborough with relatives and friends.

Choir members of St. John's Church are busy making preparations for their Christmas concert to be held in the Community Hall, a good program with a turkey for the door prize, all particulars can be read in the coming events.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police constable Tom Dohdie and Mrs. Dohdie, Beaujeu, Manitoba, are visiting in town and district with family and friends for the holidays.
