

Wedding in St. John's for Doug Sinclair, Gloria Jones

Gloria Jean Jones and Doug- las Edwin Sinclair were united in marriage in a double-ring wedding ceremony conducted by Rev. Ian Fleming in St. John's United Church, Saturday, Dec. 5th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, 56 Main St. N., Georgetown, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cole, 19 Meadowland Street, Brampton.

Standards of white muslin and gold tinted greens decorated the church for the wedding. The bride's maid, Mrs. Lorne Stagg of Woodbridge, sang the Wedding Prayer and All Through The Years, accompanied by organist Kenneth E. Harrison.

Honored guests at the church and at the reception after were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Susan Jones, of Woodbridge and the groom's grandfather, Mr. William Sinclair of Streetsville.

The bride wore a nylon taf-feta gown with overlay of org- anza featuring hilly point sleeves, scooped neckline, and lace of flowers and pearl. Her floor-length full skirt featured appli- ques on each side and was cen- tered by a bow. Her tiara head- piece was adorned with pearls and scattered rhinestones and her shoulder-length veil was bouffant style nylon tulle. She carried regal gold roses with stephanotis and white fern. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Dixie Jones, Georgetown, was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Pat MacKinnon, Georgetown and Miss Donna Sinclair, Brampton, the groom's sister.

They were gowned alike in floor-length dresses of gold bro- cade with scooped necklines, trains from the neck, and three- quarter length sleeves. The at- tendants' were of matching gold brocade flowers with nylon tulle to their shoulders. Their shoes were of gold satin, and they wore pearl necklaces and earrings, gifts of the bride. Crescent shaped white carna- tions with gold balls and gold holly leaves made their bou- quets.

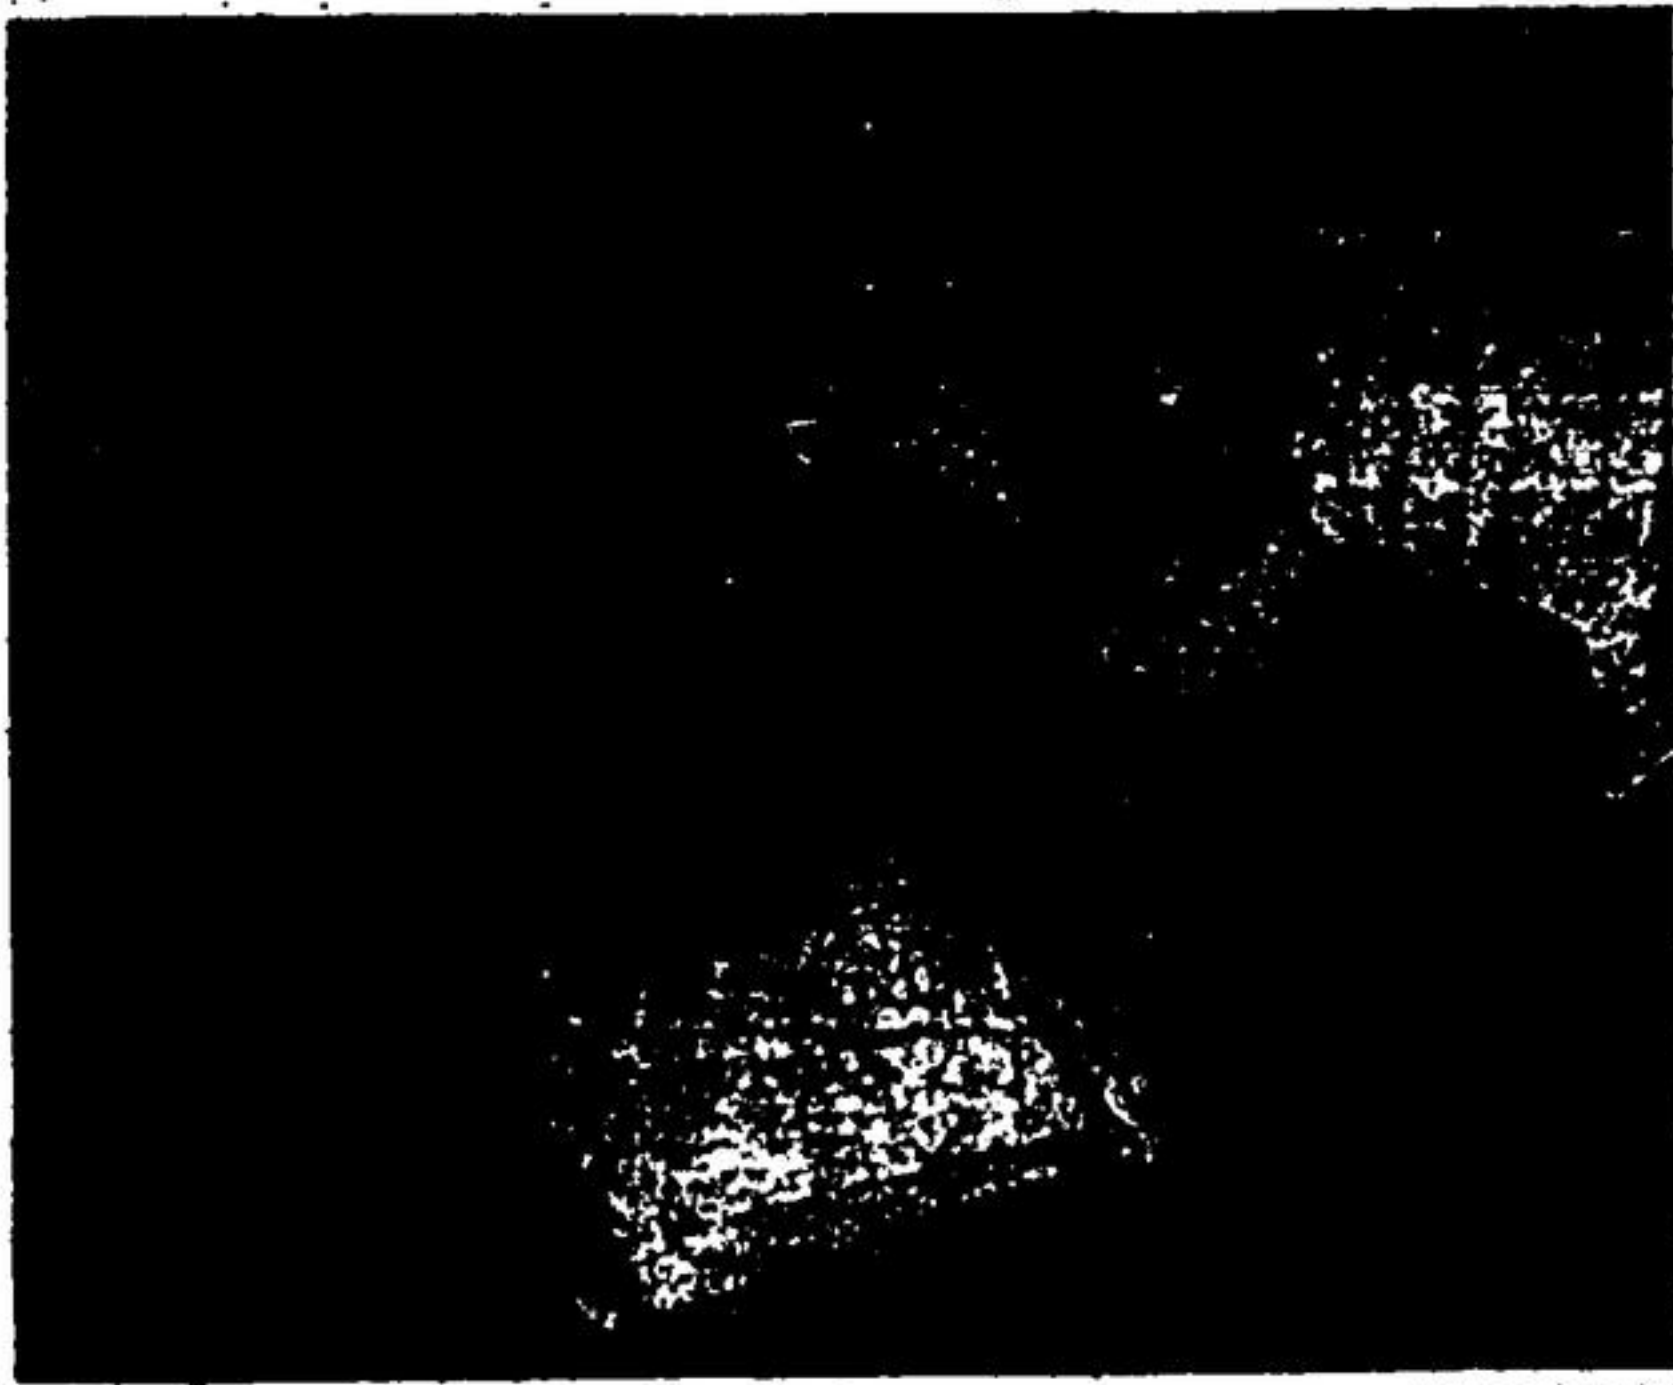

William Sinclair, Cookville, the groom's brother, was the groomsman, and the ushers were David Gibson, Brampton, and Brian Lewis, a cousin of the bride. Mr. Lewis was also toastmaster at a reception at the North Halton Golf and Country Club following the ceremony.

Mrs. Jones received for her daughter at the reception in a sapphire blue chiffon sheath. She wore a corsage of white, pinocchio mums and asphire blue stephanotis. Mrs. Cole as- sisted her in a beige lace sheath.

Community Donates $1085 Blind Campaign

The citizens and industries of Georgetown and district re- sponded generously to the Geor- getown Lions' annual appeal for funds to support the work of the Canadian National In- stitute for the Blind.

The canvas was carried out by some hundred students of the Georgetown District High School. The chairman of the campaign wishes at this time to express a sincere thank you to those students for the charitable donations of their time and effort for this cause.

Journeying to Bethlehem

CHRISTMAS VISITORS SEEK CHURCH OF NATIVITY FOR THREE CELEBRATIONS OF CHRISTMAS

Pilgrimage to Bethlehem is for thousands of Christians each year the focal point of the religious observance of Christmas. Visitors of many faiths make the trip to Bethlehem, now a part of Jordan, to the Church of the Nativity above the Grotto of the Nativity where Christ was born.

The manger so familiar to all who know the Christmas story was an improvised stable in a cave hewn out of rock, near the centre of the hill town of Bethlehem.

Christmas is observed three times at Bethlehem, and for each observance the Mandel- baum Gate between the Israel and Arab sectors of Jerusalem is opened to admit the Christ- ian pilgrims.
