MEMORIALS

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear parents and grandparents, Grace Brown who passed away on January 20th, 1862, and Fred Brown, who passed away on December 20, 1960.

We often think of bygone days when we were all together. The family chain is broken now, but memories will live forever.
—Doris, Ted and family.

STUFKO — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Mark, who passed away suddenly Dec. 27th, 1963.

Though his smile is gone forever
And his hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
His memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part.
God has him in His keeping,
We have him in our hearts.
—Sadly missed and ever remembered by wife Alice and son John.

MEMORIALS

DOUGSON — In loving memory of a dear daughter, Alice Walker Dougson, who passed away December 19th, 1932.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they'll wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
—Lovingly remembered by her mother.

WALKER — In loving memory of a dear sister, Alice Walker Dougson who passed away December 19th, 1932.
May the peace of God that passeth all understanding, be with you now and forevermore.
—Always remembered by brother and sister George and Hazel.

CARDS OF THANKS

ARMSTRONG — I would like to thank Dr. Brewster, Dr. Macintosh, nurses and staff of the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital and District Memorial Hospital and relatives and friends for their kind acts, gifts and cards. — Wes Armstrong

ISLEY — I would like to thank my friends, neighbours and relatives for their cards, visits and flowers and other gifts. Also thanks to the nurses & staff for their kindness shown to me while I was in Georgetown Memorial Hospital and since returning to 7 Margaret St. — Mrs. Alice Isley.

CARDS OF THANKS

MARTIN — Thanks to friends and neighbours and relatives for cards, fruit and gifts sent to me while I was a patient in Georgetown Memorial Hospital and since returning home. Special thanks to nursing staff, Dr. Bejonek and Legion Branch 120. — Joe Martin, 25 Queen St.

McGOWAN — I would like to say thanks to the Glen Williams United Church U.C.W. ladies, friends and neighbours for cards and flowers sent to me during the loss of my father. It was very much appreciated. — Mrs. W. J. McGowan

TURNBULL — We would like to express our thanks and gratitude to all the friends who have been so wonderful to our son, Dale, during his illness. There are so many that it would be impossible to thank them individually. We would especially like to thank Mrs. Moffat and the Grade 6 children at Park School for their letters and gifts; also the Rev. McMullin for his prayers, and the Nurses of the Georgetown Hospital. We wish you all a Merry Christmas. — Edna and Jim Turnbull.

Pipe Teachers To Table At Chapel Staff Dinner

The teaching staff of Chapel St. public school enjoyed a Christmas dinner party in the school Monday, December 14. Miss Wilma Stull and Mrs. Norma Ferguson, members of the teaching staff, were commended for their planning of decorations and menu. Other staff members also contributed.

A Junior grade teacher Miss Virginia Walker piped the staff members and guests to their respective places. Luncheon was buffet style.

A farewell gift from the staff was presented to Mr. D. Jacobs by the senior member of the staff Miss Wilma Stull, and all expressed regret at his leaving Mr. Jacobs, principal's supply teacher, has resigned and terminated his service in the Georgetown public school system at the end of the fall term.

School caretaker Mr. John Stupper was also cited for his "excellent caretaking and congeniality," and a token of recognition from the teaching staff was presented him by Mrs. June Evans.

The teachers were pleased to have with them as guests Mrs. J. Smith who taught K-1 there last year, Miss Luena Campbell a former staff member, Miss Helen Murphy the school health nurse, Mrs. J. Graham a part-time secretary, Mr. Kenneth R. Harrison the director of music for Georgetown public schools, and Mrs. Val Stein wife of Chapel St. school principal.

Regular staff members attending were Mrs. Dorothy Green, Mrs. Anne Lough, Mrs. J. Snoddy, and Mr. Jacobs, all first year members, Mrs. Norma Ferguson, Miss Ruth McHride, Miss Virginia Walker, Miss Wilma Stull, Mr. Mike Homer, Mrs. June Evans, and the principal Mr. Val Stein.

Merry Christmas
To you and yours, our heartfelt thanks and a happy holiday!
