Mrs. Maude Allen Dies in Toronto

Widow of a Georgetown native Mrs. A. Maude Allen, 88, died in Toronto on December 18th.

A native of Philadelphia, Pa. she lived in Galt for many years where her husband, William Fenwick Allen was a funeral director. He died last May at the age of 95.

After his retirement, Mr. and Mrs. Allen moved to Toronto where they lived with a niece, Mrs. Harold Watson, now of Georgetown.

A nephew, Rev. George Mendell of Philadelphia conducted the funeral service on December 19th at Trull Funeral Home. Interment took place later that day in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Drivers Didn't Have Rudolph's Guidance

Dense fog and slippery roads didn't help the poor accident record one bit on the Christmas weekend.

Those were the conditions when a 1954 Chev driven by James A. MacPherson, 51 Ewing St., collided with a 1950 Volkswagen driven by Floyd "Bud" Vary, 22 Windsor Rd., at 740 Christmas eve.

The Vary car was stopped on Cuelph St. waiting to make a left turn onto Reaway when the MacPherson car hit the rear end. There was no damage to the MacPherson car, but Cal. Harry Liberty estimated damage to the Volkswagen at $250.

Earlier the same night vehicles driven by Thomas Peavoy, 75 Edward St., and John Weibe, 58 Langstone Cres., came together on Cuelph St. in front of the IGA Foodliner. Peavoy's 1953 Fargo truck took a $125 damage while the 1950 Meteor driven by Weibe received $400 damage. Police said Peavoy was leaving the store parking lot.

KINETTES COOK TO TREAT KIN

As a special pre-Christmas treat the Kinmen and Kinettes held a joint meeting in the Oddfellows Hall with a pot luck supper cooked by the Kinettes.

In the brief business meeting the Kinmen voted to donate one hundred dollars to the town Christmas Welfare Fund, and planned for their New Year's Eve dance. The dance for the Kinmen and their guests is not a money raising project, simply a social get together for the club members.

It was reported that the Christmas tree sales were a success.

It's that time! Time to greet old and new friends... to thank you for your patronage and to wish you the very best of everything in 1965!
