MR. AND MRS. JULIAN BRIDAL

MR. AND MRS. JULIAN BRIDAL pose outside St. George's Anglican Church following their marriage there Monday, December 28th. The bride is the former Carolyn Blehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn, 26 Queen Street, Georgetown, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bridal, Ottawa.

Candlelight Ceremony for Bridal-Blehn Wedding Vows

Christmas decorations, including two lighted Christmas trees, added a seasonal touch to St. George's Anglican Church on December 28th for the marriage of Mary Carolyn Blehn and Julian Frederick Bridal.

Rev. J. H. McMullin officiated at the five o'clock ceremony. There were candelabra at the front of the church, lighted candles in the windows and bouquets of red and white mums on the altar.

The bride wore a street-length white brocade suit, with elbow length sleeves and A-line skirt. She wore a corsage of American Beauty roses and holly. Her hair was styled in a beiga brocade dress with A-line skirt, and a corsage of coral roses and holly.

Paul Curley, Ottawa, was the best man and usher. The groomsmen and ushers were Martin Schlemmer, Hamilton, and Michael Kingsley, Ottawa. The bride's father gave her in marriage in the double ring ceremony and the bride's brother, Charles Blehn, was acolyte. George DeKleer was organist.

At a reception afterwards at Terra Cotta Inn, the bride's mother received wearing a pink and red velvet suit, black accessories and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother also received, wearing a cornflower blue wool sheath with lace bodice and a corsage of pink roses.

Wedding guests were from Ottawa, Windsor, London, Sarnia, Chaboy, Orangeville, Hamilton and Toronto. The bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Feller of town were honoured guests.

The bride and groom travelled to Ottawa to visit his grandparents, who were unable to attend the wedding, then flew to New York City for the rest of the week. They are living at 37 Paxtonia Blvd., Downsview.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn, 26 Queen St., teaches English and French at Downsview Collegiate. The groom is attending law school at the University of Toronto. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bridal, Ottawa. Both are graduates of the University of Western Ontario.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was entertained at a cup and saucer shower at the home of Mrs. Don Wingrove, at which Mrs. Percy Sax and Mrs. Stan Finlay were co-hostesses.

Seventeen Badges Awarded As Parents Visit Guides

Seventeen Guiding badges were awarded girls who had earned them through completing rigid tests at 5th Georgetown Girl Guide Company parents' night in Holy Cross School Dec. 10.

The Company also expanded at the special meeting as four girls were enrolled as Guides.

Entering the Company were Debbie Eberk, Diana Donahue, Mary Barnes and Cathy Chamberlain.

A feature at the start of the meeting was each of ten Guides saying a Guide law and blowing out a candle as the rest of the Company watched in a horseshoe formation.

Captain R. Freeman welcomed the parents who were entertained by Violet Patrol's presentation of a skit.

Skits were presented by various patrols later at a Campfire and here Debbie Ellinger received her Second Class Badge.

Other badges presented included the Cook's Badges to Susan Wells, Irene Hawes, Lynn Freeman, Ellen Yates, and Karen Dorsey; Child Care Badges to Lynn Freeman, Ellen Yates, Irene Hawes, and Ann McDonald; Pioneer Badges to Susan Wells and Irene Hawes; Campfire Badges to Freeman, McDonald, and Judy Freeman; the Homemaker Badge to Susan Wells; and Laundry Badges to Susan Wells and Lynn Freeman.

Captain Freeman addressed the parents briefly on the amount of work that goes into the earning of each badge at the close of the presentation. The girls then made for the program and received their badges and refreshments.

Communion services will be held at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Jan. 10, at 2:30 p.m.
