OFF FOR MERRY OLD ENGLAND ~

OLEN OSSORNE of the Georgetown Sales Krena loops a rope halter on a Holstein calf, one of 13 head of dairy cattle now somewhere out on the Atlantic bound for England and various new owners. The top pedigree snimals are Ontario stock sold to English cattlemen through the Georgetown Sales Arens on the 7th Line of Esquesing. The cattle, and Glan, laft December 26th for the east coast by rail and departed from Hal-Hex herbour Jenuary 2nd. The shipment will errive in England sometime next week. Glen will have different travelling companions on the return voyage . . . beef bulls.

mond. East plays the ace and Paddington at Large: Joslin: Paris, Ont., spent the Holiday last week at the Acton Bridge dummy, East knows that, unless Potter: Goofy Mrs. Goose; Clea- ents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McMil- dealer is West and North - South tricks, a heart ruff is necessary to defeat the contract.

East will return his singleton heart. Declarer wins in dummy and takes stock. A dlamond has been lost, a club will be lost, so what about the trump suit? Declarer can afford one trump loser but not two-

A spade should be led from dummy but South must refuse the finesse and play the ace. Now the lead of spade queen holds the defense to one trump

Notice that if declarer near ses in the trump suit, West wins and leads a heart for his partner to ruff.

Remember - don't finesse H. when the finesse loses, it will South further endanger the contract. Last week's winners — first, Mike Lorusso; second, Duke Wilson and Mrs. Gloria Coats; third
