Dr. Bebenek, for gifts, cards and visits by relatives, friends and neighbours. — All were greatly appreciated — Arthur Ruddle.

WELFARE COMMITTEE — Many thanks to those who helped to give a merrier Christmas to some of Georgetown's less fortunate residents. The school children for gifts of canned goods, those who made special donations, and the Legion, Rotary, Loyal Council and the volunteers who helped pack and distribute gift hampers — Walter Gray, chairman, Welfare Committee.

YATES — I want to thank all my neighbours, and friends for the gifts, flowers and cards they sent me; also the nurses and Dr. Bebenek, while I was in the hospital. — Mrs. Leida Yates.

IF YOU HAVE A FIRE If fire breaks out in your home and you are in a closed room, don't open the door into a hall or other room until you have tested the door panel for heat. If the door feels hot, do not open it or it may admit a burst of flame. Try to get help at the window.
