CLOSE CONTEST
PEE-WEES DEFEAT
ORANGEVILLE 3-1

On Tuesday, December 22 the local Pee Wees defeated Orangeville 3-1 in a closely contested game. The visitors were much improved from the last meeting of the two clubs.
The visitors in a whirlwind of a first period, began scoring at the 2:50 mark and missed other good chances to increase the score. Jim Lebor was the marksmen.

There was no scoring in the second period.
The third period was all Georgetown's when at 4:20 Fendley scored on a pass from Korzak. Inglis from Ippes at 11:07 and Ippes from G.
Neil at 12:25 completed the scoring.

Bants Shake Jinx
Win Burlington
Game Here Tuesday

Georgetown Bantams shook off a four game slump and rose up to stymie Burlington 5-1 here Tuesday night.

The first period was void of scoring and penalties, but Geor-getown's Roger Little broke the bubble at the 7 minute mark of the middle period with a goal from Frank King.
The score sparked the Georgetown attack and they went to 10:50 and Kemahead from Hay and Flynn at 13:55.

Little scored again at 1:30 of the third period unassisted to push his club into a 4-0 lead.
Burlington scored their lone goal at 5:40, Mackenzie getting it from Daniels, but Georgetown had final say when Hay scored from Kemahead at 10:55.

The fine performance by Roger Little may have been a reaction to his being benched last week for poor play.

The post-game picks chose Bill Bauer as Georgetown's most valuable player and Gary Webb as Burlington's.
Preston plays here Tuesday, Jan. 12, Georgetown Bantams are in Guelph Wednesday, Jan.
13, and in Preston Tuesday, Jan. 19.

Juveniles Stick to Game After Letter

Whether or not a stinging letter from the OMHA rapping Georgetown Juveniles for their part in a hockey game (?) with Hespeler which produced over a hundred and twenty minutes in penalties recently had any bearing on the Juvies sticking to hockey in Burlington Monday night will probably never be determined but in any case their effort was a vast improvement.

The Georgetown Juveniles scored once in the first period and twice more in the third to blank the Burlington club 3-0.
The locals got an early goal from Simon Llewellyn one of the workhorses on the Midget club that captured the OMHA Midget title last year, but who hasn't played a game of hockey since the championship match. He scored at 10:10 of the initial period with an assist from Terry Hay, a former lineman from the Midget titlists.

The 1-0 bulge was the difference until 7:13 of the third period when Wayne Rold banged in number 3 from Hay and Kent Robinson. Both Hay and Robinson played in the Junior Bantams win over Orangeville Sunday.

Gary Briggs netted the third ally with less than three minutes to go. Barry Lewis was credited with the assist.

Bralsky was a standout in the Georgetown net and deserved the shutout but he didn't get recognition from the Burlington management. They chose Terry Hay as Geor-getown's best on the night. Georgetown selected Owen—the Burlington twins minder as that team's MVP.

The Juveniles are coached by Bill Campbell and managed by Bob Lies.

The team plays at home tonight against Oakville.

SMILE A WHILE

"You can't tell a blonde from a brunette in the dark," says a blondes."

High School Student Has Broken Jaw In Accident

A Georgetown youth, Richard Parry, 176 Main St. N. suffered a broken jaw and lacerations in a car accident north of town Saturday afternoon.

He was a passenger in a car driven by Spencer Adam Roden of R.R. 1 Glen Williams which left the Ballinacraig side-road just east of the 10th line.
The driver received cuts to his nose.

Brothers And Hydro
Poles Have Smashing
New Years

If New Year's Eve was a tip-off on what 1965 holds in store you can't keep it in the opinion of Miller brothers, Thomas of 44 Ontario St. and David of 44 Ontario St., and David of 44 Ontario St.

David Henry Miller suffered a wet nose and an injured left arm at 10 o'clock New Year's Eve when the 1956 Meteor he was driving through Glen Williams struck a hydro pole opposite the Apple Products factory.

Ontario Provincial Police said Miller, age 21, was taken to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital for treatment of his hurts.

About two hours later, moments after midnight, Thomas Miller's car, a 1960 Plymouth was wrecked when it hit a hydro pole at the corner of Ontario St. and Main St. North, Georgetown. It received a cut on his head.

According to Cpl. Harley Lowe the property damage to the car was $1,000 and to the pole and lines which came down, another $300.

He was driving west on Ontario St. when the accident occurred.

While these accidents were happening Herbert Miller of Newmarket lost control of his 1962 Dodge station wagon and rammed a pole on the base line near Hornby, which did $200 damage to the front of his vehicle.

Sophisticated Comedy
Little Theatre Venture

The original plans of the Georgetown Little Theatre to present "A Visit to a Small Planet" have been changed due to casting difficulties. Instead they will now present "The Little Hut" on the 25th, 26th, and 27th of February.

The play will be their entry in the Western Ontario Drama Festival. Last year this local group won the Best Visual Award with their production of
"Under The Sycamore Tree".

After the first performance Thursday night, the 25th, it is hoped the public adjudication will be held.

The play, a sophisticated comedy of three people cast away on a desert island, a man, his wife, and her lover, will be directed by Tony Lloyd, and features in the cast, Eric Ming, Ron Hill, Gay Lloyd and Mike Pelechak.

The producer will be Pat Barkhouse.
