BEAT EIGHT-ENDERS ENROUTE TO FILLIES WIN

HOLDING THE INDIVIDUAL TROPHIES and the Rhea Banfield cup, 1st prize in the annual Oakville Curling Club 7 year Filly Bonspiel, are Mrs. H. G. Monckton, Mrs. Jack Crickton, Mrs. Stewart Young, and Mrs. Reg Broomhead. The North Halton Curling Club women topped all entries in the major spiel with a 37 plus 29 score in the 9 o'clock draw. Their successes included a decisive win over a Mississauga rink which had scored a rare eight-ender earlier in the spiel.

CURLING CHATTER
by Bob MacArthur from the

North Halton GOLF and COUNTRY CLUB

The new schedule for the second draw got started this week. There is a draw for the Monday - Thursday curlers. Another draw is made up of curlers that curl Tuesday evenings. Then there is the Friday draw for those that desire mixed curling. Of course, some members are not satisfied with only one section, they are scheduled for all three draws and others are only one night curlers by choice.

Last Monday evening eight teams of curlers came over from the neighboring club in Milton. Although they did not win many games, they showed that before long they will give the local members a run for the honours. At the break of the games, a film was shown entitled "From Back to House". This is the film that was sponsored by the Dow Brewery and the Curlmaster Broom Co. Both Joyce McKee and Ernie Richardson appear in the film and they demonstrated ways of curling that have taken them to the pinnacle of the curling world. At the end of the curling sessions a hot lunch was served to those entertaining the visitors.

The Rose Bowl playdowns will start for this division at the local club on February 2nd. It is a mixed affair and will be the start of the long, long trail to the provincial playdowns. If you want to see some good curling, be sure to be on hand, as most clubs in the district will have their best teams competing here before they go on the hunt for the silverware. Oliver Hunter is in charge of the local playdowns.

Well, the Tournament of Champions has come and gone for the second time. And it will likely be the last time, as only around 16,000 spectators attended the five day affair. My bet is that if the event is held again next year, it won't be in Maple Leaf Gardens. As usual, the top prize goes this year to a western team. Congratulations to the Hee Gervais team of Edmonton. They are the tops this year in the tournament.

The first mixed open spiel of the season was held at the club on Saturday. Sixteen rinks took part and good curling was reported.

Here are the winners in the early morning draw. The Guelph rink skipped by Jack Bruce with Mrs. Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. Don McArthur on the front end. Second prize was taken by a local rink headed by Don Barrager with Mrs. G. Collier and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Blackwell on the rink. Third prize went to another local rink headed by John Cornellus with Betty Reeve, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Howat. The late draw was won by the Parkway rink with Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kelly and Ron Manning and Linda Lounds throwing lead stones. Second prize was the St. Catharines rink headed by Mr. and Mrs. Garth Mitchell with Mr. and Mrs. Basil Wedge on the front end. Third prize was taken by another Georgetown rink with Ken Jackson skipping and Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Williams with Mary Patterson throwing lead rocks.

Bantams Win, Lose in Week's Hockey Games

Burlington Bantams played host to Georgetown Monday, January 4th but the locals were poor visitors trimming Burlington 6 to 2. The team is playing much better of late and the pace is accelerating as playoff time approaches. Frank King was the star of the game scoring twice - both picture goals. Back at home Tuesday night it was a different story with an almost impossible finish. Georgetown Bantams had a 3 goal lead with two minutes left and still came away with only a tie. Georgetown suggested that the remaining time be used in the remaining time and Milton blasted 3 goals in a saw-off. The last year was with 5 seconds left. Georgetown went ahead 3:0, little from Jackson and Hay from Laws and Kemshead in the first period and Little from Davies in the third. Milton's quick three were scored by Cole from Mountain

Oakville Fillies Spiel Georgetown Rink Wins

A Mississauga rink finished out of the prize list in the Oakville Ladies Filly Bonspiel, but none of the members of Isabel Welsh's rink are too upset by the failure. Because while other curlers went home with trophies and prizes, their rink came up with a rare eight-ender at the Oakville Curling Club. Curlers say golf's hole in one is more common than an eight-ender.

Top prize, the Rhea Banfield Trophy, went to a rink from the North Halton Club in Georgetown skipped by Mrs. Stewart Young. Mrs. Young's foursome topped the 9:00 a.m. draw with 37 points plus 29. Anne Wyndham of Oakville and Hearn, Hearn from Hood and Hood from Cole. Georgetown's showing was still an improvement over their Milton visit two weeks ago when they got bombed 8-1. Roger Little has scored four goals in the past 3 games, an excellent performance by a first year all-star Bantam.

Future games: Tuesday, January 19th: Georgetown at Preston. Friday, January 22nd: Georgetown at Hespeler. Tuesday, January 26th: Orangeville at Georgetown. Finished second in that draw and topped the winner in the 11 a.m. draw with 37 points plus 22. Marg Paton topped the 11 a.m. draw with 37 plus 18. Here are complete results for last week's spiel: Nine O'Clock Draw First prize: North Halton, Georgetown, Mrs. S. Young, Mrs. Reg Broomhead, Mrs. Jack Crickton, Mrs. H. G. Monckton, (37 points plus 29). Second Prize: Oakville, Anne Wyndham, Ilyll Sutherland, Liz Durkhardt, Noreen Hildeg, (37 points plus 22). Third prize: Burlington Golf, Mrs. D. B. Sullivan, Mrs. A. Curran, Mrs. R. A. Haggart, Mrs. W. Munroe (two game winners, 29 points). Fourth prize: Burlington Curling, Mrs. D. F. Shaw, Mrs. W. Wood, Mrs. K. Beacham, Mrs. J. Taggart, (one game winners, 20 points). Eleven O'Clock Draw First prize: Oakville, Marg Paton, Helen Haslam, Marjie Taggart, Mary Atton, (37 plus 14).

Close Game as Guelph, Ties Georgetown Novices

Georgetown and Guelph Novices played one of the best games of the season for spectators as they tussled to a 4-4 saw off last week. Guelph leaped to a fast start with two rapid fire goals. Hunsey scored unassisted at 10:10 and McCreary from Ante and Tunney combined to make it 2-0 at 3:05. Georgetown bettered the Guelph stunt with two talbes within a minute and a half later in the period. Norton from Lavell and Arnold produced the first at 13:19 and Brad Butterworth came through without aid at 14:45. Georgetown Novices scored twice in the second period. It was ahead 4-2 with 1:10 left. The period half gone McKeasone scored from Arnold and Butterworth to make it 4-2. Guelph wasted little time in responding to the last marker. Thirty seconds later, Tunney scored from Ante to tighten things up, and Georgetown's clung to the goal edge until with time running out Guelph drew even on McFavish's goal from Cutler. Fin Arnold was Georgetown's MVP and Tunney stood out for Guelph.

Fog Cancels Basketball Opening Kitchener Game

Basketball games between Georgetown High School and St. Jerome's Jr. and Sr. teams which were to have opened the District 10 CROSSA B League schedule were cancelled Friday because of bad travelling conditions. The Georgetown teams were to have visited St. Jerome's but the trip was washed out when fog dropped visibility in the travelling area to as low as fifty yards. We're very safety conscious of this school, and it's worth it to have the kids' safety by making the weather to show up for a basketball game," senior coach Lyb McEwen commented. "We'll just have to fit the schedule at a later date, probably just before playoffs." Coach McEwen explained that the cancellation was to the advantage of GHS. St. Jerome's is a powerhouse and meeting them later in the schedule means we'll be better prepared for them," he said. The Georgetown basketball team opened the schedule at home yesterday against John V. Ross of Guelph.

Novel Idea For Removing Snow

Mrs. Katherine Cordaro has a tip for snow shovelers who can't take the lifting involved either because of poor health or lack of strength. "It sounds crazy but it really works," Mrs. Cordaro said explaining that clearing snow off a walk or drive is a breeze with a garden rake. "I've just finished taking the snow off my driveway in no time at all using a rake, and I'm not nearly tired," she said. "I just thought that someone with a poor back or getting up in age might appreciate the tip."

Beavers Drop Dundas Game 5-4 in Overtime

Dundas Juniors scored at 2:17 at 8:30, but Dundas shot ahead of an overtime period to edge Georgetown Beavers 5-4 in Dundas, Wednesday, Jan. 6. The game was crucial since Georgetown trailed the Dundas club by just 2 points going into it. It was a goal by Terry Hay with 6 minutes left in regulation, time that forced the extra ten minute period. Georgetown came out of the first period with a 2-1 lead. Dundas scored first at 8:47, but Rod Presswood cancelled it seconds later with a goal from Jan Popiel. Popiel triggered the ahead goal at 14:07 from Terry Hay and Wayne Huddell. The only second period goal was a Dundas tally at 14:40. Dundas wrestled the lead away at 4:20 of the third period. Bill Campbell drew Beavers even with a goal from Hay and Burke.
