DEAF CUBS FIND SILENCE NO HANDICAP

A PACK OF CUBS from the Ontario School for the Deaf at Milton were guests of the St. Andrew's Cubs last Tuesday and probably amazed the guests with apparently unhampered ability to communicate. It's the second meeting between the two groups and friendships are building between the local Cubs and those from the deaf school. Here Mrs. Tracy Barranger talks with deaf Cubs (front row, Jimmy Allan, David Weaver, Alac Bear, Danny Puffall, and Philip Seymour. Looking on are Cubmaster Mrs. Jim Munro (centre), and deaf school Cubmaster Mrs. Inman, with Georgetown Cubs Wayne Farrow, David York, Glenn Shoobridge, B. McMaster and B. Hube.

Sixty-Five Saw Inside 'Cooler' 2020 Complaints Investigated

Sixty-five people took up temporary residence in the cells at the Georgetown Police Dept. office according to a report on the department's operations in 1964 just compiled. Sixty-five is the number of arrests made here under the Criminal Code and the Liquor Control Act. The report also revealed the police received and investigated 2,020 complaints during the 12 month period covered. The seven-man force is headed by Police Chief Ray Haley. Of the 38 arrests made under the Criminal Code, 8 were for disturbance, 6 for assault, 4 each for impaired driving, theft and breaking and entering, and 3 each for failing to remain at accident scene, and driving while license under suspension. Other charges under the Criminal Code were for rape, indecent exposure, vagrancy, shooting with intent, assaulting a police officer, obstructing and attempted breaking and entering. Nine of the 38 Criminal Code Six of these were dismissed. Eighteen charges were laid under the Liquor Control Act and 13 of these were for drunkenness. Three were against underage drinkers, 1 for having liquor in a place other than residence and 1 for drinking while on the prohibited list. Six of these were dismissed. Seven charges under the Juvenile Delinquent Act included 6 for theft, and 1 for contributing to juvenile delinquency. There was one charge of desertion laid under the Family Court Act, and 1 charge of desertion laid under the National Defense Act. By far the largest number of charges - 348 - were laid against drivers under the Highway Traffic Act. Speeding headed the list here with 83 charges, 29 were for failing to stop, 25 for careless driving, 23 for no operator's license, 13 for improper lights, 7 for defective muffler, 7 for improper number plates, 7 for improper left turn, 5 for wrong number plates, 5 for failing to yield at private drive, 4 for failing to produce license, 4 for failing to leave half road free, 3 for wrong address on license, 3 for failing to signal a turn, 3 for going through stop light, 3 for failing to register motor vehicle and 1 for failing to yield right of way at intersection, 1 for passing within 100' of intersection, and 1 for passing on the right. Also: 4 for failing to report an accident, 3 for wrong way on one way street, 2 for obstructing traffic. Just 42 of the 348 Hwy. Traffic Act charges were dismissed. Georgetown By-laws were the basis of 113 charges. Fifty-three for unpaid parking tickets, 10 for parking in no parking area, 44 for having left wheels to-curb, and 5 for obstructing driveway. Just 27 of these were dismissed. The report also reveals that there were 488 overtime parking tags issued last year, 150 tags for parking overnight during the winter, 80 for parking on the median strip downtown, 34 for parking in a no parking area, 13 for parking in the bus zone, 3 for parking with left wheels to curb, and 1 each for parking within 30' of a corner, and blocking driveway. The department investigated 115 reportable accidents in 1964, plus 110 minor (under $100 damage) accidents. There were 88 persons injured in motor vehicle accidents, 7 children and 1 pedestrian, and there were 5 hit and run accidents according to the report.

The Big Difference Between a man who displays this symbol and an insurance company salesman might mean hundreds, perhaps thousands, of dollars in your pocket.

As an independent insurance agent, he represents not one but several insurance companies. He is thus free to choose the best car, home, or business insurance for you, to make sure you are paid both promptly and fairly when you have a loss. On the other hand, the services of an insurance company salesman usually end when he has sold you the policy which this particular company offers. As independent insurance agents, we are ready to give you continuing, personal attention. The Big Difference in insurance today. ## Drama Festival Heads Junior Farmers' Year

The January meeting of the Junior Farmers County Board was held in the Agricultural office, Milton, January 6th. A good attendance from the four local Junior Farmers Clubs in Halton to hear the long list of events for the New Year. First on the list is the Drama Festival to be held in February at the Milton High School Auditorium. Normal Junior Farmers are presenting two plays this year while the Palermo and Acton Juniors are contributing one each. This plans to be good entertainment for the entire family and everybody is welcome. The Orangeville Leadership Training School invites the new executive members from Halton's local clubs to attend their school to be held in February. March is the month set for the election of new officers for 1965-66 at the Annual Meeting in the Agricultural Office, Milton. Awards will be presented to outstanding members at this meeting. The March Conference of the Provincial Junior Farmers Association will be held on the campus of the University of Guelph in March. All Halton Juniors are invited to attend this weekend of lectures, meetings and dances. This year Halton Junior Farmers are planning to hold a semi-formal dance in April. The February meeting of the County Board is set for each February in the ODA office, in Milton.

HORNBY

Congratulations to the Halton Junior Farmers trio which included Ruth Mason, Lois Hunter and Jill Taylor, who placed fifth with 79 marks at the Provincial Conference in Toronto. And also to the quartet including Ruth Mason, Joy Hayward, Marie Dawson and Joe Love, who placed fourth with a total of 80 marks. Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gillies who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on January 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar May have sold their farm and will be moving to Milton in the spring. They will be greatly missed by their many friends in this community. Sympathy is extended to Ted Robinson and family in the death of his brother, John L. Robinson who passed away on Tuesday night, Jan. 12th. Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Elmer Walls, who died suddenly on Saturday morning of a heart-attack. He was the beloved husband of Edna Wagner, dear father of Doris (Mrs. Gordon Sharpe), Glen (Mrs. Garnet Laskin), and June (Mrs. Jack Fries). The funeral service was held from Eden United Church on Monday, Jan. 18, with interment in Eden Cemetery.

the new look of success... '65 PONTIAC

Pontiac is excitingly new and different this year. And more luxurious than ever. With its striking new styling, sleeker, lower profile and majestic new grille, Canada's Success Car has outdone itself beautifully for 1965. And there's so much more than good looks to Pontiac's success story. It's the best handling, smoothest riding, roomiest and most comfortable Pontiac yet. A new extra-strength perimeter frame, new wider track, new suspension and steering are just a few of the things that make this the greatest Pontiac ever. Here indeed is the new look of success for 1965!
