Wagstaffe DeeJay For Action Group Dance

Danny Wagstaffe with his records supplied the music for the February Frolic held in the Community Hall last Saturday evening, and sponsored by the newly formed Action Group of St. John's Church.

Although the crowd was not large, all who attended reported a good time.

Robert Hall and Mrs. Cam Sinclair were first prize winners, at the Evening Women's Institute euchre, held in the community hall last Friday evening. Other prize winners included:

Mr. Thomas Warner, who won the draw for second place, with Mr. H. V. Gibbons. Dot Shields won the ladies second; Mr. H. V. Gibbons and Robert Hall tied for the lone hands prize; Mr. Gibbons winning the draw. The door prize went to Mrs. Syd Robin. The committee in charge served lunch.

Birthdays were celebrated to Allan Denamore who will be eight years old on Friday, Feb. 12th and to Patti Walker, 7 on Tuesday, February 16th; also William Ross, 4, and Ricky Hunter, 16, all celebrating February 16th.

St. John's Guild met at the home of Mrs. J. Murray on February 2nd, with Mrs. J. Stewart as hostess. The meeting opened with the Guild Prayer and the Lord's Prayer. The idea of the Talent Money was again explained to the members; the returns to be in by the first meeting in October. The program list was passed again and more names were added. The secretary was reminded to order more Last-Notes cards.

A small fancy work table was suggested for euchre. A convenor for the euchre party was needed and Mrs. J. Stewart and Mrs. F. Armstrong agreed to work together on this. Donations of prizes and food were offered by the members. Would the members bring prizes and any playing cards available to the next meeting to be held at Mrs. Thomas Warner's, Feb. 19th. Mrs. J. Stewart was the very capable auctioneer of the few pieces of fancy goods left from the bazaar and netted the Treasury a nice sum. The meeting closed with prayer. Being so close to Valentine's Day, the hostess Mrs. Stewart had all engage in a game of 'Identify Yourself' to a name pinned on their back. Discovered by asking questions which could only be answered by 'Yes' or 'No.' This created a lot of fun and really kept some guessing. Lunch was served by Mrs. DeForest and all received a Valentine from the hostess.
