Motorist Cuts Hand When Cars Collide

A Limehouse motorist had his hand cut with broken glass in one of several motor vehicle accidents in town during the past week. George Scholz, R.R. 1, Limehouse, was taken to hospital by Georgetown Police Constable Dan Martin following the collision.

Scholz was leaving the Georgetown downtown parking lot in a 1965 Volkswagen when struck by a 1957 Plymouth travelling west on Mack St. operated by Kenneth W. Chapel of Acton.

The small car took $800 in damage and the Plymouth $300.

Cars driven by Chester Melanson, R.R. 3 Georgetown, and Marlin Bergans, 37 Charles St., collided head-on at the Guelph St. - John St. intersection the same day resulting in $550 damage. Melanson was making a right turn onto Guelph St. and Bergans was southbound on Guelph St. at the time of the accident.

Friday night saw a minor collision at the intersection of Guelph and Mountainview. A 1960 Rambler, driven by Lena Saschenbreker, 36 Church St. and a 1960 Ford sedan driven by Gladys Scratch, 35 Albert St. were both eastbound on the highway when they hit. The Scratch car was starting to make a left turn onto Mountainview as the Saschenbreker car attempted to pass. Damage here was $90 to the Rambler and $50 to the Ford.

Hockey Women-Plan Banquet for Players

A banquet for All Star Senior Hockey Teams is being arranged by members of the Georgetown Ladies All-Star Auxiliary. The members met Monday, February 8th to discuss the plans.

An Auxiliary officer said the banquet will be held some time in May. Everyone is welcome to attend the All Star Auxiliary meetings. The next one will be held March 15th.
