

LET'S PLAY BRIDGE

BY BILL COATS

What should you do if a contract looks hopeless? One thing you should never do is give up. Any other answer would depend on whether you are playing a duplicated bridge or a friendly rubber bridge match.

At duplicates, you should try to hold your losses to a minimum since other pairs may be in the same contract and they will go down two. But if rubber bridge, you should go all out for your contract because down another trick is a small price to pay if you can make your contract.

I started out asking about hopeless contracts. Here goes that came up in a rubber bridge game I'm just showing two hands now because if you know all four, the solution is obvious.

Lorne Scots Plan Week's Training at Camp Niagara

The Lorne Scots regiment follows the regular force pattern of grouping all service units under one headquarters for greater flexibility and control. Major-General George Kitching, General Officer Commanding Central Command, said the camp training will emphasize corps subjects, basic soldiering skills and specialist qualification courses.

The Lornets will be one of several infantry regiments which will train at Camp Niagara. The newly organized service battalions and independent service units will also train at Niagara-on-the-Lake, while armoured, artillery, engineer and infantry battalions from Eastern Ontario will train at Camp Petawawa.

Camp quotas allow units to take their complement of officers, warrant officers, NCOs and rank and file up to a maximum of 150 all ranks for the service battalions. Major units are allowed 100 officers and men and independent minor units, 50 all ranks.

The training will provide an opportunity for the components of the newly organised militia service battalions to provide logistic support for other units in camp. The new organization is in the event of a national emergency," said General Kitching. "Three militia brigades, about 18,000 men, would be quickly organized to replace the three Regular Army brigades which could likely be sent overseas at short notice."

"The training of additional units and reinforcements for the overseas brigade would be an extremely important task. We will be putting heavy emphasis on training techniques for this reason."

The general said another force of 8,000 militiamen would be assigned to defence of Canada tasks. An additional 2,500 would guard vital installations and a further 1,500 would be available for national survival tasks.

"The complexity of these tasks calls for a highly trained, young, physically fit and vigorously led Militia," said General Kitching.

While at camp this year, militia units will run their own orderly rooms, officers' and sergeants' messes, and be responsible for their own administration.

Units training at Camp Niagara will be under canvas while units at Camp Petawawa will be quartered in existing barracks.

REGIONAL JAIL IS UNDER STUDY BY HALTON COUNTY

The possibility of establishing regional jails in co-operation with adjoining counties is still being investigated by Halton County Council, Reeve W. Coulter told Halton County Council last week.

"We do not know what was the skunks indicate, but this was even in the middle of the village on Sunday evening. However, he did a quick disappearance act by the time the pedestrian, who had him, got a flashlight.

We regret that Mr. Garnet Thompson is ill. He was taken to hospital by ambulance on Monday.

We do not know what was the skunks indicate, but this was even in the middle of the village on Sunday evening. However, he did a quick disappearance act by the time the pedestrian, who had him, got a flashlight.
