

Present Trophies to Curlers Brewer Qualifies For Cestloy is New President Silver Expert Shield

The annual meeting of the curling club was held at the club on Monday night with a good representation of members present to elect the new president and to present trophies to the curlers who had won the championship of the club during the season.

During the dinner, Paul Barber, president of the club, presented trophies to the curlers who had won the championship of the club during the season.

A motion to eliminate the club treasurer and have all accounts paid through the board of directors and the manager was turned down by the membership.

A motion to have the club manager run out of town was also turned down by the membership.

Other motions to govern the playing of teams and players were dealt with in some detail.

The trophies were presented to the curlers who had won the championship of the club during the season.

Seven in a Row, Too Much for Town Midgets
Cobourg Midgets rapped in 7 goals in a row between 8:33 of the first period and 13:40 of the middle period to hang a decisive trouncing on Georgetown Midgets in the opening game of the Ontario Midget Hockey Finals in Cobourg Wednesday night.

Georgetown started the scoring, and closed it with the only third period goal. But in between, Cobourg piled up an insurmountable cushion.

Butler counted the first second period goal from Harold and Massey to make it 3-1, he repeated 3 minutes later from Massey, and Provost from Gutteridge and Heakillson punched in Cobourg 7th.

Georgetown deserved better than the two goals they got back in the final period, when they took the upper hand, but Shaw with a big assist from his lucky rabbit's foot, prevented a rally.

McMenemy passed to Paul Robinson to put Georgetown ahead at 3:38. Kelly scored for Cobourg unassisted to erase the edge and Cobourg built a substantial lead before the first twenty minutes were used on goals by Hambridge and Kelly; Kelly from Herriot and Camp-

In the second period it was Llewellyn-pushing Georgetown into a 3-1 lead from Karmach of 10:30, and Georgetown made it 3-1 at 11:30 of the last period when Inglis repped a pass from Herriot into a hotpin corner.

The Bowmanville fully started at 11:15 when Simpson punched in his second goal from Groulx. Simpson bumped in another three from Orestich at 12:37 and Simpson drilled in with the winner of an unassisted shot at 13:00.

Georgetown's Postward came on in the falling minutes to shoot hard for the equalizer but the quality legs were not to be tested.

Georgetown's Postward led 3-1 in the final period when they sagged to allow the Bowmanville explosion. Simpson was the standout scoring all 4 of the winners' goals.

It was the second time in the game that Bowmanville grabbed the lead. The host team went in front 1-0 at 14:00 of the first period when Simpson scored from Donaghy. Jerry Nell tied things at 15:10.

Bill Dwyer got one of those back at 4:36 of the third from Robinson and Lavell as Georgetown surged back. But they could write no better than one more goal out of their new vigor, that by Lavell from Dwyer and Robinson at 13:30.

The shots on goal were even—30 each.
