

Storyman's Magnetism Drew Tens of Thousands Daily for Show

Each week the High School Storyman, thronged with the tens of thousands of children who had and sang with the Storyman. Attendance for the week averaged 200 with over a hundred children and parents in the family night last Friday.

Young faces are illuminated with radiant smiles as another high school auditorium crowd in the neighbourhood of 1,000 listen intently.

Rowan-Robertson Wedding in St. Stephen's, Hornby

A double-ring ceremony in St. Stephen's Anglican Church on February 27, united Miss Alleen Robertson of Hornby and Jackson Willis Rowan of R.R.1, Milton in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson of Hornby and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rowan of Willowdale.

Canon J. E. Maxwell officiated at the ceremony. Bill Bab, accompanied the soloist, the Lynne Merritt, at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of angel-peau de soie with wrist-length sleeves and train. Her shoulder-length veil was held by her orchid headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with a red corsage in the centre.

Mrs. Ken Rodgers of Oakville, sister of the bride, was Matron of Honour. Miss Rosemary Robertson of Hornby, a sister of the bride and Miss Gloria Morgan of Willowdale, a sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Miss Lynne Merritt of Milton, a friend of the bride, was flower girl. The Matron of Honour and bridesmaids were dressed in floor-length gowns of medium lace over taffets with bell-shaped skirts. The flower girls wore a blue taffeta dress with white pinafore. All the attendants wore drop pearl necklaces, white gloves and hats with blue bows and a blue rose. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Robert Bell of Milton, a friend of the groom was best man and Richard Rowan of Milton, a brother of the groom and Harry Robertson of Hornby, a brother of the bride, were ushers.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at four miscellaneous showers and one cup and saucer shower.

Mrs. Fred Robertson, mother of the bride, received at the reception in her home, wearing a beige sheath dress with a ribbon jacket, a large gold and beige flowered hat, beige shoes, white gloves and purse and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Robert Rowan, received for her son, wearing a navy blue three piece suit, with navy blue accessories and gloves and a red rose corsage.

The Robertson home was decorated with two large baskets of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums and a large bouquet of red carnations, a gift to the bride's parents from the bride.

For the honeymoon trip to the Laurentian Mountains in Quebec, the bride chose a light blue, two piece suit with a large fox collar dyed to match, long black leather gloves, black patent shoes and a large shocking pink hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Helen E. Humberstone of Toronto, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robertson of Brampton, grandparents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rowan of Toronto, grandparents of the groom.

Guests attended from London, Hamilton, Toronto, Port Credit, Milton, Streetsville, Georgetown, Brampton, Huttonville,
