

Three-Ring Circus Booked For Park Next Month

The Gene Cody and Kipling Brothers combined 3 Ring Circus will appear in the Georgetown fair grounds under the sponsorship of the Georgetown Lions for a one day stand next month.

Circus officials have arranged with the city for a Tuesday, May 11, engagement.

The Circus, known as the World's Finest Family Circus appears under a mammoth waterproof Big Top that can accommodate up to 2000 people, and offers a fun filled 1 1/2 hour performance that takes place in three big rings. It is suggested you go to the fairgrounds at least 1 hour before show time, so that you may see the many other attractions including the Double Slide Show and Monoparts on the Midway.

Some of the feature acts this year include the magnificent Golden Procession, 8 sleek Palomino Liberty horses, the lovely Liana, Petite Blonde Aerialist; the vibrant Barbara Fairchild, principal Roubin-back Ballerina; a Fire-Dance Spectacular featuring Chief Rain Cloud, all taking part in a performance of over 20 acts and displays.

The circus management has made it known that there is no EXCESS charges for seats, the One Big Show Ticket you buy lets you see the entire circus performance.

push or pull after the night Advance Sales Tickets can now be purchased from any member of the Lions. When you buy your tickets in advance you help the Lions to help you, as they receive a greater percentage of the sales.

A lucky-draw chance for a one-week vacation at Sarasota, Florida, goes with the admission price.

The draw will send two people to the Florida City, known as the circus capital of North America and situated on the Gulf of Mexico.

Not the least among the attractions with the Gene Cody and Kipling Bros. Combined Circus is the rough, rugged and ready elephant.

An elephant is indispensable to a circus in more than one way. Elephants symbolize the circus more than any other animal; and most certainly no circus would be complete without an elephant.

But they also earn their daily wages of hay, grain and peanuts by an entirely different form of service. In setting up the circus, they do double duty by hauling the heavy canvas of the Big Top, rolling wagons into place, and being generally useful wherever power is needed.

Likewise they lend a helpful show, and in pulling stakes when the tented city is folded and loaded for movement to the next day's town.

Whether entertaining the public in the menagerie, or pulling a mired truck off a muddy lot on a rainy night, Bimbo, the circus pachyderm is equally obedient and dependable.

Many Workers Ensured Success for Tournament

Editor, The Georgetown Herald.

I would like to express my thoughts and thanks to all organizations concerned with the Bantam Hockey Tournament in this open letter to all citizens of Georgetown.

There are so many people concerned who with hearts full of goodness, relinquished their time to make it such a success. I hesitate to name them for fear I might miss some who were so helpful. However the town owes them a vote of thanks and I so move in this letter.

The reason I'm writing is to bring to mind, those who served behind the scenes. The number of auxiliaries who served the meals throughout the week. A special thanks to the teen-age girls who helped serve and looked after the tables. A big thanks to the "Arens Rats" for their tireless work and

Ontario Champs, PeeWees Add Goderich Title Too

The Ontario A Minor PeeWee champions, Georgetown PeeWees, added another circle of laurels to their best season last week — the A Division title at the Goderich PeeWee Tournament.

Georgetown bested competition from Brampton, Leamington, Woodstock and Riverside to earn the A crown.

The local club had their toughest test in their opening game when they played to a 1-1 draw with Brampton but earned the right to progress on their superior shot-on goal total, 25 to 8. Fendley from Gerry Neil accounted for the Georgetown goal.

Georgetown blanked Leamington 3-0 in the second round with goals from Fendley assisted by Inglis and Hillcock, and Llewellyn from Korzak and Fogal.

In game three Georgetown were 4-2 victors over Woodstock. Korzak scored a pair, and Fendley and Beaumont notched the others. Assists were given to Llewellyn (2), Inglis, Heppes and Beaumont.

Riverside, the team that copied the A championship last year, took a 5-1 shelling from the locals in the Series Final. Five players, Llewellyn, Hillcock, Foster, Fendley and Inglis, produced the Georgetown total with help from Korzak (2 assists), Fogal (2), and Heppes.

The Georgetown PeeWees are coached by Blake Inglis and managed by Harold Seckington.

They won the Ontario title here one week earlier by beating Bowmanville.

Couples attending from town were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gambell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McVeas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Calder, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAusland, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Millar, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalziel, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ditty, Mr. and Mrs. R. The Herald for their coverage of the sport. The Legion, Oddfellows and St. John's United Church for the use of their halls. Buck's Groceries, the Scotch Bakery and the Georgetown Dairy for service surpassing the call of duty.
