No Contract Yet Ask Arbitration

A letter from town solicitor F. A. Nelson, drew council's attention Monday, that negotiations between the town's Police Committee and the Georgetown Police Association had broken down, and as a result the Police Association were requesting arbitration. Mr. Nelson asked for council's authorization to proceed, however, the matter was not dealt with at this meeting.

Baptists Hear Views of Pastor on Selma March

A Hamilton minister who took part in the freedom march in Selma, Alabama, spoke to a large group attending First Baptist Church's first Family Night in the church hall May 8. Rev. Alan Matthews of Eastwood Baptist Church, Hamilton, related his experiences in the racial-torn south in opening his talk on his experiences in Inter-city Missions work. One youth group which has been started at Rev. Matthews' church has associated itself with Youth Action groups. Through the organization a number of people have been able to come through the despair of alcoholism to a new life of Christianity.

Some 75 people attended Family Night which included a buffet prepared by the First Baptist Church Sunshine Society, a program, and Rev. Matthews' address. The tables were decorated with daffodils.

Rev. Lloyd Whan, First Baptist Church pastor, conducted the after-supper program. After a hymn sing and devotional, Mrs. Walter Townsend extended thanks to those responsible. Music included a solo by Linda Peck and a number by the CGIT group.

The Family Night was held in conjunction with the annual Family Sunday Service May 9.

The church was almost filled to capacity for the service which was conducted by Mr. Douglas Peck, the Sunday School Superintendent.

A special story for the children in the congregation was told by Mr. Elmer Carter. Mrs. John Stopper, and Mrs. John Emerson conducted the children in song.

Brenda McNeil and Marion Whan sang a duet, I Have a Thing to Say, and Allan Whan read the scripture lesson. The speaker was Mrs. John Stopper who emphasized the need for Christ at the centre of family life.

Failure is the line of least persistence.

Wedding anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Norlon who celebrated their 50th anniversary on Sunday.

Mr. Bob Warren spent Easter holidays at Charlton.

This coming Sunday May 16, services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church will commence at 9:30 a.m. with Sunday School following at 10:45 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miller and Billie, visited his parents here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Greenless of Campbellville visited the A. W. Benton's on Sunday.

Mrs. Millie Bentall is home following a few days in hospital in Georgetown. We hope she has better health soon.
