

IODE Sponsors Girl for Summer Youth Conference

The May meeting of the Council of Strathmore Chapter, I.O.D.E. was held Monday, May 10, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Wilson, Edith Street, with thirty members present. Mrs. Sam Pearce, regent, presided and opened the meeting with the prayer of the order. A table model Union Jack was used for the first time and the large flag will be used only for ceremony. The minutes of the April meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Helen Macdonald, and approved. An invitation was extended to members to attend a garden party in June, which the John Wesley Robinson Chapter is holding at the home of the regent, Mrs. T. A. Dillon, Glen Williams. A donation of $66 was made to the Current Affairs Club of the local high school to sponsor a delegate to the Youth Conference this summer.

Mrs. E. Gilmer, gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Oliver Hunter, Educational convener, reported that the books for the library for the adopted school have been ordered. Brief reports were given by the school secretary, and convener to the clinic and local council of women. Mrs. Elliott, reported at home and abroad, collected the nursery bags and members who were not at the meeting, are to leave their with Mrs. Elliott by the end of this week. These will be sent to headquarters. A set of steps, ordered for the hospital, are to be paid for. Mrs. Timms, requests any member with a home large enough to have a meeting, to volunteer same.

The regent announced that the National Annual meeting will be held May 29 in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Roll call and collection were taken. The June meeting will be a pot-luck dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. Denney Charles.

Guest speaker for the evening, Mrs. William French, was introduced by Mrs. Dave Godden, clinic convener. Mrs. French, is a nurse with the local office of the Halton County Health Unit, whose aim is to promote health in the community. The Unit was formed in September 1947 and Dr. A. Bull is in charge with Dr. Stewart as assistant. The Unit covers Child health clinic, Sanitation,

Studio Club Studies Brahms Life, Music

The April monthly meeting of the Studio Club was held at the home of Mrs. H. J. Newman.

For this meeting Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) was chosen as composer for the evening. Terry Lane commented on the life and works of Brahms.

Piano selections were played by Brian Wicks and Cathy and Lillian Bear.

Also during the evening Marie Anderson displayed her viola and accordion, explaining the mechanisms of each.

It was decided at this meeting for the group to attend a "Song, Poetry, and Drama" night presented by the village players at Acton High School.

Hostess for the evening's meeting was Brenda Bradford.

BALLINAFAD

Young People Assist At Family Service

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lawr of Victoria Harbour visited last week with their family in Georgetown and Ballinafad.

Bill McEnery who was in Hamilton a couple of weeks ago for an operation on his nose is able to be back to school for this week.

Christian Family Sunday was observed at the morning service of worship. Mr. Bates was assisted by three senior Sunday school students, Ann Shortill, Brian Sinclair and Bob Black. Special music was rendered by the Senior Choir.

This community was shocked to hear of the untimely passing of Spencer Roden who until very recently lived in the district, attending Erin High School and had been a member of the 1st Ballinafad Scout Troop. We extend sincere sympathy to the family in their sudden bereavement.

The sympathy of the community is extended also to Mrs. E. E. Snow, whose mother passed away last week after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Edmunds, a former resident of this community passed away last week in the Brampton Hospital and we express sympathy to her family.

Health Education, Pre-Natal classes, Infant and Child Hygiene, school health services, Mental health services etc.

Mrs. Ed Hall, a former clinic convener, thanked Mrs. French for her very interesting talk and presented her with a gift from the chapter. I.O.D.E. members have been volunteer help at the local child health clinic since its beginning.

Mrs. Percy Leslie, thanked Mrs. Wilson and the hostesses for a pleasant evening.

Hostesses Mrs. Ivan Hay, Mrs. James Evans, Mrs. H. C. Wriggworth, Mrs. G. Yarnell and Mrs. Ed Hall.

Herbert, accompanied Mrs. Scott to Detroit and will visit there for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Massett, 188 Main St. N., have returned from a vacation in Florida. They stayed in Sanibel and Captiva, off the coast in the Gulf of Mexico. The islands are noted for their seashells and the Massetts gathered a fine collection during their stay.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Douglas, Rennie and Yaman, Morris Street, were Mrs. Douglas's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Warham, Royal Oak, Michigan, and her aunts Misses May and Daisy Warham of Bourneouth, England, and another aunt Miss Ruby Warham of Ventnor, Isle of Wight.

Mr. and Mrs. Larkin worked for some years with the Honey Dew Company, and operated stores at various locations including Sunnyside. He died in 1937, and she returned to the Channel Islands just before World War 2 and lived there during the German occupation under the war years. She later lived in Bolton, England where she worked at Chadwick House, a residence for working girls.

She returned to Canada a few years later, aboard the Queen Elizabeth on his first Atlantic crossing, lived in Toronto and later in town with her brother Raymond and Mrs. Ollivier at 44 Prince Charles Dr.

Her brother is her closest surviving relative.

Rev. Bruce Woods of Maple Ave. Baptist Church conducted the funeral service on Thursday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Four nephews were pallbearers, John, Robert, Raymond and Geoffrey Ollivier. Interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery, Toronto.

Teeners are Bruised In Motorcycle Upset

Two teenagers were scraped and bruised when the motorcycle they were riding on upset at the north end of Main St. near the Ontario St. corner Saturday.

Treated for minor cuts and bruises were Gary Griggs, 17, of R.R. 3, Georgetown, and Judith Hube, 15, of 18 Balfour Cres.

They were riding westbound on a Suzuki motorcycle when it skidded off the curve at the north end of Main. The pavement was wet at the time of the accident.

P.C. Harry Liberty investigated the accident.

Georgetown police investigated two motor vehicle accidents Sunday. Cars driven by George Clinton Duke, Oakville, and George Forbes, 58 Howson Cres., Georgetown, met at the Maple Main intersection at 7:45 p.m. resulting in $700.00 damage.

The Oakville car was west-bound on Maple Ave. and Forbes was driving south on Main.

Two hours earlier a car driven by Donald Ernewein of Kitchener skidded out of control on King St. and hit a tree in front of Greenwood Cemetery resulting in $125 damage.

PROTEST TO CN ABOUT CLOSING EXPRESS OFFICE

"I don't imagine it will get us anywhere, but let's try it anyway," said Coun. W. Smith as he suggested Council let the C.N.R. know they are opposed to the closing of the express office in town.

"I'm sure business and industry won't be happy with the closure," added Coun. Smith. "It's a voice crying in the wilderness, but we can try," commented the Mayor.

Reeve Elliott abstained from voting on the question of the protest to the C.N.R., since he is employed by them.

Herbert, accompanied Mrs. Scott to Detroit and will visit there for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Massett, 188 Main St. N., have returned from a vacation in Florida. They stayed in Sanibel and Captiva, off the coast in the Gulf of Mexico. The islands are noted for their seashells and the Massetts gathered a fine collection during their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Benno Spitzer have returned from ten days in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Anderson of Nazagawee, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Anderson of Guelph, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler and children of Hillsburg were all Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Scott and the boys.

We are sorry that Mr. Mills was rushed to hospital in Georgetown on Tuesday. We hope that he may be improved soon.

So successful was a father, sons and daughters breakfast last year in St. George's Anglican Church, that it was adopted as a yearly event by the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen.

The Brotherhood attends the eight o'clock communion service the first Sunday of each month, having breakfast and a short business meeting afterwards. This month, they brought their children, and a group of 76 people sat down to breakfast and were welcomed by the rector, Rev. John McMillan.

Normally the men prepare breakfast themselves, but in order that all the fathers could enjoy the meeting with their children, a group of wives volunteered to serve.
