

WHEN IN LATIN CLASS DO AS THE ROMANS DO

ALL THE SCENE LACKED was a firebug with a fiddle. The Latin Club, a Georgetown High School students organization, marked the approaching end of term in the only logical way they could Thursday night — with an authentic Roman feast — complete with slaves and gladiators. Here Consul Gordon Layton gets a curb-side service from Madeline Buresh.

MEMBERS OF THE ROMAN hierarchy Ann Gudgeon, Roger Smith, and Irene Keir get the royalty treatment from slaves Bev Gosling and Leslie Buresh.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

Complaints of as many as thirty people living in one house sparked a move by council to have the planning Board begin a study of the present Zoning by-law to see if situation can be controlled.

Permission was granted to Corp. Ted Scott to attend a crossing guards Jamboree in Ottawa, May 21, 22, and 23. He will take along three school boy guards. The Public School Board will pay for the students expenses and the town will pay up to $25 for Corp. Scott's expenses.

Council authorized immediate payment to the High School Board of their first installment of the maintenance levy, an amount of one hundred thousand dollars. Two more payments of fifty seven thousand will be made, one in July, and one in September.

Permission was given to erect a sign at Rosetta and River Streets for the Howard Smith Paper Co.

Even the mayor was in favor of allowing the Police Chief to attend the Ontario Police Constable's Convention in Barrie, June 7, 8, and 9th. "Yes, I'm in favour, too", he said, as Council watched.

"You didn't expect me to be in favour of this either," said the mayor when he, along with Council passed a motion to advertise for a new police cruiser.

Permission was given Dr. G. O'Dwyer to erect sign in front of 21 Church Street.

Blood Donor Clinic Monday, June 7th

On your way to your cottage this summer your vacation plans will be jolted if you witness a serious automobile accident along the highway.

Whatever you see may remind you that the victims of that accident will require blood transfusions. There is every chance that sufficient quantities will be on hand to meet the needs but the summer is always a critical time for Red Cross blood collections.

Plan now to make your blood donation before you leave on your summer vacation. You'll have a happier time because you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you helped to restore health and perhaps saved someone's life.

Be a blood donor on Monday, June 7, at Knox Church Hall! Only YOU can give the gift of life. The Red Cross wishes a happy vacation to you and yours.

Ratepayers Badger Council About Roads, Police, Curbs

The condition of the roads in town was the target of all the depopulations at Council Monday night. The first speaker, Graham Wood of Kestrow Crescent, charged that he had lost his shock absorbers and his muffler due to huge potholes on Kinross Avenue.

"I am sending these bills into the town," exclaimed Mr. Wood, "and if they are not paid, I'll get a solicitor."

Speeding on the roads, particularly Prince Charles Drive, was the complaint of Mr. P. A. Hurl, who claimed he couldn't remember when he last saw a policeman or the radar trap on Prince Charles Drive. He suggested that the long stretch of road be broken up with stop signs.

Cr. Smith agreed with Mr. Hurl, saying the speeding on that street is disgusting. He also recommended a policeman on duty in the plaza all Friday and Saturday.

At this the mayor launched into a familiar speech about the hiring of supervisory police instead of probationary officers "as the rest of Council want to do", he stated. He advocated a supervisor during the night, and claimed that until this is done the town would not get proper policing.

Cr. Powers maintained that under the present contract only probationary officers could be hired, and claimed that lack of a new contract hanging fire for some months now showed lack of cooperation with the police.

Water flowing off Main St. South and down his driveway was brought to Council's attention by Bill Cumpsty. Deputy Reeve W. Hunter wondered if raising the sidewalk would be the answer.

No promises were given Rex Cook when he asked if curbs and gutters would be installed in the Cloverdale area. "I know of no allowance for curbs and gutters," said the mayor. Deputy Reeve W. Hunter explained that a road inspection was planned for next week, but he still couldn't promise curbs and gutters.

Switching to the railway tracks from the roads, Mr. Cook advocated proper fencing either by the town or the railway to prevent children from crossing the tracks.

"To prevent children crossing tracks," opined Cr. Powers, "a fence would be needed all the way along."

All the ratepayers complaints will be given consideration some passed on to the police, and some studied for future recommendation.

LEGION NOYES

Dave Capperault is New Legion Zone Commander

The Legion is becoming the place to go on a Saturday night for relaxation and fun. There is plenty of sing-along and Comrade Jack Ferguson on the piano is doing a terrific job keeping the tempo lively. Some one has added coloured tablecloths for atmosphere.

We see the executive have been fit to supply the secretary with an office desk and typewriter. We imagine he can well use it with all the correspondence he has to handle. His job is a busy one.

The Ways and Means committee is still looking for members willing to sell our 50-60 draw tickets.

Sunday, May 16th was the zone meeting at Cooksville, with a good turnout from the various branches. The meeting was conducted by retiring zone commander, Comrade Harry Hassall. He received a standing ovation for his fine work and devotion for the betterment of the Legion.

Comrade Harry Hassall has been zone commander for four years. Before stepping down from office he turned over the zone flag to the new zone commander, Comrade Dave Capperault. We extend to Comrade Dave our good wishes. After the meeting food and refreshments was served by the Cooksville branch.

Successful Tea Aids Manx Society

A successful and well attended afternoon tea was held at the home of Mrs. Sam Penrice, 38 Princess Anne Drive, Saturday.

Helping Mrs. Penrice was her daughter Mrs. Ron Glass of Oakville, Mrs. Hamilton Irwin of Burlington, Mrs. Ed Wilson of Georgetown and Mrs. Peter Foster of Clarkson.

The tea table was decorated with pink carnations, and white mums, and the guests were served by Damaris Pope, Rita Timms and Julie Rundie.

The proceeds from the Tea will be applied to the North American Manx Association Convention Fund, which will be held in Toronto at the King Edward Hotel, July 25th - 28th, 1965.

The Toronto Manx Society, of which Mrs. Penrice is president, are hosts to the convention which takes place every two years.

Coloured posters which had been sent out from the late of Man, added to the attractive decor for the tea, and which aroused a great deal of interest.

The lucky draw prize, a woolen blanket was won by Mrs. E. Carney, Ontario Street.
