

Lights on Tonight, Action Tomorrow at Glen Diamond

It will be lights tonight and action tomorrow night at the new Glen Williams softball park where a new lighting system stands as tangible evidence of the power of community spirit.

Work on hooking up the lights was completed Tuesday night by members of the Glen Williams ball club and Bernie Dore, Bob Heaton and Paul Marshall, but the illumination won't take place until tonight, when a permit to test the system will have been issued by the hydro.

The Glen Team will hold their first game under the artificial sunshine Friday night when they host the Milton club in an intercounty League game.

Glen Williams opened their schedule with a 1-0 loss in Milton Sunday where a fielding error and a throwing error in the 5th inning allowed the only run of the game.

CASE OF JITTERS COSTLY

Georgetown Midget pitching gave by just 4 hits in 5 innings but the locals still got 18 to 4 in their League opener against Milton, Saturday.

Walks and errors plagued the Georgetown club in the abbreviated game which took 2 1/2 hours to play.

Georgetown started Lenz on the mound and then paraded Wilhoit, Toat and Peavy to the hill in an attempt to stem the flood.

Georgetown collected their million's big frames were the 4th and 5th were they collected 6 and 5 runs respectively.

Georgetown Midgets play their first home game June 6.

Giants Rocked by Dundas 8 Runs First Frames

Dundas Merchants rocked Georgetown Giants with a 17-5 bombing in Dundas Sunday snapping their two game win streak.

The Merchants jumped on Giant starting pitcher Glen Gibbs for 9 hits and 8 runs in an inning and a third, a lead that Georgetown never came close to erasing.

Dundas scored 5 runs off 5 hits in the 1st, 3 runs off 4 hits in the second, 4 runs off 4 hits in the 4th, 4 runs off 5 hits in the 5th, and 1 run off 2 hits in the 6th.

All the runs after the 2nd inning were charged to reliever Bernie Dore.

Litzen started for Dundas, gave up 2 runs in the 3rd, and was lifted for Ken Lavis who finished the ball game.

Included in the Dundas barrage were 6 doubles and 2 home runs. Georgetown's extra base hits were limited to a pair of doubles.

Dundas moundsmen fanned four Giants and walked four, and Georgetown got 2 strikeouts from Dore who walked 3.

Some Georgetown hitters did have a fair day at the plate. Tom James went 2 for 4. Pete Lawson 2 for 5, and Danny Arble 2 for 5.

Georgetown pounded out 10 hits to produce their 7 runs.

Rugger Club Elects Mackenzie President

Sandy Mackenzie was elected president of the Georgetown Beavers Rugger Club at an annual general meeting last week. He succeeds Len Lewis who has headed the local club since its inception.

The other officers are vice-president Les Judge, secretary Mark Hefron, treasurer Roger Beecham, captain Harry Hamilton, team secretary Gord Lee, social director Dave Cookwell, publicity and expansion Trev Sampson and George Aspden.

In stepping down, Len Lewis said he felt it was time to leave the business end to some of the younger club members.

Sandy Mackenzie expressed the club's thanks to Mr. Lewis for his efforts with the club over the past years and promised to do his best in directing the club.

Past captain Trev Sampson reviewed the Beavers' outstanding year on the field. It started in the Sevens Tournament last spring when the Beavers

Expansion is the key note for the upcoming year, and both playing and non-playing membership will be the centre of attention. The club hopes to beef up its numbers with a more ambitious and diversified social program, and with a more thorough search for player material. The executive is anxious to get this end of it rolling right away by getting in touch with anyone interested in playing this fall. Training sessions will continue all summer on Wednesday evenings.
