THIS MAN KNOWS HIS WEEDS. Now all you have to make certain is that he doesn't recognize any of them on your property. He's Paul Anderson, 11 Windsor Road, new Georgetown Weed Inspector.

NORVAL

Double Shower Held by Presbyterian Women

A double miscellaneous shower was held by the ladies of Norval Presbyterian Church for Miss Catherine Duncanson of Toronto, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. R. Duncanson, and Miss Susan Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cunningham of Georgetown, in the Sunday School of the Church on Monday evening June 7th.

The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Wesley Louth. Hostesses were Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mrs. Craig McClure and Mrs. Andrew McClure and Chairlady for the evening was Mrs. Oliver Hunter. Mrs. I. Reynolds conducted a contest and Mrs. Wilmer Little favoured with a solo.

The two brides-to-be were seated in decorated chairs and drew tickets to see which one opened her many gifts first. Catherine Duncanson was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Duncanson of Streetsville, and Mrs. Bill Cooley of Brampton. Assisting Susan Cunningham were Mrs. Ronald Fishburn, Mary Ann Kingdon and Judy Clark.

Lunch was served by the ladies and a social time enjoyed. Unit Two of Norval United Church U. C. W. met at the home of Mrs. Ada Enman, Georgetown, on Thursday evening, June 10th, with Mrs. Jean May in the chair.

The main business discussed were plans for the bazaar to be held in the fall and for the Church picnic to be held on Sunday June 20th following Church at Pinagrove School.

The devotional was taken by Mrs. Ann Wilson and Mrs. Gwen Laidlaw. The program consisted of a demonstration and talk on different types of respiration by Mr. Fred Cooley which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Rosemarie Laidlaw and Mrs. Ella Laidlaw assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Norval United Church Anniversary Services were held on Sunday June 13th. Rev. R. J. Irwin was assisted by guest speaker Rev. W. C. Pickett of Toronto, who is Assistant Secretary of the M&M Dept. of the Church. The choir, under the leadership of Miss Kathleen Coombs of Brampton, provided a special music.

At the morning service Mrs. Garnet Laidlaw sang a solo. Mrs. Clark Lyons took a solo part in one of the choir anthems and Gayle Lyons and Brenda Laidlaw sang a duet in the Girl's Two Part number, other girls taking part in this number were Jenny May Brownridge, Barbara Youmans, Irene McLean and Lynda Shea. Mrs. Clark Lyons also took a solo part in one of the choir anthems at the evening service. Harold Laidlaw of Brampton is organist. The services were quite well attended.

Sympathy of the district is extended to Mrs. Malcolm Wishart and to Mrs. Shirley Drew-Smith (Verna) of Toronto, on the death of Mr. Wishart at the Toronto General Hospital on Monday June 7th. Mr. and Mrs. Wishart had not returned to their home on the town line after spending the winter in Toronto when Mr. Wishart took sick. He will be missed by his friends and neighbours.

with a volunteer group to repair churches bombed in the recent racial trouble down there

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Goodehill and son, Clifford of London, England, arrived last week by plane to spend the summer on the farm with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wagstaffe.

We are sorry to see the Blakemore family leave the village. They came from Baltimore two years ago and lived in the Meyer house. They are moving to Brampton this week and expect to go on to California in a few months with the firm where Mr. Blakemore is employed.

Mrs. Bert Hill has returned to Georgetown Memorial Hospital recently. Get-well wishes are sent to her.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Ray Robson and family in the sudden death of Ray. They lived in the village for many years before moving recently to town.

Hear African Missionaries at Baptist Couples' Retreat

Couples of the First Baptist and St. Paul's Baptist Churches and their families spent Friday night, Saturday and Sunday at Camp Hermosa, a retreat on Lake Huron north of Goderich.

They were joined there by a Mrs. Diane Durrenmatl, a Baptist Missionary to the Congo and her husband Andre Durrenmatl, special guests for the week-end, and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Brown of Selsoulan Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Durrenmatl used handcrafts, tape recordings and coloured slides to illuminate their talk on mission work in Africa during a study period Saturday morning. Slides of the mission field had Switzerland, Mr. Durrenmatl's home land, highlighted a Vespers service Saturday night.

Mrs. Durrenmatl delivered the sermon at church Service Sunday morning.

Rev. William Baxter of St. Paul's conducted a Family Worship following morning breakfast Saturday.

Most took advantage of their freetime swimming playing ball or touring the scenic area. Cold weather forced the cancellation of 425 who attended from the zone. They enjoyed a program of games and a picnic lunch.

The Georgetown club will suspend activities for the summer following their meeting next Thursday, June 24 in the Canadian Legion Hall. The executive extends a welcome to all senior citizens to attend their meetings and hopes there will be some new faces at the meeting.

John Farmer and Mrs. B. Saunders have been selected as delegates to the convention in Guelph which will be held the latter part of August.

Mrs. William Collier, Normandy Blvd., won the lucky draw for the quilt.
