

Higgins-Simpson Wedding in Holy Cross R. C. Church

A couple who are making their home at 75 Melville Crescent, were married on May 25 in a ceremony performed by Rev. Oger DeVos in Holy Cross Church.

Wedding principals were Susan Martha Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Simpson, 55 Delrex Blvd. and Charles Garfield Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Higgins of Guelph. The church was decorated with large floral bouquets on each side of the altar. Don Braham was organist and Mrs. Robert Burke sang Ave Maria and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white peau de soie with long sleeves and a short lace train. A circlet of peas de soie and lily-of-the-valley laid a shoulder length veil and she carried a semi-circle bouquet of 24 red peonies, ribbon and net, shaped like a cross.

Bridesmaids Janice Purtil, Camp Borden and Maureen Williams, Brampton, wore floor length gowns of flag red silk velvet, matching circlets with white embroidery trim, white elbow length gloves and red satin shoes. They carried bouquets of red roses and white carnations.

Mr. Simpson gave his daughter in marriage in the double ring ceremony. Robert Higgins, Toronto, was his brother's groomsman and ushers were Don and Ken Ewing, Guelph, cousins of the groom.

Male members of the wedding party wore white dinner jackets and dark formal trousers with red carnation boutonniere.

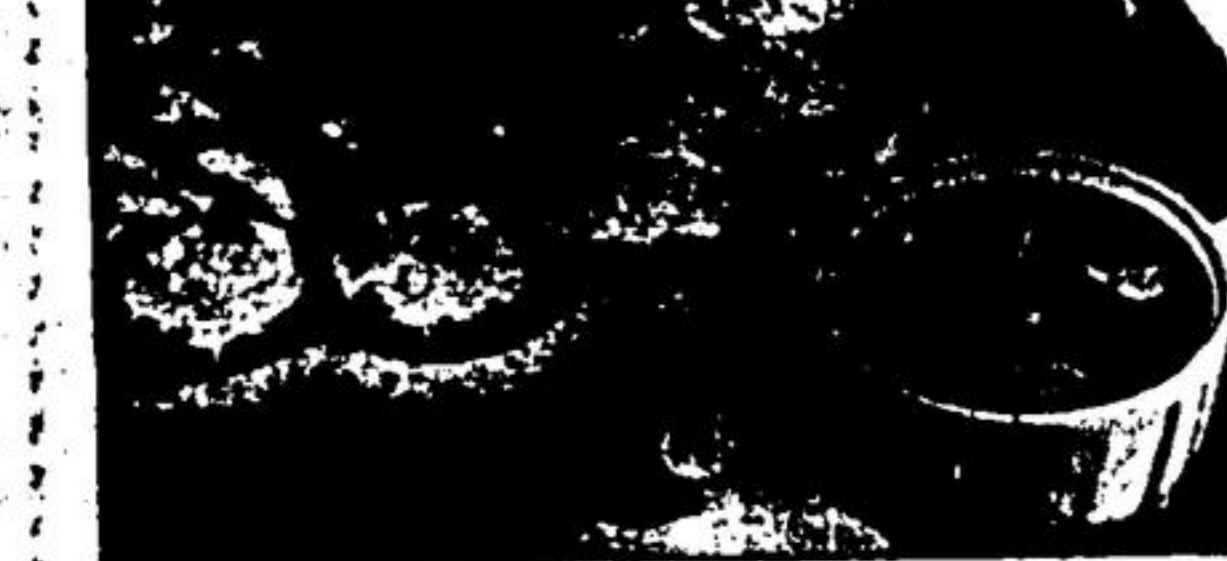

A reception followed in the Canadian Legion auditorium where the bride's mother received, wearing a LaRoth original bias lace dress, white lace accessories and white chiffon hat, and a corsage of white gerberas and white feather carnations. The groom's mother also received, wearing a beige brocade suit and beige accessories, and an orchid corsage.

A century-old linen tablecloth of the bride's grandmother, the late Mrs. Horace Hives, was used on the table holding the wedding gifts, and the candle holders were also family heirlooms.

Among wedding guests were the bride's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Dines, Mt. Dennis, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. James Burke, Guelph. An orchestra to which the groom belongs, The Centuria, played at the reception.

The bridal couple left for a honeymoon trip to the Thousand Islands, the bride traveling in a pink silk brocade dress and jacket, white accessories and white and pink orchid corsage.

The groom is employed in Guelph with the Rockwell Co. Ltd. and the bride, a commercial graduate of Georgetown High School, in the office of Simmons Mattress Co., Brampton.

Now that picnic time is here again, why not take devilled eggs on your next outing? They're easy to do, delicious to eat, and can be prepared the day before. Just cover and store in the refrigerator until you're ready to pack them in the picnic basket.

Or if you're planning a small home lunch, at which you'd like to serve something extra special, why not try a herb omelet? You can give it the "extra special" touch by picking crisp green onions on top of the omelet before serving.

- 2 teaspoons butter
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped fresh onion
- 1/2 teaspoon herb seasoning
- 3 eggs
- 3 tablespoons water
- 1 1/2 tablespoons Oxo beef bouillon

Disputes, Statement Ratepayers Defrauded

S. R. I.
Georgetown, Ont.

The Editor:
The Georgetown Herald,
Georgetown, Ont.

Dear Sir:

In a letter to the editor, Mr. Ed Peters implies that someone, presumably one of several town officials unympathetic to him, over a period of two years defrauded the ratepayers of Georgetown by $3,000.00 per month a total of $72,000.

Mr. Peters, who, disguised as a newspaper and/or radio reporter attends council meetings regularly, says that last year he produced figures to substantiate his charge.

Having been actively involved in the administration of the town during the period mentioned by Mr. Peters, I would like to state that Mr. Peters last year produced nothing.

We would now be well advised to check his source of information before again making such totally unfounded claims.

—Charles Hildebrandt

Invite Other Churches To Brotherhood Meeting

Women from various Georgetown churches were guests of the St. John's United Church Women at a Friendship meeting held Wednesday June 9 in the church hall.

The U.C.W. president, Mrs. Doug MacLaren welcomed the guests and Unit D had charge of the scripture reading. A short poem on Brotherhood was read by Mrs. L. Fallow.

A vocal solo by Mrs. Pat Grady was followed by prayer. Mrs. Jeffares, principal of the Sunshine School for Retarded Children, was special speaker. Introduced by Mrs. M. Hogan, Mrs. Jeffares spoke on the school and showed articles made by the pupils. In thanking the speaker Mrs. Ian Fleming congratulated her on her work with the retarded children.

A duet by Miss Jean Bird and Mrs. Ruth Wrigglesworth was the last item on the program after which much visiting and getting acquainted was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the United Church Women.
