If you doubt that baby racoons are ideal pets just ask the adopter of the four, off-spring which have been the centre of attraction at the farm for the past few months.

Mr. Wilson, who farms 200 acres east of town, can vouch for their reputation of cleanliness and affection since he's seen the foster father of a little family of young coons long enough to know.

This spring, in protecting his flock of geese from their avid mother, Mr. Wilson found himself the adopter of the four, off-spring which have been the centre of attraction at the farm for the past few months.

A young couple from Belfountain took two of them off his hands, and the remaining pair have been asked for by just about everybody who has seen them.

They are easily bottle fed on plain milk, and can be weaned

Holidays Hampering Lineups But Girls Ball Limp Along

State Farm Insurance had a real walk away in their game against Sunnucks Real Estate when Sunnucks could only field 8 players. The game ended after 6 1/2 innings State Farm 37 Sunnucks 18.

Georgetown Cycle and Sports came through with only 8 players and was over Leones Hair Styling 16-5, star of the game was Jill Cunningham who played centre field and brought in 3 home runs for Georgetown Cycle and Sports.

Georgetown Upholstering after losing their first game and a player who broke her ankle came out to win over Delrex Fashions 14-18.

The Small Ball Crowd Will Stride in Parade

This Saturday, July 10th, is our Tag Day, so don't forget it, fellows. All players that are to tag must be at the Delrex Plaza by 8:15 in the morning with a basket.

The players in the afternoon have not been asked to tag, but should assemble there in the afternoon for the parade in which all players of the three Minor Baseball leagues will march. Assembling time for the parade is 12:30. If anyone still needs further information regarding tagging and the parade please phone 877-0101.

Drivers and cars will be needed to transport the boys to different parts of town during tagging, so anyone available Saturday morning can give us a big hand by showing up at the plaza before tagging starts. I'm sure your help will be required.

Holiday time is here again and the coaches can be saved a lot of problems if you will let them know if and when you will be away on vacation and when you will be back. Since coaches like to have holidays too, any interested parent who is willing to help for a night or two by filling in please give us a call.

Morrow, Wilson Replace - Elsliger In Race Wins

Ed Elsliger's Wednesday night drive isn't what it used to be. Ed, a North-Halton Kart Club Class 5 racer who is normally a shoe-in to sweep all three events in which he races at the weekly meets has had his view obscured lately by the backs of other drivers.

Two weeks ago, Ed settled for second place as Jim Morrow piloted his vehicle to three wins in the Class 5 heat, second and feature, and last week the Class was swept by Bill Wilson with Fred Sabatino grabbing second place in the feature.

Sweepers were also registered in the Super Twins class where Bob Urry, was an across-the-board winner, Class 6 where Jack Hayes dominated and Class 2 in which Charles MacCormack collected three wins.

Class 4 races were shared by Gerry Bonham, who captured the heat and feature and Russ Urry in the semi and the interest Class 3 produced three different winners, Keith Hunter in the heat, Hugh Trendall in the semi, and Norma Shea in the feature.

The kart club holds its weekly meets under the lights every Wednesday night at Limestone.

Hands after picking up the worms. It seems worms are as slippery as eels.

About thirty-six high school students are working right now, but the call is out for more. The turnover is very high, according to organizer Wayne Bingham, who holds the contract with the Georgetown Golf Club. About half the number who start quit after the first night, according to Mr. Bingham. They become discouraged when they only pick a few worms, but if you stay at it, says Mr. Bingham, you can pick an average of three to four thousand a night, without much effort.

A rainy night is the time to make money. An experienced picker has picked fifteen thousand worms on a rainy night, and the rate is $4.50 per thousand.

If you want to get in on the worm picking business call Wayne Bingham at 877-6203.

Dore Fires Three Hitter Still Charged With Loss

The Oakville Oaks literally stole a Halton County Baseball game from the Georgetown Giants Wednesday night, June 30.

The second place Oaks were held to just three hits but combined stolen bases and daring base running for a 7-5 win over the Giants.

Larry Curtis led the steal parade for the Oaks, swiping four bases and scoring two runs.

Left fielder Dan McLeod and rightfielder Murray Hall took care of all the hitting for the Oaks.

McLeod, hitting in the clean-up spot or the second straight game, slugged a two run home run in the first inning while Hall had two singles and a sacrifice fly, good for four runs batted in.

Gary Hughes, who worked on a no-hitter for three innings, finished strong with a three-hitter for his third win of the season.

Righthander Bernie Dore also gave up just three hits for Georgetown but was charged with the loss.

Dan Arbie drove in two more Giant runs with a single up the middle.

Oaks got a break when Lindsay was called out for missing second base to end the Georgetown rally.

Oaks took the lead back in the bottom of the fifth scoring two runs. Bernie Dore had the side retired twice only to set a third strike get past catcher Brian McCristall.

Curtis opened the inning with a walk and promptly stole second and third. He scored the tying run on Hall's fly to right.

McLeod and Glaze both reached first when McCristall missed third strikes and walks to Ross Dryden and Frank Burke forced in the winning run.

Oaks added an insurance run in the sixth inning when Bondy walked, stole second and scampered home on Hall's single.

Giants rallied for three more runs in the fifth inning to grab a 5-4 lead.

An error, walk and Tom

Rain Preserves 4-3 Win For Hall and Redshirts

The Hornby Redshirts of the Halton Rural Softball League came up with their first win of the season Friday night.

The Hornby club eked out a 4-3 win over Procor in a game halted by rain after seven innings.

The Redshirts trailed 3-0 after two innings of play but rallied for a pair of runs in each of the fourth and fifth innings to pick up the win.

Bill Hall hurled a fine four-hitter for Hornby to record his first win of the season. He struck out seven.

Procor's Leo Maracle was tagged with the loss. He had four strikeouts.

Maracle staked himself to a 2-0 lead in the first inning when he singled home a pair of runs following a walk and a hit by Reg Green.

Wayne Fleet drilled a triple and scored the third Procor run in the second.

Hall then settled down to hurl scoreless ball until the game was halted.

Dave Asselton rapped a homer following a single by Wayne Mottugh to give Hornby two runs in the fourth. A triple and two errors produced the tying and winning runs for Hornby.

Georgetown Girls Hit Stride, Win Twice

Georgetown's entry in the Halton Ladies Softball League can up their win average to 5-0 with a win over Palermo women in Palermo tonight (Thursday) — but with a little bit of luck they could have been battling to keep an undefeated streak alive.

The Georgetown club, composed mainly of teenage girls from the ranks of the Georgetown Senior Girls League, lost games to Milton and Omagh by a single run 4-3 and 9-8 respectively and another to Glen Williams women 11-0 in extra innings, but all of the defeats could have gone either way.

They handed Oakville a 13-12 setback Monday June 28th, and collected win number two with a lopsided triumph over Drumquinn Monday July 15.

The Georgetown team is coached by Eve Seckington, a former Toronto Ladies Football Leaguer third baseman, who has on occasion inserted herself in the lineup in a crucial situation. She hit a key home run in the Oakville game.

The team's manager is Harold Seckington, and the player roster includes Leslie Quackenbush, Betty Quackenbush, Gloria Zilio, Susan Quinn, Carol Devereaux, Pat Davidson, Claire Hydevaate, Ulla Poulson, Call Pries, Judy Sheppard, Anne Marchant, Mary Handy, Marilyn Eagles, Carol Lawson.

The team is sponsored by the Kinettes and Kinemen, and plays its home games in Glen Williams ball park.

Murrays Setting the Pace For Junior Softball Femmes

The Delrex Fashions, Georgetown Cycle & Sports went right down to the last half of the final inning before either team could count on a win. The game went from Delrex's 10-2 lead in the second to a 12-11 tie in the top of the 7th inning with Georgetown Cycle keeping the Delrex girls scoreless in the 3rd, 4th, and 5th innings. Jane McNally scored the tie breaking run on a hit from Bonnie Inglis.

Sunnucks Real Estate, won over Georgetown Upholstering 24-13 in 6 1/2 innings.

A real see-saw battle was waged when F. Bryant State Farm Insurance met Leone's Hair Styling, until Leone's girls brought in 7 runs in the 5th inning and 2 more in the 6th and kept State Farm from scoring in the 8th and 7th innings. This game ended after 6 1/2 innings, Leone's 18, State Farm 8.

Verna Thompson is Top Junior Farmer Athlete

The weather was a success and so was Verna Thompson as she captured first place in all but one event at the Halton County Junior Farmer's Association track and field day last week.

Miss Thompson won every individual track event and all but the running broad jump in the field tests which was won by Margaret Alexander.

Participating in the field day were 40 members of the Junior Farmer's organization from Palermo, Norval and Acton.

Palermo won the three relays, two for the boys' and one for the girls.

Joe Love, president of Halton County Junior Farmer, Palermo group, said only about 25 spectators watched the events.

"I guess it was too nice a day to sit and watch others," he said. "Many people probably left town for the weekend."

Chairman of the field day was Harold Thompson, vice-president also from the Palermo group.

"The field day is held annually," he said, "but this is the first year we have kept records."

Winners of the field day will compete in the events of the Glueph Field Day on July 30.

Groups from 15 other counties will be represented. Over 1,000 members of the Junior Farmer's Association are expected to participate.

NO GIANTS IN LEAGUE TOP TEN

Though Georgetown Giants are having their best season since they were organized none of the team hitters are included in a list of the Halton County Senior Baseball League's top ten hitters which was released this week by statistician Neil Campbell.

Scottish Bound Bowler Gets Maple Leaf Pin

On Tuesday, June 29th, the Ladies Section of the Lawn Bowling Club had a splendid turnout of members. Five greens were in play and when the points were counted after three games Mrs. Margaret Thompson had the highest.

Between five and seven o'clock a social time was enjoyed at a dinner in the club house. Mrs. Lena Pond, leaving shortly to spend several weeks in Scotland and she was taken by surprise when Mrs. Muekart, the president, presented her with a Maple Leaf pin and a book to record her trip from the members.

High scores for the two weeks previous were Mrs. Laura Robinson and Mrs. Jean Graham.

Minor Baseball Week

July 10 to 17 is Minor Baseball Week in Ontario and Saturday July 10 is Minor Baseball Day in Georgetown. Members of the minor baseball teams will be selling tags door to door.
