SUDDENLY Y.S. DAY CAMP IS THE PLACE TO BE

EVEN THOUGH ONE youngster in the group is shouldering a BOAC Airlines bag this group of day campers is waiting at Georgetown Dairy for the bus, not the plane, to take them to Terra Cotta Conservation Area for their first day at the YM-YWCA's Day Camp. The camp started Monday with an enrolment of 52 for the week. A Y official told The Herald that in contrast to other years when the Day Camp was poorly attended this year's edition is over subscribed. The sponsors planned for 200 and registration has exceeded that. Each complete Day Camp program lasts a week, however a child may sign on for the entire month of July if he wishes and not be bored, since each week's program is different from the last. The Day Camp differs from other summer camps in that the campers return home every afternoon to have their evening meal and sleep in their own beds. From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. they are at camp and enjoy all the aspects of a summer camp. A typical day includes crafts, games, swimming, and maybe a walk in the woods with lunch and a rest period providing breathers. The Day Camp director is Mrs. Rita Munro.

Tagging, Parade, Games Will Mark Baseball Day, Saturday

It's Minor Baseball Week in Ontario from July 10th through to the 19th. The Georgetown Baseball Association intends to celebrate its opening by having its annual 'Baseball Day in Georgetown.'

The Georgetown Minor Baseball Association will have their tag day in the morning. The Intermediates, and all star Midget and Juveniles will join forces along with the minors, the Georgetown's Girls Pipe Band and the Georgetown Citizens Band in a parade starting at 11 p.m. The parade will start at the plaza, proceed along Guelph to Water St., along Water to Mill St., along Mill to Main St. across Main to Park Street and up Park into the fair grounds.

The day will be capped with a 3inning exhibition game with the coaches and managers of the Association playing against the Midget White Sox. The finale will be a seveninning game pitting the Georgetown Intermediates against the first place Georgetown Juveniles Club.

All season long the majority of the parents leave their children to play ball without their support from the sidelines. Make a point to see their parade, and see their games. It's such a small amount of time for something that can be so much for them. The Georgetown Baseball Association has a motto — 'The dream is where the character of our future citizens are molded.'

Even Weatherman Kicking Glen When They're Down

Glen Williams' men's fastball team is even getting its lumps from the weather department.

The Glen Club, which though improved from last season is having trouble putting a good pitching game together with a good hitting game, had the rug pulled from under them Friday night when rain washed out a game with the Action B team after 3 innings.

The Glen and Action B sit together at the bottom of the Intercounty Baseball League, and the Glen had looked on the Action B meeting as a chance to push off for a higher perch.

The Action B Club was teased into the Intercounty setup to fill a gap left when Milton The Milton club was consistently shorthanded for almost
