Norval Scenic Painting Is Gift to Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Rabson of Sudbury visited with Ken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rabson, on June 27th weekend. While here a friend presented them with a painted scene of part of the village as a wedding present. The picture included some of the Credit River and the steeple of the Presbyterian Church.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Foster on the death of Mr. Foster's brother, Mr. George Foster of Georgetown. Mr. Foster died about 2 weeks following the death of his wife and about 8 months after the death of his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheapey of Cleveland (Gertie Louth) have enjoyed two weeks holiday at their cabin at Willow Park.

The Norval Tea House is growing in popularity for a lovely spot to drop in for a cup of tea.

The Tea House is operated by Mrs. Murray Weir in the former Crawford home between Kirk Kraft and the Presbyterian Church.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Lloyd Crichton who is in Richmond Hill hospital following a car accident which occurred on Sunday July 11 near Nobleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Crichton have been living in their lovely new home at the top of the hill on the town line beside Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Eyre and family for several months.

Norval Women's Institute held their annual picnic at Coral Park near Kilbride on Saturday July 8th. About 25 sat down to pot luck lunch at noon after which a game of miniature golf was enjoyed by all.

Gary Murray and Brian Youmans have returned home from the 1st Quebec Scout Jamboree where they enjoyed a week of camping with Quebec Scouts and Scouts representing the other provinces of Canada and some from other countries of the world.

Ken Rider, Scout Master of the 1st Norval-Scout Troop, was in charge of the Scouts from Ontario. He has load of boys enjoyed a tour of Montreal on the way to camp and a tour of the Parliament Buildings and Ottawa on the return trip.
