Boy Scouts Attend Summer Camp

Despite the cool weather prevailing, 37 Scouts of the First and Second Scout Troops are enjoying a camp-out on No. 7 Highway and Limehouse Road.

Under the leadership of skip Frank Bryant of Second Georgetown (St. George's Anglican) the boys are spending the first three days learning and putting and an acrial run-way are part of the course. Skip Bryant reports that as a result of the cool weather and outdoor activities, normal eaters have turned ravenous: a healthy sign for a boy.
