Georgetown Industrial Playdowns Will Be Launched September 8

Standard Products and Kinmen are two horses left in the Georgetown Industrial Softball League Race with a little over a week left in the home stretch.

The league pace setters have the advantage of the calendar with 3 and 3 games bulges on their closest pursuers. S.P. has an 8 wins 3 losses 1 tie record with 4 games to play. Kinmen has a slight edge with a 9 and 5 record but they have just 2 more to play.

Smith and Stone has a mathematical chance of catching Standard with 67 and 1 tie record with 2 games left, as have Varian Associates who bear a 4-0-1 history but still have 4 games up their sleeves.

Well off the contending positions but still in the swim for a playoff berth is the tall end McGibbon crew who have managed only 2 triumphs while taking 11 on the chin 9 times.

Both of the leaders missed opportunities to secure their positions in games played in Georgetown park Monday night.

Standard Products locked horns with Varian in a pitchers' duel that went 9 innings to a fall nine before darkness cut it off. Standard Product's Bob Sinclair and Varian's Dennis Bacon, opposing hurlers, were the stickouts in that one.
