

Comb Raider Alumni For "Old Timer" Team

A list of fifty-five former players with the Georgetown Raider Intermediate hockey team is being used as a guide for members on a special committee who are fashioning a "Raider Old Timer Team" for an exhibition game with National Hockey League Oldtimers next month. The ex-Raider-ex-NHL club will be sandwiched between two weeks of hockey school in early October. A number of the listed fifty-five have already agreed to suit up in the familiar red and white garb including the five former Raider standouts here. Two NHL Old Timers, Bob Goldham and Murray Beard are also eligible for the old Raider squad if they agree to switch sides.

Beavers Show Well in First Game of the Season

The local rugby squad started serious preparation for the fall league schedule with a good tough pre-season game against the Kitchener Pirates Saturday. Several new faces were in the Beaver line up for this game including Roger Sullivan, Derek Amm and Jim Rowland.

Playing his first rugby game ever, local 16 year old Jim Rodgers showed up very well against men twice his weight.

Condition was ideal except for gusty crosswind, but the perfect condition of the field more than compensated for it. Beavers kicked off to Pirates and pretty soon were driven back by the K.W. hardrocks.

As was their forte last year, Beavers got very tough inside their own 25 yard line and the Pirates found the going tougher, the closer they got to the goal line. A long kick by Rowland got the Beavers temporarily out of trouble and soon they carried the play to the other end where an offside call against the Pirates gave Beavers a chance for 3 points from the 35 yard mark. Rowland got the points with a kick that just scraped over the bar.

K.W. came storming back but Beavers held them off the score sheet till half time. Up to this point the Beavers in particular had been slow moving on the ball, letting the opposition beat them to it, but the 2nd half was different. Beavers pounced on every loose ball and started to show the form which carried them to the league championship last year. The backs ran with much more authority now that they were getting the lions share of the ball thanks to some great forward work by Corris and Clark Howlands put Beavers ahead with another fine field goal after K.W. had tied the score with a T.D. Fitness began to show again and the Beavers got stronger as the game progressed.

Ken Adamson got Beavers' final score. Taking a pass at top speed from Gord Lee, he bobbled a little kick over the heads of the onrushing opposition backs and then knifed through to recover his kick in the end zone. Sandy Mackenzie and Les Judge were right up with Adamson to collect that ball, if he had missed it in a bad bounce. The convert went wide and the final score remained 0-3 for the locals. Along with Clark, Adamson, Lee, Corris and Mackenzie had good games. The league starts Sat. Sept. 11th at the Georgetown Park with Toronto Irish the

Crown Cold, But Bat Hot As Fillies Leap Into Lead

Georgetown girl's fastball team has drawn first blood in the finals of the Urban Division of the Halton Ladies Softball League.

The young club scored four big runs in the bottom of the 5th inning to overtake Milton Raiders and captured the opener 12 to 7.

Georgetown led 2-1 after one inning and 4-3 after two, but Milton took command in the 3rd moving into 3-4 advantage and even led 7-4 at one time.

Georgetown scored twice in the bottom of the 4th to draw within a single run of the Miltons and then jumped on them with both feet in the 4 run fifth frame.

The locals added their 11th and 12th in the sixth. Gloria Zilio pitched steady ball for the winners combining with catcher Les Quackenbush for an effective battery. They held Milton scoreless for the final three innings of the 7 inning affair.

Town standouts at the plate were Marilyn Egales, Judy Sheppard and Susan Quinn also shone as a defensive roll. M. Waldie and catcher K. Marsh formed the loser's battery. Milton's best performers were shortstop Bridgeman, 3rd sacker V. Schuch, and 1st baseman D. Duncan. Marsh hit the game's only round tripper.

A fine crowd watched the series despite unseasonal cold. At writing time the date of game two was still uncertain, but it will most likely be played tonight (Thursday) at Hornby, the Milton's home field.

GIANTS JUST SPECTATORS AS FINAL STARTS

Campbellville Merchants will have to come from behind if they hope to capture the Halton County Baseball Championship for the tenth consecutive time. This year's league pennant winners, the Hamilton Red Wings scored a 5-4 victory over the Merchant Friday night to take a one game lead in their best of five finals for the league Championship.

Campbellville catcher Al Wingo described his team's loss best. "We just blew it," he commented after the game. He could have used a better term. Hamilton scored four times in the third inning on the

Domtar Trails as Acton Legion Wins 12-5 Game

Acton Legion pinned a 12-5 thrashing on Georgetown Domtar Thursday night to take a one game lead in their best of five industrial softball league final series.

Gary Masals pitched the win for the Legion, going the full distance. He gave up 10 hits and fanned 9.

Jim Golden and Bob Newman shared the burning job for Domtar allowing a total of 13 hits.

Third baseman John Leatherland paced the Legion team at the plate with a double and twin singles in his trips. Terry Waterhouse topped a pair of doubles and Don Price managed two base hits.

Dan Arble pounded out the game's only home run with the sack empty in the 4th.

Don Anderson's triple, Fred Thompson's two bagger, and doubles by Jim Sweeney, and Gary Masals, and a single by Terry Masals rounded out the Legion's attack.

Dave Cunningham was busiest Domtar hitter with a double and two singles to his credit. Junior Leonard and Clark Holmes were two hitters and Bill Somerville topped a double that scored a run. Mike George and Jim Golden contributed singles.

GLEN TRIUMPH HANGING FIRE

Bulletin: Omagh's protest has been upheld by league officials. The third game of the series will be replayed tonight (Thursday) in Glen Williams.

Glen Williams ladies softball team may have swept their Halton rural league semifinal series with Omagh depending on the outcome of a protest lodged by the losers after the third game Thursday.

The Glen girls won the first two of the best of 5 set by a single run and then rolled over the Omagh team 15-7 in their third meeting.

The victory is hanging fire however because of the Omagh protest.

The losers claim one of their players should not have been called out when she was inserted in the batting lineup and came to the plate unannounced.

Gayle Lyons pitched the entire game for the Glen and Fran Eves took the loss.

Mr. & Mrs. David Baker Are Winners of Langdon Trophy

The Langdon trophy winners for this year at North Halton Golf & Country Club are Mr. & Mrs. David Baker.

The Bakers led the field of twenty couples in winning the annual match Saturday. The trophy was presented some years ago by Magistrate and Mrs. Kenneth M. Langdon for annual competition among married couples in the club membership.

The award was presented by club pro Doug Bruton at a dinner dance which followed the day's tournament. It was a steak barbecue, with a group of men headed by Terry Baines and Bud Monckton serving as cooks. Originally planned as an outdoor event, Saturday's cold
