The party marked the end of the Junior Section's two-month season which started the 1st of July.

William Schenk of Credit Valley Bottling Works donated pop and Mrs. George Muckart, Mrs. Margaret Cleave and Mrs. Myrtle Pattenden sandwiches and cake.

Mrs. Muckart, Mrs. Pattenden and Mrs. Frank Wilson have acted as supervisors during the season.

The points race finished as follows: Brian James 78, Bruce Niven 65, Robbie Burns 55, Barry Thompson 56, Barry James 54, Anne Harris 44, Cheryl Harris 42, Joyce MacDonald 42, Robert Kazz 42, Joan Chamberlain 39, Jack Browner 39, Jeff Burke 31, Ken Maidment 24, Brenda Muckart 22, Barry Holmes 4.

The Juniors bowled on the green at Edith and William streets every Thursday.

Scoring By the Dozen Puts Town Girls Ahead

Georgetown girls ball club might not believe things are cheaper by the dozen but they must think it is a nice neat figure. The local entry in the Huron County Ladies' Softball League has been beating the opposition in the loop by scoring runs by the dozen, and the formula is working for them in the Urban Division finals.

Thursday night the Georgetown team took a strangle hold on the best of 5 series by pasting Milton Raiders 12-4. They took the opening game 12-7.

Game 2 was a tight fight until the late stages when Georgetown got to Milton's hurler for 10 runs in the last three innings. Milton's bats were silent until the final innings. They scored 2 in each of the 5th and 6th frames.

Marilyn Eagles was Georgetown's pitcher and gained the win over M. Waldie.

Marilyn Eagles and Pat Davison scored Georgetown's first pair of runs in the opening inning when Les Quackenbush came through with a timely hit.

Quackenbush, Betty Quackenbush, and Susan Quinn all crossed the plate in the 5th inning, Georgetown's biggest although they collected just 3 hits. One of the hits was a home run by Pat Davison.

Les and Betty Quackenbush came home with runs 8 and 9 in the 6th inning, and Gail Price, Pat Davison and Les Quackenbush roused in with the rest in the 7th frame.

Georgetown batters jumped on the Milton offerings for 14 hits.

French and Hearn scored a pair of runs for the losers in the 5th, and K. Marsh and M. Waldie plated the rest in the 6th. In the last inning Milton batters were put down in order on two infield flies and a strike-out.

Crucial Game Decides Standing in Softball

Kinsmen created a snarl at the top of the Georgetown Industrial Football League Wednesday Sept. 1st when they dumped league pace-setting Standard Products in the second last game of the schedule.

The victory pulled Kinsmen to within a point of S.P. with the same two teams meeting again in the crucial last game last night, too late for publication.

The winner will play Smith and Stone, and the loser, Varian Associates in the league semifinals which may get under way this weekend.

McGibbon Hotel, the league doormat, were eliminated from the playoffs when they could not do better than tie with Varian Associates in the other game last Wednesday night.

Smith and Stone rallied down third placed and Varian Associates finished fourth.

The Industrial League schedule lasted 16 games.

RIVALRY REKINDLED

The old football rivalry between Georgetown and Milton high schools will be rekindled this fall. Milton has been elevated to play in the same loop as GDHS Rebels.

Inglis Back with Karts Wins Heat in Class 3

Al Inglis returned to the driver's seat at the North Halton Kart Club track Wednesday night after too long an absence and immediately made his presence felt in Class 3.

Inglis captured the Class heat and edged Norm Shea for a win in the Class semi-final but his sweep was checked by Shea who pushed his machine to greater heights and snatched the win in the feature. Inglis was a close second and Ned McFarlane claimed third spot.

Just one class was completely dominated by one driver, Charles MacCormack had her kart purring as she piloted it first to the checkered flag in Class 3 heat, semi and feature. Chris Fenlon was No. 2 man in the Class 3 semi event, and Jack Haynes finished right behind the MacCormack distaff side in the finale.

The speediest division, Super Twins, was shared by Bill MacCormack and George McIntyre, with MacCormack getting the lion's share of the glory. He led his co-racers across the line in both the Super Twins 2 heat and feature, but was looking at the back of George McIntyre when the semi final finished.

McIntyre was a two race winner in the Kart Grand Prix at the same track the week before.

Ed Millman was MacCormack's closest chaser in the feature and Bob Urry came up to get third.

Russ Urry and Gary Bonham had a duel going in Class 4 Urry captured the heat, finished the semi right on Bonham's back, and then managed to sneak ahead of Bonham to gain the important feature win.

In other races, Ed Ellinger grabbed wins in the Class 5 heat and semi, but was stopped by Bill Wilson's triumph in the windup. Class 6 offered the most variety as Darrell Fenlon won the heat, Bill Trimble the semi, and Chris Fenlon the feature.
