'Fair Exchange' as English Teacher Here For Term

Miss Marion Prior — Teaching on Exchange Program

"Fair exchange is no robbery," according to the well known maxim, and in the case of fair haired exchange teacher, Miss Marion Prior, this should prove true for Wrigglesworth school students.

Miss Prior arrived here a "fortnight" ago from her home in Dartford, Kent, and will teach at Mr. R. Pinkerton's school, for a year, while he teaches her class in Welling, Kent, for a year.

She explained, ruefully, that she would be paid her English salary, which is considerably less than the Canadian salary, while Mr. Pinkerton would be paid his Canadian salary.

ASHGROVE
Frost Already, Summer Weather Disappearing
Fall is here again. The exhibition is over, shorter evenings and chill mornings. Labour Day is gone and now school has started again. It hardly seems possible that summer has gone. It was all too short. We've had a night frost that blackened things already, so winter is on its way.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dixon of Kapuskasing were visiting her mother Mrs. R. J. Graham and sister Mrs. Fred Nurse and other relatives and friends all last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey, Brian and Eddie motored to Chapleau over Labour day weekend to visit his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Patton and children Robert and Janet.

Mrs. Larry Wood of Toronto was a week-end visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Reave.

We are glad to be able to

She came because she has always wanted to teach abroad, she explained, and so far has met with nothing but kindness and hospitality. "The children seem about the same here as in England," she opined. However, the classes are different. In England the students are grouped in classes according to their ability, rather than all types being in one class. She admitted there was some opposition to the system, but felt on the whole it seemed to work.

The only difficulty she has encountered so far, is one of vocabulary. "I've found the bonnet of my car is the hood, and a lorry is a truck," she say that Mr. Clayton Wilson, who is in Georgetown Hospital, is improving every day. He had a nasty fall one day in August from a grain elevator. All his friends are hoping he will soon be able to be home again.

CNR Employee was RCAF Squadron Head
An RCAF veteran and a resident of Stewarttown as a youth, Harold Arthur Wilson died in Toronto on August 25.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson and attended public school in the village and St. John's Anglican church.

Mr. Wilson was a Canadian National Railways employee, joining the firm after the war at the same job in the bond office which his father had held. He was the upcoming president of his airforce squadron association.

He leaves his wife Eleanor Lyon, two children Donna and Cecil, and brothers and sisters

An unusual feature of this exchange was the fact that the two exchange teachers met as a rule they never see each other.

Miss Prior met Mr. Pinkerton at London airport when he arrived, and later when she sailed from Southampton aboard the Franconia, Mr. Pinkerton accompanied her and her family to the dock.

Miss Prior is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. B. Shrubsole, Market Street.

Funeral service took place at the Humphrey Funeral Chapel, Toronto, on Aug. 28. Interment was in Prospect Cemetery.
