

Philip Sweet, Jean Bird Wedding Vows in St. John's

MR. AND MRS. PHILIP EDMUND SWEET

On Saturday, July 24, St. John's United Church was decorated with standards of pink gladioli and white shasta mums when Mildred Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Bird, R. R. 3 Georgetown, became the bride of Philip Edmund Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sweet of Yotton, Somerset, England.

Rev. Ian Fleming officiated and Mrs. Francis Thompson, accompanied by Kenneth R. Harrison, sang Wedding Prayer, The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white organza over taffeta with princess bodice and bell skirt. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion fell from a headpiece of net petals and lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white cymbidium, stephanotis and ivy on a prayer book.

Mrs. Bob Pearson was her sister's matron of honour and Miss Joan Barrett was bridesmaid. They wore turquoise gowns similar to the bride's and their wedding ring heads and bands held tulle veils. They carried escort bouquets of pink carnations.

The flower girl was Carolyn Bird, cousin of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of white organza over taffeta with turquoise cummerbund. She carried a basket of pink carnations.

Mr. Les Jenkinson was groomsmen and the ushers were Messrs. Bob Pearson and David Gardhouse.

The reception was held in St. John's Memorial Hall. The bride's mother, dressed in pink shantung with pink cymbidium corsage and white accessories, assisted by the groom's mother in brown and gold printed silk with beige accessories and a corsage of green cymbidium, received the guests.

For a motor trip to the maritimes the bride chose a pink linen suit with navy and white accessories and corsage of white cymbidium.

Special guests were the groom's parents who came from England for the wedding.

Out-of-town guests were present from Dundas, Hamilton, Toronto, Ottawa, Essex and Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweet are living at R. R. 1 Mono Road.

Discuss Relaxing of $400 Lot Payment on Lutheran Property

Who will install sidewalks in front of a 9-lot property owned by Immanuel Lutheran Church in the Lane subdivision, was a problem discussed by council on Sept. 20.

Rev. John Kilfner and two members of the church board interviewed council about a $400 per lot cash payment which is called for in an agreement between the town and subdivision Bob Lane, when land is sold.

Plans call for a new church on only one lot, and church officials are asking that payment not be demanded on the other lots.

A majority of councillors expressed their opinion that the $400 payment was designed to cover school costs and that if the eight lots were to remain vacant, some concessions should be made.

But installation of sidewalks should be either contractor's or the church's responsibility, Deputy Reeve Hunter insisted.

A decision was deferred until a building application is presented to council.

Mayor Doubts Legality of Land Purchase Deal

Mayor Gibbons told council Monday that he has doubts about the legality of council's plan to purchase 175 acres of industrial land from Delrex Developments for $17,500.

Council last week voted to exercise a purchase option included in an agreement which releases residential land for building in the subdivision.

"I assure you this is not sour grapes," he told council. Mayor Gibbons has opposed both the agreement and the land purchase.

"There will undoubtedly be a motion at some future time for an additional payment on this land purchase," he said "and I would like you to decide if a cheque can legally be issued when the expenditure hasn't been provided for in the estimates."

Mr. Gibbons said the Dept. of Municipal Affairs has been contacted.

He warned councillors that when a member knowingly votes for an expenditure not in the year's budget, he could be held personally responsible.

August at Hospital is Busier Than Last Year

There were 161 emergency visits and 144 admissions at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital in August, a statistical report on last month's hospital operations released this week revealed.

Both figures are up over the August 1961 which had 143 emergency visits and 124 admissions.

It brings to 1,282 the number of adults and children admitted to Georgetown hospital this year. The number of emergency visits there now totals 1,103.

There were 5 deaths at the hospital in August, the same number as in August of 1961, making total number of deaths there this year 38.

Births last month totalled 34, three less than the same period last year, with the total for the eight months of the year 222.

There were 10 major operations, 45 minor operations, 22 tonsil and adenoid operations last month which upped the total number of operations in 1962 to 558.

X-ray examinations in August totalled 301, and there were 407 physiotherapy treatments given 37 patients.

Other figures for the month of August showed 63.5 per cent of the adult and children beds in use on an average day, and 40.3 per cent of the bassinets for newborns occupied. The year's average is 47.7 per cent.

Ten from S&S, Plax Join Twenty-five Year Club

Twenty-seven new members, eight of them from Smith and Stone, and two from Plax Canada Limited, both Georgetown firms were welcomed into the 25 Year Club of Associated companies, Duplate Canada Ltd., Fiberglass Canada Ltd., Plax Canada Ltd. and Smith and Stone Ltd. at an annual reception and dinner in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Friday.

Reaching a quarter century of employment with Smith and Stone during the past year were Mrs. Ann Collins, Frank Connelly, Charlie Gibbs, Floyd Hills, Gord James, Bud James, Bob Martin, and Albert 'Chubby' Stapleton.

John Mintern, and Bruce McCartney were the new members from Plax, the first from that firm to be admitted into the 25 Year Club.

The new memberships brought the total of Smith and Stone employees admitted into the organization since its inception in 1933 to 74.

Of the other 17 members admitted to the club Friday, 15 are Duplate employees and 2 Fiberglass employees.

"It is with great pleasure that I welcome the largest increase of new members since the inception of the 25 Year Club in 1933," Brigadier V. Wallace, the chairman of the board commented in his program message. "We can take a great deal of pride in the lengthening list of our 25 Year Club enrolment," he said.

Referring to the death of Lieut. Col. W. Eric Phillips last Christmas, Brig. Wallace said, "This occasion is tempered with sorrow as we record the passing of our founder and pay tribute to his inspired leadership throughout the years. His absence will be felt particularly in the 25 Year Club, most of whose members knew him well."

Company president R. Chant also offered his congratulations to all club members on the 13th anniversary. "The steady increase in the number of club members does, I believe, exemplify the stability of our corporate group which, in no small measure, is attributable to the devoted service and leadership of our long term employees."

The evening included a reception in the Royal York ballroom at 6:30 followed by dinner, presentations, and entertainment.

Pranksters Detour Bus Ends in Half Hour Halt

Passengers on a Gray Coach bus which proceeded through Georgetown Sunday night arrived at their destination close to half an hour behind schedule because the driver followed the arrow on a traffic detour sign — right into a school parking lot.

Police said the detour sign was placed across Maple Ave. opposite Holy Cross Separate School by pranksters who apparently found the sign at the side of the road.

The bus driver obligingly followed the sign's directions, made a left turn at the top of Maple Ave. hill and found himself approaching the back door of the Roman Catholic Separate school.

The bus got stuck while the driver was attempting to take the vehicle off the Holy Cross property and a costly delay was the result.

Saturday is Swingin' Night For All Ages at the Riviera

It's a swinging Saturday night at the Norval Riviera, with dancing for all ages, entertainment, and a small portion of discotheque. All together it's the "four hours fun" advertised so frequently.

While Harvey Smith and his ten piece band play music for all ages every Saturday, everything varies from week to week. During intermission, the entertainment, sometime singers, dancers, comedians, acrobats, and even the occasional animal act takes over. All the variety of the Ed Sullivan show is offered, and in fact some of the acts have appeared with the "great stone face."

It's back to dancing with Harvey Smith after the entertainment-filled intermission, but toward the end of the evening, the beat changes when another band takes over.

For a short time it's discotheque, or perhaps live-o-teeque, since the band is live, really live. The beat of rhythm and blues now fills the octagonal shaped Riviera, while the dancers gyrate to the watusi, swim, freddie and frug.

For those whose age or sacroiliac forbid this type of acrobatics, it's a great fun to sit and watch.

Since Saturday nights are pretty full up, the Riviera management asks would-be customers to make reservations—they don't like turning folks away.

Sunday night it's fun for the young in heart and feet. It's rhythm and blues all the way with descriptive names like "The Shades of Blue," "J. B. and the Playboys," "Levon and the Hawks," "Robbi Lane," and "Rompin' Ronnie Hawkins," stompin' out the beat.

Both couples and singles are welcome Sunday night. In addition to the dancing, the cokes, hamburgers etc., are served by bunny-clad waitresses at gingham covered candle lit tables.

Ranger Victory Cinderella Story, Dog World Version

The canine world has its own version of the Cinderella story. It goes like this.

Once there was a German Shepherd named Tanhard's Northern Ranger. Tanhard's because it was from the Tanhard Kennels of Miss Laura Treble R.R. 1, Georgetown.

One day (Saturday September 18 to be exact) little Northern Ranger, with no experience in the show ring and no training, was pitted against 16 of the best Canadian puppies of his breed in the annual Canadian Specialty Show at Grimsby.

He was judged the winner and in all likelihood will live happily ever after.

Unlike the original Cinderella this isn't a fairy tale. Tanhard's Northern Ranger was shown by Miss Treble in the Junior Puppy competition and gained a first, and was also judged best male puppy in the well attended show.

The judge was Dr. Rommel of Germany.

The pup's mother, Tanhard's Jenny, took a 3rd in the Breed by Exhibitor Female Class, and another Tanhard's shepherd, Perks, was 7th in a class of 20 in the Open Female competition.
