

Cubs View Niagara, Zoo Climb Brock's Monument

First Georgetown Cubs pack invited their parents, and eight Scouts to go on a bus trip to Queenston Heights, Niagara Falls and Buffalo Zoo. The tour was held Saturday.

Last Saturday forty-four boys of First Georgetown Cubs pack invited their parents, and eight Scouts to go on a bus trip to Queenston Heights, Niagara Falls, and the Buffalo Zoo.

A most enjoyable day was spent by all, and for some Cubs it was their first bus ride, for others the first trip to see the Cataracts at Niagara Falls.

The two buses left St. John's United Church shortly after 9 a.m. and arrived at schedule at Queenston Heights. Almost everyone climbed Brock's Monument and could view out the opening for many miles. This monument was erected in memory of Sir Isaac Brock who was killed while leading his men to his attack against the Americans during the Battle of Queenston, October 1812.

The first group was the Floral Clock located by the Sir Adam Beck Hydro Generating Station. The buses then went on to the picnic area in the park by the Falls and by this time everyone was ready for lunch.

Immediately after lunch most of the group viewed the Great Cataracts, then toured Madam Tussaud's Wax Museum.

Just before leaving the Falls for the use of Scouts from Beaver Pack a few minutes to swap badges with Scouts Dennis Wright and Glenn Brownhead.

Arriving at the zoo on schedule the Cubs were really fascinated at the number of different types of animals, birds and reptiles.

Three uncheduled events happened during the day. Miss McConnell's sweater blew out the bus window but was retrieved. Richard Marley's Cub Cap blew off at the zoo and floated around in the Seal pool for 30 minutes until a keeper came along and rescued it with a dip net. Miss Margaret Coody lost her wallet in Niagara Falls but when she arrived home her wallet had been returned right to her home by an honest person who had picked it up. A Mrs. Larry Melchior of Saginaw Mich. had found the wallet and while she and her husband were enroute to Montreal stopped in Georgetown to return it.

The last stop was in Fort Erie where everyone enjoyed having supper before leaving for home after a perfect day.

This trip was made possible by the First Georgetown Group Committee. Arrangements were made by C.M. Mrs. Joan Layman, assisted by A.C.M. David Shrubsole.

Plan Christian Service Brigade for Boys 8-11

About one hundred and fifty men from this area attended its annual leader's conference for Christian Service Brigade men at the West End YMCA Camp grounds at Norval last week end. The conference was designed to help local leaders in their endeavor to train boys in the 8 to 11 age group.

Christian Service Brigade has headquarters in Wheaton, Illinois, and the Canadian office is in Burlington.

It was pointed out at this year's conference that there are more than 55,000 boys meeting weekly in the U.S.A. and Canada. There are also C.S.B. units in about 9 other countries. Each group is sponsored by a local church and it is inter-denominational.

The Georgetown Battalion is sponsored by the Maple Avenue Baptist Church and has been functioning for six years.

Nine men from Georgetown attended the conference, and plans are laid for starting the group for boys 8 to 11 years old on October 2.

Twyn Brothers Are Ushers Wingrove-Harron Wedding

Rev. J. A. Catling officiated when Shirley Rose Harron became the bride of Donald George Wingrove. The marriage took place on September 18 in St. Barnabas Anglican Church, London.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harron of London and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wingrove, 15 Durham St., Georgetown.

The bride chose a floor length gown of soft white crepe with a scooped neckline, elbow length sleeves and A-line skirt. Her chapel train extended from a bow at the empire waistline. A border of Swiss guipure lace accented the neckline, sleeves and waistline of the gown. A wedding band held her bouffant veil and she carried a prayer book created with pink cymbidium, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Ann Jackson, Toronto, was maid of honour and bridesmaids were Misses Rebecca Campbell and Joan Bush, both of London. They were dressed alike in empire styled dresses of cranberry crepe. Flower girls, niece of the bride, were Digna MacMaster of Virginia Beach and Catharine Procunier of Belmont. They wore white crystal charm frocks and carried baskets of pink sweetheart roses.

Bill Manderson, Georgetown, was groomsmen and ushering guests were Graham and Grant Wingrove, twin brothers of the groom. Jeffrey Boyd, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

For travelling the bride chose a red wool suit, black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wingrove are living at 1011 Adelaide St. London. The bride is a graduate of Victoria Hospital School of Nursing, London, and the groom is completing his final year in the B.A. course at University of Western Ontario.

Mock Wedding Entertains at Silver Anniversary

A surprise party was held on Saturday night, September 25th at the Brant Inn, Burlington, in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Howden who were celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary. The party was arranged by the Howden family and was attended by 60 friends and relatives.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening. A Mock Wedding provided plenty of laughter with Mrs. Ruth Ford acting as the instructor. Arnold Howden, played the part of the bride, Betty-Anne Eyre, was the groom, James Ford, the best man, Cathy Hunter, bridesmaid, Jack Thorpe the bride's father and Stan Eyre was the minister.

Following a Borgasbord Dinner at 10 p.m., the couple were presented with numerous gifts including a card of twenty five silver dollars from their children, a silver teapot from the Howden family, and an electric coffee percolator from the Kennedy family.

Mrs. Howden was the former Marguerite Kennedy.
