

Flamenco Music Is New Addition to Musicales

"An evening of fun and good music" was the Georgetown Hospital Auxiliary's Fall Musicales, directed by Ralph Ussel. Contributing largely to the fun was the informal smooching of Tom Darcie, and the choice of songs ranging from tender ballads to comic folk songs.

Songs by Pat Grady, Tom Trouton, Sandra Greig, Milree Armstrong and young Lois Elliott drew enthusiastic applause from the capacity audience.

An innovation locally was the traditional flamenco type music played by Clate Goshing on the Spanish guitar.

A quick change of pace saw a jazz ballet appear on the dark ened stage. Accompanying the dancers Pat Bligh, Donna Thomson, Beverly Gearing, Madeline Buresh and Leslie Buresh, was the high school dance band, led by Mike Baker.

In their selection, the complete high school band under Ivan Long went, from Handel to boogie woogie with obvious enjoyment.

Not to be outdone by Yorkville street, the evening concluded with a folk singing group, introduced as the "PatnamMotom" singers — alias Pat Grady, Sandra Greig, Milree Armstrong, Tom Trouton, and Tom Darcie.

Behind the scenes were Ed Burman, Ken Robertson and Steve Parsons on lights, and Chris Walker on curtains.

The stage setting carrying out the theme of the fall musicale, with a king size treble clef and autumn leaves, was designed and erected by Maureen Walker, while the program with some theme was by Gus Yautuz.

The all-important accompanists were Ralph Ussel, Bernard Shrubsole, Ian Cass, and George Rowe.

Convening the whole successful evening, both financially and musically, was Mrs. Ralph Ussel.

THE DISTRICT AT A GLANCE

HUTTONVILLE — The O.W.N.C. has investigated a number of complaints from residents in the Huttonville area and has found that the levels of their wells is being lowered by Brampton's new Huttonville well. They have advised that Brampton restore the water to these people at the town's expense.

OAKVILLE — Four hours without pause the band played and more than 1,500 people joined in dance, song, laughter, and drink Saturday evening when the German Canadian Club Eintracht held its annual "Oktoberfest" at Oakville arena. Authentic Bavarian costumes were in order as well as large mugs of German beer.

ORANGEVILLE — The second annual fall rally of the York and Central Region division of the Historical Automobile Society of Canada was held in Orangeville on the weekend. Between 20 and 30 automobiles of rare vintage were parked outside the Myr-Mac Motel on Highway 10 during the initial meeting.
