LIMEHOUSE

Friends Hold Shower For October Bride

Mrs. Thomas Van Sickle was hostess for a pantry shelf shower for Miss Alice Booth, a bride to be in October, on Friday evening. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by neighbours and friends of the families, and the honoured guest received a lot of useful gifts.

About twenty five had a good time at Ross Lake, where the Sunday School enjoyed a corn and wiener roast on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Clow and daughters were guests at the Hodges - Clow wedding in Acton United Church on Friday evening. Ronald was an usher and Lorri and Rhonda were flower girls.

We regret that Mrs. Dirk Pool has been hospitalized in Georgetown for treatment for a clipped disc in the neck. We wish her a quick recovery.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Calder were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Lindsay last weekend.

Sunday School will reopen at Limehouse Presbyterian Church at 1:30 p.m. on Oct. 3rd. Communion services will be conducted by Rev. F. N. Young next Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Banner (nee Geraldine Chaklin) who were married at Richmond Hill on Saturday and will be living in Limehouse, having purchased the James Noble house.

Mrs. Mills spent last week in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick have returned from a week with the Calvin MacDonalds at Elmwood.

We are sorry that the little Swinkles baby has been hospitalized with pneumonia. We hope to hear he is better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton and Mrs. Robert Lane were among forty close relatives who attended the twenty fifth wedding anniversary dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane at their home in Georgetown on Sept. 19th. The party was arranged by the family. Miss Carol Lane and Mr. Terry Lane

Corn Roast Starts New Season For Baptist Couples

Married couples of First Baptist and St. Paul's Baptist churches launched their new meeting season recently with a corn roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hancock, Glen Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken McCosh were in charge of the roast.

Their October meeting will be a Halloween party Friday the 30th at St. Paul's. Rev. and Mrs. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barton, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buttrey are arranging the party.

Glen Church Ceremony For Cooper-Cowbrough Wedding

Rev. R. Irwin officiated at the marriage of Roseanne Gail Cowbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cowbrough, 13 Hale Drive, Georgetown, to Glen Wynn Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, Glen Williams. The double ring ceremony took place on Saturday, Sept. 11th at four o'clock in Glen Williams United Church. Mrs. Shirley Inglis was the organist with Miss Nancy Hunter the soloist, singing The Wedding Prayer and I'll Walk Beside Thee.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organza over tulle, fashioned with a pique bodice and bell skirt with a full length train flowing from the shoulder. Her headpiece was a tiara from which fell four tiers of net, shoulder length, and her bowers were a bouquet of pink roses. She wore the gift of the groom, a cultured pearl drop necklace.

Mrs. Mary Lou Sharpe was matron of honour, Miss Donna Jackson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Miss Corvess Cooper, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. All were gowned alike in floor length shocking pink crepe, fashioned with Empire waistlines, matching bows formed their headpieces and they carried white and pink carnations. They wore lockets, gifts of the bride.

John Primeau, Downsview, was the groomsman with Bob Cowbrough, brother of the bride, Call and Brian Hill, cousins of the groom, Georgetown, ushers.

The wedding reception was held in the Odd Fellows Hall where Mrs. Cowbrough received for her daughter wearing a two piece ensemble of turquoise and green floral print organza with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of white roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Cooper who wore a gown of gold brocade with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

For their honeymoon trip through the New England States including a trip through the Thousand Islands and a stop-over at Lake Placid, New York, the bride wore a three piece green tweed suit with gold accessories and a corsage of two brown orchids. They are making their home at 7 Leslie St., Brampton. Mrs. Cooper is employed at American Motors Limited, Brampton and Mr. Cooper at De Havilland Aircraft of Canada Ltd.

A unique feature at the wedding was that the ornament, used to top the wedding cake, had been used by the bride's grandmother and mother, at their wedding.

Centralize Finances For GDHS Student Activities

A central bank account for all student organizations has been created at Georgetown high school.

The new account, into which will go all monies from the student council, other student groups and athletic associations, will be administered by new G.D.H.S. principal Mr. Donald Turner and the school secretary.

At the recent high school meeting at which the account was approved, the principal was also authorized to increase the number of his office staff from four full time and one half-time to five full time employees.

An increase in enrolment and paper work was stated as the reason for the staff increase.

Showers and Presentations for Bride, Mrs. G. Cooper

A recent bride, Mrs. Glen W. Cooper, 5 Leslie Street, Brampton, was honoured at several showers prior to her marriage on September 11th. Mrs. Sharon Smith and Miss Joan Young were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower. Miss Gwen Clark and Mrs. Rita Houston hosted a personal shower. Both of these were held in Brampton. Mrs. George Cooper, Glen Williams, entertained at a cup and saucer shower and in Georgetown Mrs. Dorothy Bailey and Mrs. Jean Gardhouse held a miscellaneous shower. A fifth shower, kitchen and pantry, was held in Guelph, given by Mrs. Molly Jackson, Miss Donna Jackson and Mrs. Alice Ward.

Members of the Glen Williams United Church presented the bride and groom with a mirror and bible. The girls of American Motors entertained for the bride at the Thunderbird for lunch and presented her with a corsage of white carnations and fellow employees presented her with a grill and waffle iron. The employees of De Havilland presented the groom with a pair of table lamps.

For their honeymoon trip through the New England States including a trip through the Thousand Islands and a stop-over at Lake Placid, New York, the bride wore a three piece green tweed suit with gold accessories and a corsage of two brown orchids. Car Wrecked, Three Injured When Auto Hits Bulldozer

A late model Pontiac was completely wrecked and its three occupants injured when the vehicle collided with the side of a bulldozer on Guelph St. opposite the KIA store Sunday night, Sept. 25.

Treated in hospital by Dr. Al Macintosh were the driver Thomas Leo Power, 35 Raylawn Circle, and two other local men Terrance Break and Thomas Finnamore. Finnamore, the most seriously injured, received a dislocated hip, and lacerations. Break suffered a bump on his head and sore arm, and Power's out chis and broken rib.

Police said the car they were riding in was eastbound on Guelph St. along the middle of the highway under construction when it rammed the huge bulldozer. The machine is owned by Armstrong Brothers Construction.

Damage to the car was placed at $2,000. The complete front end, windshield, dash and left front door were written off. The collision took place at about 9:20 p.m.

"KEEP INFORMED..."

Some people disagree with "keep informed" but many miss his daily insight on national, provincial and anything else that comes into the area of his news handouts. Like the best baseball umpire, Sinclair calls 'em as he sees 'em and if you are tired or... well, that's his. The comment you hear most about Sinclair is "I can't afford to miss him because I never know what he's going to do next." He's heard at 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. (as if you didn't know) — and with his "Let's Be Personal" at 11:45 a.m. and "Show Business" at 5:45 p.m.
