ASHGROVE

The month of Thanksgiving has come again, the yearly gifts of the soil are safe in granaries, cellars and freezers. It's time to give thanks in the grand manner with family and friends showing the fruits of your toil, time to praise the giver of all things. I say truly we have much to be thankful for.

The three junior groups met in the Church on Sunday afternoon. The Messengers opened their meeting with a hymn their motto and prayer, also a few games played by the eleven children present. Joanne Wilson read the Sept. minutes, Donald Ruddell took up the offering. Theme for their worship services was Thanksgiving. Carolyn Bird read the scriptures and Karen Wickson gave the prayer Mrs. George Wilson told a story on Thanksgiving.

For handiwork they made a colored tree.

The Tyros had six boys present. Their theme was using money wisely. They had a contest on things money can buy. Lorne Wilson and Keith Austin assisted with the meeting. Mrs. John McNabb told the true story of Abe Lincoln and his honesty or what it cost a young man to be honest. All went out aids for some games after which the meeting closed with the T. ceremony.

The Explorers after a short hymn sing continued their study of being an Explorer for the girls who have just newly graduated from the Explorer group. Mrs. John Bird concluded with remainder of the group the study "Using our Gifts" begun in September. The thought centered around our Stewardship of God's gifts of minds, abilities and time. A brief worship service was held combining Thanksgiving theme with the lesson just studied. Grace Bird read scripture, Lorna Bryan and Ann McCutcheon gave prayers. Jamie Critchell took up the offering. Lunch was served by Mrs. John Bird and Mrs. McCutcheon.

There will be no service in the church on Sunday morning. The next service will be held at Thornby.

Logan-Mackenzie Team is First Winner at Bridge

Georgetown duplicate bridge club, organized two weeks ago, has proved to be popular with local bridge players.

For the past few years several town people have been attending the Acton club which meets Monday night. Many now play at the two clubs, while some newcomers who could not make the weekly trip to Acton have joined here.

The first meeting was on Tuesday, October 5 in the Legion auditorium. Eleven couples were present. Wellington (Duke) Wilson, who organized the club, was assisted by Earl Emond in explaining the game to those who had not played.

The club is for men, and women, and players may come with their own partners, or alone, when they will be paired with another single player. It is stressed that people are welcome any evening, and it is not necessary to come every Tuesday night in order to belong. There is a small charge of 50¢ per person each evening, and a cash prize is awarded to the top couple.

The club will be affiliated with the American Contract Bridge League and master points will be issued to qualifying players.

There will be no games the third Tuesday in each month, as the Legion auditorium has prior bookings for that night, so next Tuesday will be an "off" night for the club.

Winners on October 5 were Misses Olive Logan and Margery Mackenzie with 40½ points. Next in order were Mrs. Pete

Liquor Charges Bring Fines from Magistrate

A Georgetown man who, according to police, searched through his wallet for his license four times and after finding it put it in his shirt pocket and searched through his wallet again, was fined $700 in magistrate's court Wednesday.

The man was stopped by Georgetown police when his car was spotted weaving down Main St.

A Milton man was fined $55 for having beer in a place other than his residence at the same court. The accused, who appeared in court with a fractured jaw, was not able to speak.

Women's Institute Visited County Museum at Kelso

Twenty-four members and guests of the Georgetown Women's Institute visited the Halton County Museum at Kelso and conducted their October meeting there Wednesday.

Major H. J. Newton, the curator of the museum, welcomed the party after which Mrs. Thompson conducted the abbreviated meeting.

Roll call was answered by naming a favourite vegetable. Mrs. W. Wilson gave a report of the board meeting she had attended in Milton recently.

A committee was named to plan a euchre party to be held in Stewarttown hall November 12 at which a draw will be made for the quilt on which tickets are currently being sold.

Two readings were given by Miss L. Campbell who had charge of the program. They dealt with agriculture and Canadian industry.

After the meeting closed, tables were set up and lunch and a cup of tea was enjoyed.

A tour of the building followed the meeting.

Thanks was expressed to all who had taken part in arranging the afternoon.
