

ELMER STAYED ALOFT ALL TERM AT TWO SCHOOLS

WENDY MAGORSEN AND BILL BRADLEY of Howard Wrigglesworth Public School hold the traffic safety award presented that school by Domtar Paper Mills Ltd. at a ceremony recently. To qualify for the award the school completed the 1964-1965 term without a pupil being involved in a traffic accident. Wendy and Bill accepted the plaque on behalf of their fellow pupils from Georgetown Domtar resident-manager W. J. Crichton.

Elmer the Safety Elephant stayed aloft for a full term on flags at two Georgetown schools, Chapel St. and Wrigglesworth. The Elmer flag is hoisted at each elementary school at the start of very school year, but is hauled down and trucked away at any school which has a pupil involved in a traffic accident.

CHAPEL STREET PUBLIC SCHOOL pupils Barry and Larry Agnew show the Smith and Stone Ltd. plaque which was awarded that school for an accident-free past term. E. McManamy of Smith and Stone made the presentation. Also taking part in the ceremonies at the two schools were Mayor Joseph Gibbons, Police Cpl. Ted Scott, public school board chairman John Mintern, board trustee G. Sigurdson, and business administrator James F. Evans.

IODE Making Plans for Valentine Ball Again

The Valentine ball will be continued as a fund raising project. It was decided at a meeting of Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IODE, on October 4 at the home of Mrs. Stan Wright, Guelph St.

A committee was formed to plan this with Mrs. John Elliott, convener, and Mrs. James Linton, Mrs. James Evans, Mrs. Denney Charles, Mrs. Sam Penrice, Mrs. R. A. Ballantine, Mrs. Howard Holmes, Mrs. Earl Lince, Mrs. Thomas Hush and Miss Helen Macdonald.

Mrs. Elliott reported that the white shirt hospital project will be available for the November meeting scheduled for November 15 at the home of Mrs. Penrice. An auction sale will be held at that meeting.

Clinic convener Mrs. Dave Godden stated that the health unit well-baby clinic is still very busy and volunteer help by members will be greatly appreciated. Mrs. Oliver Hunter informed members that she is waiting for a reply from the principal of the chapter's newly adopted school in Newfoundland. A letter from high school principal Donald Turner was received concerning commencement prizes.

Mrs. Evans thanked the hostess and co-hostesses who were Mrs. Godden, Mrs. Wm. B. Hamilton, Mrs. Burton Macdonald, Mrs. Gordon Kidney and Mrs. Lince.

The regent, Mrs. Sam-Penrice, presided at the meeting; secretary Miss Helen Macdonald read the minutes and Mrs. A. W. Gilmer gave the treasurer's report.

Instal Mrs. Joyce Barton As Rebekah Noble Grand

Mrs. Joyce Barton was installed as noble grand of Verdun Rebekah lodge last week, when an installing team from Centre District officiated at an impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Laura Searle, district deputy, conducted the installation and was later presented with a gift from the lodge. A gift was also presented to the retiring noble grand, Mrs. Florence Eason, who also received a bouquet of roses from her husband and son.

New officers of the lodge this year are: Mrs. Marion Walsh, vice grand; Mrs. Julia Watson, recording secretary; Mrs. Alice Jepson, financial secretary; Mrs. Lillian Ritchie, treasurer; Mrs. Jean King, chaplain; Mrs. Helen Ball, warden; Mrs. Anne Riddell, conductor; Mrs. Margaret Parker, colour bearer; Mrs. Millie Allen, RSNQ; Mrs. Helen Zeravlev, LSNQ; Mrs. Peggy Wylie, RSVG; Mrs. Doris Presswood, LSVG; Mrs. Eleanor McLeod, OG; Mrs. Amy Pearce, IG.

Among visitors for the evening was a past president of the Ontario Assembly, Mrs. Louise Clark of Toronto.
