KEEP SHOOTING A SAFE SPORT

With the hunting season all around us once again, I'd like to pass on to Georgetown hunters and hunters-to-be the following common sense points that appeared a while back in a telephone company safety journal.

- 1) Never carry a loaded gun in an automobile, wagon, or other vehicle. Keep it in its case until you start hunting.
- 2) Before shooting, look into breech and make sure that the barrel or barrels are clear.
- 3) Keep the safety lock on until just ready to shoot.
- 4) Never pull a gun through a fence nor carry it over with you. Keep the muzzle pointing away from yourself and others.
- 5) Never lay a loaded gun down in a boat. Never lift a gun from a boat by the barrel.
- 6) Don't set a loaded gun against a tree or fence or leave it lying on the ground. Even a playful dog might cause it to be discharged.
- 7) After a fall, or a climb, or after walking over ploughed ground, examine your gun to make sure the barrels are clear.
- 8) Never shoot at objects indistinctly seen among trees or bushes; they might be human beings.
- 9) Before shooting a game, make sure that no house, barn or other building is in the line of fire.
- 10) Don't leave your gun or shells near a stove, a fireplace or other fire.

One other point not covered but important is that it is never open season on telephone poles, conductors or cables. Taking pot shots at vital telephone installations not only shows a very great lack of maturity but endangers the life and property of people who depend on the telephone to bring them assistance in emergencies.

LITTLE GRAY LININGS

Ever notice the way things seem to go wrong at the very worst minute? I guess it happens to all of us once in a while. Like the morning you're late for work is the one morning the car won't start. Or the day that company is coming for dinner is the day that the washer decides to flood the floor. There just doesn't seem to be any way we can outfox these little disasters—all we can do is hang on to our temper and reach for the telephone. It will put you in touch with someone who can help out. You can reach the boss... who'll probably understand... and a mechanic who understands why automobiles do what they do. You can get a repairman on the way to put the washer back in shape. And a phone call to a friend or neighbour may bring in someone to help with mopping up and offer some well-deserved sympathy. At times like these what's easier than picking up the telephone? It's always there to call on. And the help it brings, when you need it most, adds just that much more to the value of your telephone service.

Phone Customers Split on Georgetown-Milton Link

Milton customers are deadlocked over whether they want wider local telephone services, Bell Telephone Company report shows.

Those in favour and those against the company's plan to dispense with long distance charges to Georgetown, Oakville and Burlington are "very evenly divided," the report says.

It quotes local Bell manager E. A. Blachford who says about 10 per cent of the customers filed a reaction to the proposal.

The proposal was made to Milton customers in August in a letter signed by Mr. Blachford. He pointed out that the Milton calling area would increase from 5,000 to 55,000 telephones, if the plan were adopted.

He noted that the new rates, based on the number of phones that could be reached without long distance charges, would jump from $3.90 to 4.95 for an individual residence line per month.

Mr. Blachford states in the report that Milton customers will not know for several weeks

If your oil furnace is more than 13 years old, it's time to call Elias Rogers.

Furnaces never improve with age. This doesn't mean that after 13 years your furnace will begin to fall apart at the seams. Nothing as drastic as that. It does mean that after this length of service your furnace is more prone to costly breakdowns. As you would expect, the likelihood of major repairs increases with age.

Here's the solution—our Complete Home Heating Package! You pay only $32.00 per year. Your oil heating equipment is maintained in first class condition. In addition, you receive all the coverage included in the $12.00 plan. You are provided with a new Furnace, Boiler or Oil Burner if needed; the only cost would be the labour involved in replacing the unit.

THE $12.00 PLAN

If your concern is protection against the cost of repairing or replacing oil burner parts... we have a plan for you. It's our $12.00 Replacement Parts Protection Plan.
