

Just Like Old Times, Ex-Raiders Full House

From the past of two levels attracted over 1000 paying customers into the Memorial Arena on Sunday afternoon when the NHL Oldtimers played Georgetown Raiders Oldtimers for the benefit of local minor hockey.

Raiders 13-3 but for the onlookers the score was secondary, just a necessary by-product of a game which mainly served to present some of the former talent that for years made up Georgetown's best known sports aggregation.

NHLers and Raiders were introduced to the applauding crowd by John T. Armstrong, who was past president of the Ontario Intermediate A title for the first time.

Magdy, Jamie Cunningham, Bill Bingham, Harv Chappel and Eddie Binzell, with Norm Lockhart and Glenwright Hillcock sharing goalkeeping.

An accident during the pre-game warmup put Nick Ferri on the sidelines with an injured shoulder.

Other NHLers in the game were goalie Ivan Walmsley, Bob Goldham, Wally Stanowski, Bob Robertson and Jack Hamilton.

A popular player with the Georgetown Raider teams of the '40's, Bungy Ward drops the first puck between Bud Vary and Jack Hamilton.

The Georgetown Girls Pipe Band entertained between periods, and a draw for a lady's watch and tickets to a Maple Leaf hockey game was made before the start of the third.

Mrs. Cy Wilson, and Mike Carson, Weston, were the prize-winner.

Another former Raider, Hungy Ward, dropped the first puck.

The game was a project of the Georgetown Minor Hockey Support Group.

The NHL Oldtimers owned a 40 lead after one period on goals by Harry Watson (2), Sid Smith and Harry Cullen.

Cal Gardner, Watson, Goose McCormack each scored once and Danny Laweski twice in the middle period which ended with the visitors in front 9-1. Wayne Thompson counted the Raider Oldtimers goal from Bob Hingham and Del Beaumont.

Rebs Cinch Second Place Whitewash Guelph 18-0

Georgetown Rebels Football team solidified their hold on second place in the CWOSSA District 10 league Friday by over-powering Guelph CVI 18-0 in Georgetown park.

The 4th quarter score was a familiar quick opener up the middle which Jeff Nurse made work for 63 yards.

Coach Lyn McLaren praised his defensive and offensive line after the game and the bulk of the credit for the key victory on their shoulders. The defense performed so well that Guelph failed to present a real scoring threat at any time.

Georgetown's record is now 3 wins and 1 defeat with two games remaining on the schedule. They play St. Jerome's here Friday, and host Milton next week.

Six first year seniors on the defensive unit were especially outstanding. Georgetown led 13-0 at the half and added a touchdown in the final quarter.

The Georgetown high school junior football team played before the senior encounter and lost to Guelph CVI junior 27 to 7.

A long pass to Mike Cummins produced the first touchdown. The second was the result of a blocked Guelph kick at the GCVI 5 yard line. Nurse carried to the 1, and Phil Lavell took it over from there on the second down play.

The junior's offense was as good as it has been all season, but broke down when in close

The finals were played in Glen Williams softball park under the lights with fall weather quickly closing in on the two remaining contenders a good turnout of fans watched the final.

The champs are sponsored by Varcum of Lindsay, a division of Reichold Chemical Co. of Canada Ltd.

Members of the winning club are playing coach Jim Beckett,

Magdy, Jamie Cunningham, Bill Bingham, Harv Chappel and Eddie Binzell, with Norm Lockhart and Glenwright Hillcock sharing goalkeeping.

An accident during the pre-game warmup put Nick Ferri on the sidelines with an injured shoulder.

Duplicate Bridge Proves Popular Local Feature

Georgetown's new duplicate bridge club proved popular again last week when twelve couples turned out for the evening in the Legion auditorium.

THURSDAY, OCT. 21, 1965 PAGE 13

Mrs. Bob Barber and Mrs. Fred Peters were top scorers for the evening, for the twelfth couples present.

Next in order were: Mrs. Wellington Wilson and Cass Sinclair; Mike Lorusso and Earl Emood; George Sargent and Dick Prust; Wellington Wilson and A. E. Dawson; Mrs. Pete Hunter and Lloyd Keir.

There was no game this week because of a prior booking of the auditorium. Games will resume next Tuesday at 8 p.m., and all bridge players will be welcomed.
